Industries Plan For Personnel Organization

Statesman News Service LEBANON, Nov. 10-Twenty midvalley business and industrial rep-start receiving polio shots Tuesday under a voluntary program further plans for organization of . The shots will cost the students $1 and the college is even the Santiam Valley Personnel Asso-

Attending from the Salem area lar to spare . . . Over 300 students-nearly half of the student were M. F. McFarland, a representative of the State Unemployment Compensation Commission and ager slipped into the polling booths Tuesday ... Anyway, for Company Cooperative, Also, Charles Wilson and Norman Blair, state employment ser-

Another shellacking for Notre Dame yesterday pretty well E. Southworth, Wayne Robbins, confirmed 1956 as the blackest year in the school's modern Robert G. Smith, Cascades Plyfootball history . . . After the Irish lost their opener to South- wood: George W. Henderson ern Methodist, a group of monks had to break the news to one schools; Carrel Bennett, bank, Alof their elders, an avid Notre Dame grid fan who was over 90 len H. Erb, hospital, E. B. Densand had lost his sight . . . After telling him the bad news, the more, Western Veneer; Hugh Croyounger monks sought to console their aged brethren by tell- ner, Crown Zellerbach, all of Lebing him that, after all, the Southern Methodist quarterback, anon.

old monk glowered . . . "What was his first name," he asked, boht of Sweet Home: George La

Miles, CZ, San Francisco, senate race with the loser to pay off at the rate of a penny for ert Smith, Carrell Bennett, Wayne every vote by which his candidate trailed . . . The loser had to Baxter, all of Lebanon, Paul Trube

Members are welcomed from Al-The Statesman election team of valley correspondents-aug- bany, Lebanon, Sweet Home and

A couple of real workhorses on election night were Ed Of Azaleas

Statesman News Service HAZEL GREEN, Nov. 10 -Growth and hybridization of azalea and rhodedendron shrubs over a period of more than 230 years was Choiristers the topic of a graden talk by Jock Brydon at the home of Mrs. Ed Zielinski when the Labish Madows Due at OCE Garden Club assembled. Colored slides of specimens both plants, which were originally found in England, China and Janan MONMOUTH, Nov. 10-The Alshowed how much improvement had been made from the early species to the present colorful hardy varieties so popular in on the Oregon College of Educatoday's gardens. tion Campus. Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave presided at the business session when details peared here last year and their participated. of the coming Christmas Greens concert was considered by many Show were outlined. A workday as the best of the year's program, was scheduled for Thursday, Nov, the college reported. 29, at the home of Mrs. Dorothy It's a Grand Night for Zielinski. Singing Rodgers Sweet Zestasy from Pike arr. Choate In the Sill of the Night Porter How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling At this workshop, members will make further preparations for the show which is to be held at the Hazel Green auditorium on Decem-BearOfful Savior arr. Christianson Liebeslieder Waltzer (Love-Song Waltzer) Highlights from "Porgy and Bess"

Owner Passes

Statesman News Service

Court News SHERIDAN, Nov. 10-Services for Theron Arthur Lockwood will @Statesman News Service be held Monday at Pershall's DALLAS, Nov. 10-The following chapel. Interment will be at Green new complaints are on file in Polk Memorial Park, He was operate kennels. Willamette Valley in recent years, are staging a comeback under Mr. and Mrs. William Pfau who started a pug kennel here a few months ago. The Pug is a toy breed with short silky hair and weighs 14 to 18 pounds. It is known as an English dog and was very popular 50 years ago, then became almost extinct in the Pacific Northwest, the Pfaus report.

Rodgers

Brahm

Gershwin

Polk County

The Pfaus obtained their first dogs from kennels in Texas and Rhode Island. During the past season they have won 13 first places, including top pug honors at dog shows at Astoria, Eugene, Salem and Vancouver, Wash. The pug they prize the most is named High and Mighty Scherub. Fanciers of the breed include the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, who have four pugs.

Suburban Street Dwellers Plan Christmas Lights

Statesman News Service FOUR CORNERS, Nov. 10bany Choiristers will appear in a A get-to-know-your-neighbor-club, public concert Thursday at 8 p.m. with Ray Anderson as president, in the Campbell Hall auditorium held a covered-dish dinner in the Community Hall Friday evening. Entertainment for the social hour

Plans for lighting Draper Street, where these families all live, through the holidays were made. In the absence of street lights, every home will burn a porch light through the evening hours. At least two annual major events planned for this Christmas season week. for Draper Street. Planning com-

It's Easy To Get

Dallas Mayor-Elect Has Cascade Sets School Week Observance

TURNER, Nov. 9 - American Education Week will be discussed at a public program at 8 p.m. 12 years in office. Tuesday at Cascade Union High School

Salem School Supt. Charles Salem School Supt. Charles experience as a city council mem-schmidt will speak and a sym- ber. His knowledge of the city posium will discuss federal aid to dates back to 1912 when he moved education, student government, here from Kansas with his parjunior high schools and other sub- ents. jects.

