Stick-Fingered Gal Poor Choice as Wife

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm a young man in my late 20's who's had one unsuccessful marriage and I don't want another. I met a girl who's only 18 but she's much older in many ways. She's admitted being in a reform school for picking up things in a department store and forgetting to pay for them. She said she was awfully young when this happened and has learned her lesson.

Several weeks ago she slept at a friend's house. I heard later that $40 was missing from the friend's drawer. A few days after that, we went to visit a friend in the hospital and the patient's watch disappeared that very night. After our last date my wallet containing $18 was gone.

I'm very fond of this girl, Ann, but the romance hasn't gotten under my skin as yet. We've just exchanged a few warm kisses. Any advice?—FREDDIE

If you've been exchanging kisses with this girl, I suggest you count your teeth.

She's either a kleptomaniac or a Light-Fingered Lulu. I suspect the latter because of the nature of the missing objects. Kleptos often pick up things they have no use for—and this is an illness.

Get this girl to a doctor and determine whether or not she is ill.

If she's a thief, maybe you'd better consider what life would be like between stretches.

DEAR ANN: I'm a girl 16 and live in a shabby run-down neighborhood. Dirty, barefoot kids are always playing in the front yard and it's real stummy.

I like several boys and they seem to like me, but that's as far as it goes. A few times I've been asked for my address and that's the last I ever hear from them.

I'm quite sure if I lived in a decent place it would make a lot of difference in my social life. Can you tell me what chance a young girl has with fellows if she lives in a dump?—UNDER-PRIVILEGED LEE

People usually live in the kind of a place they can afford. If your folks could do better, they probably would.

The right kind of a girl attracts decent boys and an address can't spoil her chances. Many a gal in a swanky neighborhood has given her address to a young man—never to be heard from again.

Fellows are interested in good company, someone who is pleasant and fun to be with—and they'll go any place to date a girl they like, no matter where she lives.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm completely fed up with showers. At the moment there are six new babies expected in the family. The invitations—or should I say the "requests"—are pouring in. It's difficult to ignore these showers when my sisters, in laws and cousins are all going. What can a person say? If I don't draw the line somewhere I'll have to ask the welfare for aid. I give up, Mrs. Landers, and they can call me—CHEAP

Welcome to The Club. The membership is swelling! These baby showers are beginning to look like cloud-bursts, and too many people resent getting soaked.

Here's a suggestion: Get together with your sisters, in-laws and cousins. Chip in 50c or $1.00 to buy ONE useful gift. This way, you've all remembered and it won't put anyone on the county date.

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Should one always use the napkin before drinking a glass of water at the dinner table?

A. Yes; this prevents any chance of leaving an unsightly smudge of food on the rim of the glass.

Q. If it is necessary to remove a bone from the mouth while at the dinner table, should one use a fork, spoon or the napkin?

A. None of these items is in good taste. Merely use the thumb and forefinger, and lay the particle on the plate.

Gervais—Mrs. Anna Ruscher of Mt. Angel, will open her home Wednesday, November 14, 12:30 p.m. to members and all interested in the St. Rita Altar society, for a silver no host luncheon. Strudel and coffee will be served for dessert. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Peter Prantl, Mrs. George Hauptman, Mrs. Frieda Roosa and Mrs. Eva Englehart. Transportation will be available not later than 12:15 p.m. at the Sacred Heart Church.
