Ducks Still Lead PCC On Defense

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20 (Special)—Stanford has taken the lead in team passing in Pacific Coast Conference football while Southern California continues on top by a narrow margin in rushing and total offense, according to statistics released today by the PCC Commissioner's office.

Oregon leads in total defense for the ninth straight week, but virtually every team statistical title will be "up for grabs" this weekend with two and three teams in close contention in every department.

Southern California leads Washington, 238.4 yards to 257.6, in rushing and the Trojans have a 345 yard total offense average to 341.8 for Stanford and 341.1 for Washington State. Stanford's margin over Washington State in passing is 216.9 to 204.

Ducks Lead over UCLA

Oregon has allowed 235.3 total yards on defense to 249.7 for UCLA and the Ducks also lead in pass defense with 73.8 yards to 82.4 for California. UCLA has allowed 146.4 yards rushing to 158.2 for Oregon.

UCLA has replaced Southern California in the team punting lead with a 40.5 average to 38.7 for SC. The Trojans, however, lead in interceptions with 17, to 16 for UCLA, and in kickoff returns with a 23 yard average to 20.8 for Oregon. The Ducks have the best average on punt returns, 16.8, to 13.2 for Stanford.

Albany Led By Wilfert

ALBANY, Nov. 20 (Special)—Equipped with five lettermen, including the talented 6-foot, 5-inch Buz Wilfert, the Albany Bulldogs are preparing for their first basketball game at Eugene December 4.

Along with Wilfert, coach Tommy Holman has as other veterans 6-3 Bob Close, 6-0 John Wilson, 5-11 Pat Emmons and 5-11 Dave King.

Listed as top varsity prospects for the Bulldogs are 6-3 Ellisen Chandler and Jim Richards, 6-footers Joe Prohoska and Dick Holloway, 5-8 Dave Sease and 5-6 Jack Rohrbough.

Ernie White, formerly of Linfield is Holman's coaching assistant.

First home game for the Bulldogs will be December 7, with Oregon City.

Albany won 12 and lost as many last season.

Beavers Picked To Dump Ducks

By ED WILKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Having broken through the .700 barrier last week we'll have a little more to be thankful for Thursday, although nothing to be really proud of as a football forecaster.

One thing, though. We learned a trick. Seems all the "experts" toss out ties. That appears an easy way out and just proves, like the mother-in-law says, "You can't always tell the depth of the well by the length of the handle on the pump."

We don't toss out ties and so last week's figures were 32 right, 12 wrong for a .727 mark and a two-week "season" percentage of .675. Not brilliant, but at least it's kosher.

And here we go again (Saturday games unless noted):

Buckeyes Over Michigan

Ohio State 24, Michigan 16—Coach Woody Hayes likes working in Columbus, Ohio, and you don't remain a Buckeye coach unless you win. Another defeat could set a dangerous precedent.

Oklahoma 36, Nebraska 7 — As Bud Winkinson'e former aide, Nebraska coach Pete Elliott ought to know what makes the Sooners go. But that's no guarantee he knows how to make 'em stop.

Iowa 21, Notre Dame 6 — Paul Hornung shouldn't be enough, unless the Hawkeyes have been anesthetized by the aroma of roses.

Tennessee 19, Kentucky 18—After successfully picking Tennessee over Georgia Tech and Iowa over Ohio State, think we'll quit while we're ahead. This game is the closest we come to a predicted upset.

Georgia Tech 14, Florida 0—The wrecks still ramblin' toward a bowl.

OSC by 14 Points

Oregon State 28, Oregon 14 — The Beavers looked like a team that could be had last week, but they should be back to normal in this Thanksgiving Day meeting.

TCU 33, Rice 12 — The Horned Frogs are little ol' toads no longer, not with the Cotton Bowl calling.

Pitt 14, Penn State 7—This one has bowl overtures, but the Panthers look to be steadier.

And a once-over lightly:

Thursday's games: Penn 18, Cornell 6; NC State 21, Maryland 7; South Carolina 14, Wake Forest 12; Denver 34, Colorado A & M 14; Idaho 12, Montana 0; Colgate 25, Brown 7.

Yale Over Harvard

Saturday:

East — Yale 21, Harvard 14; Princeton 35, Dartmouth 12; Villanova 21, Iowa State 7.