Taking part in the symposium will be students Gene Speer, Alice Friesen Core company. His firm Graves, Jim Uhrhammer, Gary Downer, Alan Spurlock, Carol Margie Papke, Myra Freeman, Myers and Richard Wakely. Two former Cascade students will speak on their college experiences. They are Wayne Feller, now at Oregon State, and Janet Crane, Linfield students. The school band will play. Calvin Hersey, social economics instructor, is in charge of the pro-gram which will be preceded by open house from 7 to 8 p.m. at the school.

Polk Courthouse Closing Monday For Vet Holiday

will be closed Monday in observance of the Veterans' Day holiday.

post office, Polk County courtnouse, some insurance firms, ab-McMINNVILLE, Nov. 30-Pin-Polk County Savings & Loan and ning on Yamhill County Pacific Power & Light Company. sheriff's star at year's end Jack Eakin Jr., Chamber Commerce secretary, said that will be Wallace L. (Bud) many retail merchants would be Mekkers, Democrat, who Mekkers, Democrat, who was elected in general elec-tion. City offices and Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company will also be open for the day.

The Albany choral group ap-peared here last year and their participated. For TB Seal Campaign

Statesman News Service period which began last Monday. ROBERTS, Nov. 10 - Stuffing The work of the association is car-envelopes with T.B. Christmas ried on entirely by volunteer Seals is fun, so said a group of workers, she said, except for herwill be planned each year that women volunteers who worked at self. and two part time office will include the entire families. A the Marion Tuberculosis Associa- workers. co-operative decorating theme is tion headquarters one day this Mrs. Bunnell explained to the

Mrs. Ruby Bunnell, executive from the sale of Christmas Seals mittee elected to assist the presi- director of the association at 1890 is spent for health education, redent includes Ed Brandle. Eric State St., told the group that there habilitation and to promote the use

Shrewsbury, Harold Bonner, and are about 30,000 envelopes to stuff of x-ray equipment which was and seal during the two-week purchased by the Marion County

Active Civic Background * * * * * * By HAL NORBERG Valley Corresponden DALLAS, Nov. 10-A. H Friesen, newly elected mayor of Dallas, is a family man long active in business and city affairs. He succeeds Mayor Hollis Smith, who is retiring in January after When Friesen assumes his new

The Oregon Statesman

Statesman, Salem, Ore., Sun., Nov. 11, '56 (Sec. II)-9 duties and responsibilities he will have the benefit of several years'

Owns Core Company

During his many years here he became best known as owner of manufactures spool cores for a variety of tapes including adding machine, cash register, telegraph, ticker and gummed tapes. Its market extends to the East Coast and to the Philippines.

Devoted family people, the Friesens have four children, Vic, Bob, Don and Valdean, now Mrs. Vic Wienz. The boys are also married and live in or near Dallas ming pool. with their families. In addi Unusually active in civic work, Friesen is active in Mennonite sons Vic and Bob became part- Brethren Church affairs and ners in the company after return serves as chairman of the board from service in the U.S. Navy. of directors of Dallas Rest Home, Don finished an enlistment in the Friesen was appointed to fill the U.S. Coast Guard in June and also council vacancy which occurred oined the company here. when Dr. E. A. Flaming Council Duties outside the city limits. He com-pleted that four-year term in 1954. Friesen's experience on the city Friesen then filed again and was the police, street, water and fire committees. He is city representation of the committee and is committee and is on posed.

 Statesman News Service
 research is city representation of the current election was unopposed.

Among agencies closing are the Farmer Has Bear for Pet

Statesman News Service brought home was treed by his JEFFERSON, Nov. 10 - Frank hounds, and with the aid of ropes Gilmour, Sidney-Talbot farmer, was brought down out of the has added a half-grown bear to his list of farm animals. He keeps it in Linn County 4-H an enclosed pen, formerly used by his dogs, and says that the bear Leader Appointed really likes the dog house. Gilmour and a Scio friend went tesman News Service hunting in the hills near Scio. They LEBANON, Nov. 10-Temporary found three bears and killed the appointment of Mrs. Mary Rice as mother bear. The bear Gilmour Association and placed in the leader, has been announced by O. Salem General Hospital for the E. Mikesell, county extension public's use. agent. Mrs. Rice will remain on

The group of women who worked with the association Monday in-cluded Mrs. Walter Klotz, Mrs. Water is secured. Mrs. Rice, a graduate of Oregon O. E. Holcomb and her mother. State college, has worked for seven O. E. Hoicomb and her moder. Mrs. Robert Massie of Lusk, Wyo., Mrs. Kar. Heyden, Mrs. E. N. Graves, Mrs. J. B. Rouse, Mrs. Paul Hamrick and Mrs. Jerry

Shaw

She will serve as a 4-H leader meetings and assist with new clubs

RCA VICTOR TV

By CHARLES IRELAND

Our Valley

body-already have signed up for the bargain-rate shots.

the name of Elvis Presley.

"Benedict?"

cough up about $600.

staff was appreciative of the fine work done

Coman, who gathered returns from seven widely-dispersed precincts in the Woodburn area for The Statesman, and Farm Ed-Itor Lillie Madsen, who clocked 62 speedometer miles round-co-operation from election boards, receiving partial returns

Only one precinct in each of the two counties had no voting

Scientist Gains Recognition from 27 of 28 precincts where such returns were sought figures for this paper on election night.

