Murals Depict Ike

Ike's Family Portrayed ABILENE, Kan., Nov. 20—This is scene from series of murals on life of President Eisenhower which are to be unveiled Saturday at Eisenhower Museum here. Scene, fourth of seven panels on museum's south wall, depicts Eisenhower family at work on Abilene farm about 1904. Dwight holds basket at center while his parents, grandfather and brothers are nearby. Panels were painted by Ross Moffett of Provincetown, Mass. (AP Pirephoto)

Singer Playful NEW YORK, Nov. 20—Metropolitan Opera singer Marguerite Piazza, taking another turn at night club act, cavorts on stage during opening at the Hotel Pierre last night. Left to right: Marguerite sheds gown on stage before doing silhouetted bathtub scene behind screen in back of her; then she emerges in man's pajamas, and finally does her closing number, some Dixieland jazz. Storms in East U.S. Precipitation will be widespread over eastern half of country Wednesday. Snow is due in Dakotas and parts of upper and middle Mississippi valley. Rain and showers are expected along Atlantic coast states except Florida. Some rain may fall in northwestern Washington. It will be mild along Atlantic seaboard and cooler over central part of country. (AP Wirephoto)
