

Summit Confab Out, American Leaders Advise France, Britain

By JOHN A. SCALF
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (AP)—The United States reported today to have advised Britain and France it opposes any quick Big Three summit conference to deal with the Middle East and Hungarian crises.

President Eisenhower and his top aides, informants said, believe any such meeting should be delayed until the United Nations Assembly has had further opportunity to tackle these two urgent problems.

U.N. Action
Administration leaders were also reported to have told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today that any movement of Russian "volunteers" into Egypt should be handled through the U.N.

A Democratic member of the committee who declined to be quoted by name said Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. was asked whether this country contemplated sending in troops if Russia attempted to move "10,000 or 20,000 volunteers" into Egypt.

The senator said Hoover replied, "That would be a matter for the U.N." In a statement a week ago, Eisenhower indicated this would be the American position in such a case.

Ike Meets Dulles
The President met for 50 minutes with Secretary of State Dulles who is recovering in Walter Reed Army Hospital from an intestinal cancer operation.

Eisenhower and Dulles were understood to have reviewed a wide range of foreign policy problems including the White House attitude toward Big Three and Big Four meetings.

A few hours earlier, this attitude was reported to have been conveyed in a message delivered in Paris to French Premier Mollet, who is regarded as strongly in favor of an immediate Big Three meeting.

Opposed to Russ Plan
Eisenhower was reported even more opposed to the idea of a Big Four summit conference in the near future—despite Soviet Premier Bulganin's announced readiness to attend such a session.

Bulganin's willingness, announced by Moscow yesterday, apparently has not shaken the opposition Eisenhower expressed to any such discussions on Saturday before the Russian leader's views were officially known.

For example, National Mother-in-Law Day is set for April 28. Its purpose, according to the sponsoring Museum of American Comedy, is to "remind the nation of the necessity of humor."

'Who's Who of U.S. Women' Edition Due

NEW YORK, Nov. 12 (AP)—Plans for a "Who's Who of American Women" were announced today. The first edition is expected in 1958.

Wheeler Sammons Jr., associate publisher of "Who's Who in America," said his Chicago firm, Marquis-Who's Who, Inc., will join forces with the women's archives at Radcliffe College to select 15,000 to 20,000 names for the new reference work.

Special Days, Weeks Aim to Tickle Funny Bone

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (AP)—Our gag and giggle guys are already busy girding the nation's defenses against gloom next year.

These forward-looking folks have picked a half dozen special occasions to promote laughs in 1957.

You're supposed to trot out your best joke, old or new, to help get your grim buddy grinning again. Of course, a bum one may make him feel worse. That's the chance you'll take.

For example, National Mother-in-Law Day is set for April 28. Its purpose, according to the sponsoring Museum of American Comedy, is to "remind the nation of the necessity of humor."

This and other special days and events in 1957 are pinpointed for all of us—well enough in advance to get prepared by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber's survey is to help businessmen make the most of these special days. But the trade organization wants it distinctly understood that "inclusion of an event should not be construed as endorsement by the national chamber."

For some reason April is the month the funnies have picked for special funnybone stimulation. National Smile Week March 4-9 is just a prelude.

The national "Tax Freedom Holiday" is scheduled May 10. It's sponsored jointly by the Florida State Retailers Assn. and California Taxpayers Assn., to promote "good government at less cost."

These two organizations maintain it takes all the average citizen's earnings up to May 10 every year to pay his taxes before he can start "working for himself."

The cheese people are extra busy next year. They had scheduled separate celebrations for a cheese festival, one-dish meals with cheese, gift cheese shoppers time, and cottage cheese-cling peach salad time.

We also must be prepared for Coffee Day, Good Breakfasts Month, Kraut and Frankfurter Week, Pickle Week, Raisin Week, Louisiana Yam Supper Season, and special weeks for rice, wine, apples and cranberries. Also rabbit week and butter-baked turkey time.

Come September there's Rock 'n' Roll Week to "perpetuate the ideals of Rock 'n' Roll music."

On hand to greet the Duke of Edinburgh when he visited Lae were two chieftains and eight other members of the primitive nomadic Kuku Kuku tribe of the New Guinea highlands. They were among 10,000 other natives who greeted the duke when he stopped here en route to the Olympic games at Melbourne.

Azores Navy Plane Crash Fatal to Four

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 12 (AP)—A twin-engine Navy Seaplane crashed on takeoff in the Azores yesterday, killing four of the nine crewmen aboard. Two others were injured, one seriously.

One victim was the plane captain, Charles H. Hoke, who is survived by his widow, Mrs. Viola Mae Hoke of Norfolk. Names of the other dead and the seriously injured crewmen were withheld by the Navy pending notification of next of kin.

All the crewmen were members of Patrol Squadron 44 at the Norfolk Naval Air Station. Slightly injured was the plane's pilot, Lt. Donald E. Brunner of Norfolk.

KISS AND CRY
MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 12 (AP)—Justice of Peace R. L. "Rags" Flora has married 500 couples in the last seven years. He says: "The younger ones kiss and the older ones cry" at the brief ceremonies.
