Expansion Need Seen At Cascade

TURNER, Jan. 6.—Cascade Union High School faces the need of expanded facilities to handle an ever-growing enrollment, according to Superintendent L. J. Urhammer. Problem of financing operation with the Oregon Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Association.

Enrollment at the school currently is 406 students — which is peak capacity. Urhammer said expectations are that there will be an enrollment increase of from 20 to 40 students next year.

Urhammer and the school board have scheduled visits to high schools which have combined girls gyms and cafeteria facilities. The cafeteria at Cascade has more than reached its capacity with more than 300 students eating the noon meal each day.

Maximum use of the building has been reached with all classrooms and teaching stations utilized every period of the day.