Over in Polk County, the Statesman secured unprecedented

ing up nine precincts in Silverton and its surrounding hills.

the office of Marion County commissioner, someone wrote in Students at Monmouth's Oregon College of Education will resentatives met here Thursday to making small loans available to students who don't have a dol- ciation.

Up at Mehama, election clerks are wondering if a 'teen- Jerry E. Butler, Stayton Canning vice; Ralph McVein, Santiam Lum-

Kenneth C. W. Walker, Oregon

Husen, CZ, Portland; and Frank

Robbins, Charles Wilson and Bill Foster.

mented by special correspondents, turned in a distinguished surrounding areas.

performance Tuesday night, and the whole Statesman news Beating out Harley Libby of Marion precinct, who is often first to 'phone Gardeners in a partial precinct, was a "brand new" election correspondent, Mrs. Aaron Wilson of Donald Second to get in a par-tial return was Mrs. Clyde Cutsforth of Gervais precinct 102. Hear History

MONMOUTH, Nov. 10-Dr. Antol Postl, Oregon College of wood. Education science professor, whose widely-used laboratory manual has just been revised.

Statesman News Service

OCE Prof's Science

born Jan. 19, 1883 at Dundas, Henry Zimmerman vs. Anna Minn., and attended school in Zimmerman, seeks divorce. Mar-Minnesota before coming west to ried June 23, 1935 at Dickenson, Grand Ronde where he settled in N.D.

the early 1900's. Don L. Baker vs. Anna Lee Lockwood was a partner in the first garage ever operated in Grand Ronde. He was married Oct. 17, 1944 to Rose Larsen at Dallas. Most of his life he was tody of four minor children, $50 engaged in mill work and dairy monthly support for each minor farming. He died Nov. 8 at Grand child. Married Aug. 10, 1946 at Ronde, following a long illness. Corvallis. Survivors include the widow, a son, Arthur Lockwood, a step-son, The assumed business mane o Ed Larsen, all of Grand Konde, Swede's Repair Service was filed and one brother, Harvey Lock-here by Gene O. Isakson. The Sheridan.

business is located at Grand

Neubergers Give Scholarship Fund Dorcas Society Elects President

Statesman News Service Manual Widely Used MONMOUTH, Nov. 10-Dr. Roy E. Lieuallen, president Oregon

Statesman News Service FALLS CITY, Nov. 10-Mrs. Otto College of Education, announced Teal has been elected president of today that U.S. Senator and Mrs. the Federated Dorcas Society of MONMOUTH, Nov. 10-Dr. Anton Postl, associate professor of Richard L. Neuberger had made Polk, Marion and Linn counties. science at Oregon College of Education, has just published a revision available a $500 scholarship fund Mrs. Teal was elected to a on Mrs. Teal was elected to a one of the laboratory manual, "Laboratory Experiments in the Physical te Oregon College of Education." The manual is now in wide use throughout the United The scholarship was given "to meeting of the group in Salem. The manual is now in wide use throughout the United encourage students who intend The Dorcas Society, consisting of The current revision contains lab experiments in astronomy, chem-ment or to teach political science Adventist Church, is at present do-physics, for use in a college survey astrology and geology, although and government. Mrs. Neuberger ing extensive work in welfare and is an alumna of thecollege. civil-defense istry, geology, meterology and Sciences."

States

In response to demands from other parts of the country, the workbook has been twice revised and the current edition, published by Burgess Publishing Company of Minneapolis, Minn., is greatly ex-panded. It has been adopted by colleges in such widespread points as Maine and Tennessee

Dr. Postl was born in Graz, Au tria. He moved to Hawaii in 1935 and received his BS and MS de-grees from the University of Hawaii. He came to the continental U.S. in 1945 and served as an instructor at Iowa State College and later in the Oregon public schools.

Specialist in Chemistry Dr. Postl joined the OCE faculty in 1947 and received his Ph.D. from Oregon State College in 1955. His extensive work in general science gives him outstanding qualifica tion to construct educational material in such diverse sciences as "The same loving care afterwards—as you gave before"

Most convenient off-street parking for funerals, three entrances . . . 65 car capacity.

HOWELL-EDWARDS FUNERAL HOME ACROSS FROM SEARS 545 N. Capitol Street Phone 3-3672

To have an emergency fund for unexpected holiday expenses, you need do only two things -

1. Make up your mind to part with useful articles you no longer want or use.

2. Offer them for sale through Classifield Ads. Decide to order your Classified Ads today for extra cash tomorrow. Dial 4-6811 NOW.

NEW "LIVING IMAGE" PICTURE sillions of tiny aluminized shosphor crystals inside the mproved RCA "Silverama" unized picture tube intensify the electron beam to help bring you sharp, clear pictures.

J-SPEAKER PANORAMIC SOUND Three scientifically angled speakers diffuse sound throughout the room. Adds amazing realism to everything from a singer to a symphony. You enjoy the full range of sound no matter where you sit.

We Want More Trade-Ins! We Feel That Our Trade In Offer Will Be The Best In Town!