South—Alabama 28, Mississippi Southern 21; Auburn 14, Florida State 7; Clemson 13, Virginia 12; Arkansas 24, Louisiana State 18; Duke 24, North Carolina 14.

Midwest — Michigan State 33, Kansas State 0; Illinois 13, Northwestern 12; Minnesota 18, Wisconsin 0; Purdue 24, Indiana 12; Tulsa 36, Wichita 18.

Southwest — Baylor 21, SMU 7; Houston 14, Texas Tech 6.

Far West—Colorado 13, Arizona 0; Southern Cal 13, UCLA 12; Washington 24, Washington State 14.

Drills Lag At Central

CENTRAL HI, Monmouth-Independence, Nov. 20 (Special)—Coach Ray Coleman's Central Hi Panthers are getting ready for the start of basketball action in the Willamette Valley League jamboree December 1 at Molalla, but Coleman is finding the Central football success a barrier for the cage squad.

Many of the basketball team members, including returning lettermen, are still on the football team which is involved in state playoffs. They may not be available for the cage sport until Monday, Dec. 3, after the jamboree is held.

Central lettermen are 6-0 Roy Peterson, 5-10 Larry King, 5-9 Dennis Hedges, 5-8 Jim Travis, 5-8 Aaron Cooper, 5-8 Bob Dodson and 5-7 Bill Blankenbaker. Other varsity prospects are Vernon Lovelace, Darrell Brandt, Dick Foster, Dewey Cunnins, Bill Lukens, Bob Hanel, Lynn Wilson, Jim Deforest, Jon Nelson and Ron Noble. Only Lovelace reached six feet in height.

First regular game for the Panthers is with Stayton here December 4.

Coleman feels that lack of size will greatly hinder the team this season. The two biggest players are exactly six feet tall.

Problems Eye Gervais Club

GERVAIS, Nov. 20—(Special)—It will be much the same story here this year in basketball, Coach Ordie Hoye will have lots of kids but very little overall experience and less height.

The Cougars open play December 4 with Mill City there and then appear in the Capital Conference Jamboree at South Salem High School December 7.

Five lettermen are back for the team. They are Carson Hall, Phil Mahony, Ralph Bennett, Gary Uppendahl and Orie Seibel. Bennett is the biggest at an even six feet in height.

Other prospects include Stan Steel, Stephen Crane, Alan Miller, Bob Berglund, Jerry LaMar, Johnie Cox, Jerry Ethell, Louis Sowa, Ray Blair, Don Belleque and Alva Vehland. Sowa at 6-2 and Crane at 6-1 are the only ones over the six-foot mark in the height division.

Hamey felt he could part with Ennis' power for the younger Repulski because of the development of Lopata as a power hitter. The big catcher-first baseman hit 32 homers last year, breaking by one the club record for home runs by a right hander, previously held by Ennis.

The six foot, 195 pound Repulski officially batted only 376 times in 1956, as compared with 630 plate appearances for Ennis, accounting for the difference of 60 hits in favor of Ennis.

KEEPING A DOG'S TEETH CLEAN

SOFT BEEF BONES THAT A DOG CAN CRUNCH UP WILL CHIP TARTAR DEPOSITS OFF HIS TEETH AND HELP KEEP THEM CLEAN, BUT DO NOT GIVE HIM CHICKEN, PORK, RABBIT OR SIMILAR BRITTLE BONES.

TARTAR CAUSES TOOTH DISCOLORATION, BAD BREATH, DROOLING, RECEDING GUMS, AND SORE LIPS. SOFT TARTAR SCRAPES OFF EASILY. SCRAPE OFF HARD TARTAR WITH A KNIFE POINT.

RUB TEETH WITH BICARBONATE OR SODA (NEVER TOOTH PASTE) ON A DAMP WAD OF COTTON TO CLEAN.

Cascade Has Vet Players

CASCADE HI, Turner-Aumsville, Nov. 20—(Special)—With nine experienced players on hand, the Cascage Cougars are working toward their first basketball action of the season, in the Capital Conference Jamboree at South Salem High December 7.

Returning vets on coach Cal Hersey's club include 6-2 Jim Uhrhammer, 6-3 Wayne Wilkinson, 5-8 Paul Peters, 6-0 Gene Speer, 6-0 Roger Harris, 6-1 Gary Downer, 6-1 Daryll Whitehead, 5-11 Don Smith and 5-4 Richard Towery.

