Great Decisions Program to Include Panel Discussions on Foreign Lands

A series of panel discussions with Salem area residents as participants will begin in late January under sponsorship of the Great Decisions program, it was reported Thursday.

The discussions will include various foreign countries. Salem residents who have travelled in these nations are to participate.

According to plans laid at a Thursday meeting of the Great Decisions committee in the Salem YMCA the programs are to be held via radio and the press.

The weekly series is slated to start Jan. 20 with Russia as the topic. The panel will discuss the cold war, the United States' handling of the Russian problem and other related matters.

Report Shows Log Prices Unchanged

CORVALLIS, Dec. 20 (AP)—Log prices to mills in production have remained unchanged this week, Oregon State College and the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

There was limited activity on the log market with many sawmills closed for the Christmas holidays.

Later we will talk about such nations as Egypt and such topics as colonialism," said Dr. V. E. Audie, a committee member. "We have in Salem many persons who have travelled abroad or who have had some contact with the United Nations or international matters."

Aim of the Great Decisions program is to create interest in world affairs through small informal discussion groups.

I was the night before Christmas, and all through the bank, the tellers were asking just whom they should thank, for making their year one of pleasure and joy, while meeting and greeting each man, girl or boy.

When out in the lobby, loan officers came... and typists and clerks, their question the same. From offices, vaults, and from every compartment... bookkeepers, guards... and the whole trust department.

In seventy-four branches the managers knew, that they had a message to carry to you. And so they all sang in tones loud and clear, "Merry Christmas to all... and a Happy New Year!"

Or, to put it another way, the people of the 74 statewide banking offices of The First National Bank of Portland wish you and yours a very merry Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year!
