'Friendship Night' Set In Spring Valley Area

Lincoln, Zena Residents Also Invited

Statesman News Service

SPRING VALLEY, Nov. 29—Preparations are well under way for Friendship Night, to be given by the Community Center Association of Lincoln, Zena and Spring Valley districts Saturday night at their Community Center Building, the former Spring Valley School.

The reception committee, in an endeavor to reach all families residing in the three districts whether newcomers or old residents has sent out 87 invitations. Any families failing to receive one are urged to come anyway.

Reception committee has many acquainted devices prepared including a large hostess committee. A no-host supper from 6 to 8 o'clock will open the evening. Everyone is requested to bring their own table service.

The program is planned for 8 o'clock. Children of Lincoln and Zena schools will give the first part, after which they will play table games downstairs while adults and high school students hear an address by Judge Joseph Felton of Salem.

Charles Ireland, valley editor of the Oregon Statesman and a good friend of the Community Center Association since it was organized, also will be a guest and will speak. The coming holiday season will keynote the decorations and program music.

Lawmakers, Press Invited To Campus

Statesman News Service

MONMOUTH, Nov. 29—State legislators and editors from Marion, Polk, Yamhill and Tillamook counties will be the guests of Oregon College of Education on Thursday, Dec. 6.

Invitations were issued jointly by Dr. Roy E. Lieualien, OCE president, and State Senator Walter Leth of Monmouth.

The purpose of the program will be to give visiting legislators and editors an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the State System of Higher Education's biennial operational and building budget, both for OCE and the state system in general.

On hand from the office of the State Board of Higher Education will be Chancellor John Richards and Dick Collins, budget officer, who will discuss the proposed budget.

The day's program will include a campus tour, a dinner in Mankie Hall, and the business meeting.

Rejects Low As Linfield Gives 165 Pints Blood

Statesman News Service

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 29—One hundred sixty-five pints of blood were donated by Linfield College students when the Yamhill County Bloodmobile unit visited the campus for four hours Monday. Eight students were rejected for medical reasons.

S. James Osborne of the Yamhill County Red Cross office says that the rejections were the smallest percentage of rejections recorded in local records. Last February Linfield students gave 77 pints of blood to the Red Cross bank.

Brooks Benefit Will Feature 'Hubbard Ham'

Statesman News Service

BROOKS, Nov. 29—A "Hubbard ham" dinner and bazaar are being planned by the Brooks Parent-Teacher Association as a money-making project scheduled for Dec. 7.

Serving will be from 5:30 p.m. through 8 p.m. in the Brooks School gymnasium. Salmon loaf will also be served. Bazaar articles will be sold during the serving hours. Mrs. Howard M. Carter, chairman of the ways and means committee, heads all the arrangements.

Brooks School has been borrowing a public address system for years and the PTA hopes to raise sufficient funds to purchase a system for the school.

The December meeting of the PTA has been cancelled. PTA president Mrs. Charles Cottew reported today.

In the Willamette area, was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Dallas for nine years before moving to Aurora.

As moderator, he will be located in Corvallis. His term is for one year starting January 1.

Catholic Jr. Girls Plan For Holiday

Statesman News Service

MT. ANGEL, Nov. 29—Mt. Angel Junior Catholic Daughters will hold their annual Christmas party in conjunction with their court meeting in St. Mary's School Thursday, Dec. 6, following 7:30 p.m. holy hour at the church.

There will be a 50-cent gift exchange and refreshments will be served. A committee of Toni Williams, Mary Ann Klotz, Shirley Schlecht, Patty Gaffke, Dorothy Beyer and Virginia Mauer is in charge.

All members of the five troops participated in the annual skating party at Salem Wednesday night, making the trip by bus.

Separate troop meetings were held at the homes of members during the past week under the supervision of their counselors, each troop selecting a different project. Among the various projects carried out were the making of Christmas wreaths and other decorations, making fruit cake, favors and reading religious books.

Several of the groups donated their articles to the Benedictine Nursing Home.

New Number For Reporting Jefferson Fires

Statesman News Service

JEFFERSON, Nov. 29—The city has installed a new system of turning in fire alarms for Jefferson and the rural fire district.

The new telephone number for reporting fires is Fairfax 7-2275. It will ring simultaneously at the Mason store and Ed Ricks or Gilbert Hoevet homes. A button at the Mason store will automatically sound the fire siren.

Two small fires were reported this week: One at the home of Mrs. Edna Swartz started in a woodshed and was soon put out, the rural fire truck answered a call Monday at the Bert Ferguson home on Greens Bridge Road. Ferguson was warming up his tractor when it caught on fire, but he had it about out when the truck arrived.

Boys' School Work Starts

Statesman News Service

WOODBURN, Nov. 29—Work on the new $446,000 dormitory at the MacLaren School for Boys got under way this week.

The dormitory will have a capacity of approximately 100 beds. Juhn and Sons, Portland, are the contractors.

MacLaren School officials said completion of this building would go far toward relieving the current congestion at the institution. The population at the school has reached a new high.

Donald Farm Property Sold

Statesman News Service

DONALD, Nov. 29—Mr. and Mrs. Luke Bushman, who are now living at The Dalles, have sold their Donald property to Mr. and Mrs. Evert Fredericks of Tillamook.

The farm house was built in 1920 with logs sawed on three sides, which were cut from the nearby Fred Schneider farm. The farm was originally owned by Jim Taylor.

The Fredericks came to White Salmon, Wash., from their home in Holland in 1949. They were permitted to bring their furniture, dishes, silver and personal things, but no money. A treasure they brought with them was a silver topped eggnog pitcher which they had buried during the war to save it from the raiding hands. They stayed in White Salmon a year before moving to a dairy in Tillamook.

Goldfish apparently want to grow muscles. They like spinach.

Always Room For 1 More

Statesman News Service

MT. ANGEL, Nov. 29—George Schmidt, board chairman of St. Mary's Public School here, proved again Wednesday that he is his own best customer when it comes to students.

Schmidt's wife presented him with an eight-pound girl—12th child born to the couple. The little newcomer rested the boy's girl ratio at six each in the Schmidt household.

The family is represented in almost every grade in school here.