With such experience as that, and the height provided by Uhrhammer, Wilkinson and Downer, Hersey expects the Cougars to be able to at least match their record of last season, which was 16 victories and 10 losses. Cascade was runnerup in the District 8 and Capital Conference races lats season.

John Seim and Lyle King are assisting Hersey with the Cougar coaching this season.

their lineup Nov. 8.

"The Russians waited to see what the rest of us had," Hoffman said. "They saw they could not beat Paul Anderson, our heavyweight, so they did not enter a man there. They put two men in the lightweight class, where we have no entry."

Hoffman accused the Russians of pulling the same tactics in boxing and wrestling and called the procedure "grossly unfair."

He said the Americans would attempt to install Clarence Johnson of Royal Oak, Mich., their team manager, as president of the International Federation to succeed Finland's Bruno Niburg.

He said Niburg and three other members of the jury, Guilot of France, Nazareth of Russia and Raddi of Egypt, in the past two years voted heavily in favor of Russia on all questions and against America.

Hungarians Need Uniforms

In back of the Olympic scene, the International Olympic Committee pulled the teeth out of the widely-debated amateur oath, which would have required Olympians to give a promise that they intend to remain amateurs.

The Hungarian team came here without team uniforms and an effort is being made by local tailors to provide dress clothes before Thursday's opening day parade, one of the most glamorous spectacles of sport.

The ceremony is scheduled to start at 3 p.m. Thursday (midnight Wednesday, Eastern Standard Time) and the torch bearer is due to enter the stadium at 4:22 p.m. (1:22 a.m. EST).

Actual competition begins at 8 p.m. Thursday (5 a.m., EST) with a basketball game between Russia and Canada. The next day the Olympics will be in full swing from morning to night with track and field, rowing, basketball, boxing, fencing, field hockey, modern pentathlon, soccer football and weight lifting.

Cal in Top Shape But Bruins Not

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 20 (AP)—Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf said at tonight's practice his California Bears will be in the best physical shape in a month when they meet the invading Stanford Indians at the big game Saturday in Memorial Stadium.

Waldorf continued stressing defense but spent some time adding a couple of new offensive plays.

UCLA in Sad Shape

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20 (AP) — "This team is in the worst physical shape of any team I've ever coached," UCLA Coach Red Sanders said today after the Bruins ran through a practice for Saturday's game wtih Southern California.

Sanders set up a defense he hopes will contain Troy's multiple offense and then turned his sophomore tailback Kirk Wilson loose in a passing drill.

Cougars Face Freeze

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 20—(AP)—After two days of rest, the Washington State first team scrimmaged for more than an hour in freezing weather. WSC meets Washington Saturday.

During the offensive workout, quarterback Bob Newman used husky end Don Gest as his principal target.

Vandals Work Hard

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 20—(AP)—Idaho's Vandals made their last home workout of the season a rugged one today, going through 1¼ hours of spirited drill.

A number of starters watched from the sidelines with injuries as Scout Bud Goodell outlined the plays Montana is expected to use against Idaho Thanksgiving Day.

Huskies Try Defense

SEATTLE, Nov. 20 (AP) — Coach Darrell Royal put the University of Washington first and second football squads through a short workout tonight, emphasizing defense against the anticipated aerials by Washington State at Spokane next Saturday.

Drill Slated By Wolves

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Monmouth, Nov. 20—(Special)—Coach Bob Livingston's OCE hoop squad will hold a game-type scrimmage with the JV-Freshman team here Wednesday night prior to taking a four-day break for Thanksgiving. Livingston hopes to get a line on his starting five from the scrimmage. The Wolves will have only five practice days after the Wednesday scrimmage session to get ready for the season opener with Pacific at Forest Grove on Dec. 1.

As was the case in 1955-56, the strength of this year's squad seems to be concentrated in the guard positions. Returnees Daryl Girod and Cece Miller give the Wolves two of the finest backcourt men in the northwest and they're backed up by Letterman Larry Buss, and DeWayne Crabb and Phil Estergard, both up from last year's JV squad.

Young Showing Well

At center, regular Wayne Young is looking good and forwards Barry Adams and Doug Rogers, both lettermen last season, are apparently set on winning starting berths. Reserves Kelly Hoy and Dale Andrich are also battling for starting positions, as are several newcomers.

