Dances on Weekend Calendar

By FLOSSY HODGE
Statesman Correspondent

Six dances with a variety of themes and locations will provide entertainment for Willamette University students this weekend. The Law School, Phi Delta Theta, and Baxter Hall will be hosts this evening, while Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, and Delta Gamma have planned functions for Saturday night.

"Mugs and Molls" is the theme of Phi Delta Theta's fall costume dance tonight from 9 to 12. Lyle Glatzers and his group will furnish the music for the evening, and decorations, planned by Willie Thompson of Woodburn, will feature drawings of Damon Runyon's characters.

The American Legion Hall will be the scene for the Law School semi-formal fall dinner-dance, according to Alex Byler of Coos Bay, general chairman. Dinner will be served at 8 o'clock and dancing will continue until 12. Included on the evening's program will be a skit by the "Willamette Law Players" written, directed, and produced by Dale Underwood, second-year student.

"Dante's Inferno" is the unusual theme for the Baxter Hall house dance planned for this evening from 8:30 to 11:30. Those attending have been requested to come as characters that they would expect to see there. Couples will enter the dance through a maze into a room lighted by red colored lights. Focal point of the decor will be a large red figure of the devil.

"Holiday" Theme of Dance

"Holiday," a New Year's Eve and Christmas theme, is to prevail at the Delta Gamma house Saturday evening. Preceding the formal dance a dinner will be held at 6 o'clock at the Marion hotel, said Carolyn Miller of Forest Grove, general chairman.

Dancing will be in the living room and dining rooms where the decorations chairman, Joan Sherrill of Portland and Barbara Roach of Medford, will use silhouettes of champagne glasses, top hats, and dancing girls. A Christmas motif will be carried out in the basement by a stocking hung fireplace where the Christmas cookies will be served.

Alpha Chi Omega will hold its second annual formal Golden Lyre Ball Saturday evening at the chapter house. Decorations will be in keeping with the Grecian theme throughout the house, with gilt ivy, dry ice fountains, and golden lyres providing the atmosphere.

"Pi Phi Hideaway"

Couples attending the Pi Beta Phi house dance Saturday evening will ascend the fire escape to the second floor, and precede down a dark alley until they enter the "Pi Phi Hideaway". Costumes will range from "Roaring 20's" outfits to the gear of the prohibition days. A gambling casino will attract people to what is commonly known as the solarium. Chaparrones, invited by Barbara Anderson of Salem, will be Dr. and Mrs. Charles Derthick, T-Sgt. and Mrs. Walter Gratton, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Putnam.

Recently elected president of Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honorary, is Doug Houser of Portland. Other officers of the social science group are vice president, Paul Edwards of Woodburn; secretary, LouAnn Merzler of Mt. Vernon, Wash.; and treasurer, Barbara Goodier of Portland.