Twenty players are still on the current squad. Livingston will probably trim that number down to 14 or 15 before the season opener, but the player who are "cut" will be sent down to the JV squad and may be called back up to the varsity at any time. Cece Miller, OCE's leading scorer last season, started the season on the JV squad.

Lack of height seems to be the big problem facing the Wolves. Rogers and Young are the tallest of holdovers at 6-3 and there isn't much help, height-wise, from the newcomers.

Home Building Decline To Continue Next Year

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—The government today forecast a further decline in home building next year. However, total construction is expected to set a record—about 46½ billion dollars worth.

The Commerce and Labor departments made the estimates in their annual construction preview. They also said about 44-billion will be spent on new construction this year, a gain of a bit less than 3 per cent from 1955.

This estimate was a backdown from the official forecast made in June, when the two departments judged that this year's total activity would reach 44½ billion dollars. The unexpectedly sharp decline in home building this fall caused the missed guess.

Looking ahead to 1957, the agency predicted that about a million new private dwellings will be started.

They called this a relatively high level, although it compares with more than 1,300,000 starts in 1955 and perhaps 1,100,000 this year.

The anticipated sag in home building—blamed by builders on the scarcity of mortgage credit rather than declining demand for homes—will be less apparent if measured by dollars instead of the number of homes erected, the report said. The houses will be bigger and costlier.

A drop of about five per cent in spending on new residences is foreseen, from about 13¼ billion in 1956 to 12¾ billion in the year ahead.

Outlays for additions and remodeling, as well as for the construction of motels and other non-housekeeping accomodations are expected to rise slightly, but still will leave total residential construction some 500 million dollars below this year.

Expansion is foreseen in almost all major types of construction except new housing. Total private construction activity should rise slightly to a total of 31½ billion, the joint report said.

But public construction is due for a fat 12 per cent increase to a total of 15 billion dollars, as against 13½ billion this year. This would make the total for all construction around 46½ billion.

The continued upsurge in state and local construction is attributable chiefly to planned new highways, schools, hospitals, sewer and water systems, and other facilities.

Highway construction probably will go to a record 5½ billion dollars, 8 per cent above this year, largely because of the expanded federal aid program. On the other hand, state toll road construction may drop off.

Soviet Tanks Pulling Out Of Budapest

BUDAPEST, Nov. 20 (AP)—Some Soviet tank units seem to have pulled out of Budapest, whose major industrial areas remain paralyzed by a sitdown strike. And there was no sign of Russian infantry here today.

Withdrawal of the Russians is demanded by a large segment of Hungary's workers. They also want Imre Nagy returned to the premiership from which the Russians deposed him in favor of Janos Kadar, the Hungarian Communist party's ex-boss.

Most of the modern T34 tanks which led the attack on Hungarian resistance forces Nov. 4 apparently are being replaced by Soviet World War II models.

These older tanks had proved easy prey to gasoline bombs in the October revolution which gave Hungary a brief start on the road to free elections and a multiparty government. The T34s now appear concentrated only in the most strategic points.

Roper Heads Republic Fund

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Elmo Roper, public opinion analyst, has been elected board chairman of the Fund for the Republic, succeeding Paul G. Hoffman, who will continue as a director.

Robert M. Hutchins was re-elected president of the Fund.

The Fund for the Republic was set up in 1953 with a 15-million-dollar endowment from the Ford Foundation.

Hutchins has defined the Fund's objective as "to study and disclose the facts about all threats to civil liberties, including communism."

Roper issued a statement saying "the world-shattering events of the last few weeks have demonstrated again that Soviet Russia is the basic threat to freedom in the world today."

"The Fund for the Republic," he said, "is trying to strengthen the climate in which freedom is possible."

New York Times Newsman Told To Leave Russia

LONDON, Nov. 20 (AP) — A New York Times correspondent, Welles Hange, has been asked to leave Soviet Russia by Nov. 28. A Moscow broadcast tonight said Hange had violated "the rules of conduct for foreign correspondents in the U.S.S.R."

His offense, the broadcast said, "took the form of photographing hydrotechnical installations, which are not permitted to be photographed."

The Times has another correspondent, William Jorden, in Moscow.

In New York the Times said that for the present at least it had no comment.
