Nuptials in Eugene of Interest

At a quiet ceremony in Eugene on Sunday afternoon Mrs. Donald Eastridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Archibald of Salem, became the bride of Calvin Richard Smith of San Jose, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Reed Smith of Eugene. The couple exchanged their vows at a 2 o'clock church at the United Lutheran Church before members of the two families and a few intimate friends.

The Rev. Charles Eppel performed the nuptials before a setting of blue and white Dutch iris and stock flanked by blue tapers.

For her wedding the bride selected a dove blue pure silk satin afternoon gown enhanced with an Alencon lace bodice. The sleeves were short and the full skirt was bored. She wore a matching blue satin cap embellished with seed pearls carried with a tiny veil. She carried a bouquet of Eucharis lilies.

Mrs. Donald Dole of Roseburg was her sister's only attendant and she wore a mauve peau de soie sheath dress with matching velvet hat and carried a bouquet of pink dwarf roses.

Li Richard Hopper, U. S. Naval Air Force, flew north from San Diego to serve as best man for Mr. Smith. Ushers were John Backlund, Joe Gardner and Lee Archibald, brother of the bride.

Reception at Smith Home

Mrs. Archibald chose a rose lace afternoon dress with corsage of pink dwarf roses for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Smith wore a navy blue silk faille gown and corsage of yellow roses.

The blue and white decor was repeated at the reception, which was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Eugene. Pouring were Mrs. Lester King of Pendleton and Mrs. Charles Gilliland. Cutting the cake were Mrs. R. H. Hopper and Mrs. S. H. Tyler. Assisting were Mrs. Harry Nebergall, Mrs. Gene O'Riik, Mrs. Austin Pitcher and Miss Susan King.

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon skiing at Sun Valley. For going away the new Mrs. Smith donned a grey-blue wool sheath dress with grey coat and pink accessories. After Feb. 10 the couple will be at home at 1624 The Alameda in San Jose, Calif., where Mr. Smith is with the J. C. Penney Co.

Meeting Cancelled

The meeting of Chadwick Chapter, OES Social Club scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic Temple has been cancelled due to a death of a member. The next regular meeting will be in February.

First Lady Changes Costume

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower did a quick costume change today from church-going attire to a special black tulle dress for the family's private presidential oath-taking ceremony at the White House.

The first lady had selected a two-piece black gabardine suit with pleated skirt, topped by a silver milk stole for the 9 a.m. appearance with the President at the National Presbyterian church. When the presidential party returned to the White House, Mrs. Eisenhower switched to the V-neckline black tulle, designed by Jonal of New York. She wore a three-strand pearl choker which she wore to the 1953 inaugural.

The first lady was thus more formally clad for the occasion than Mrs. Pat Nixon, wife of the vice president, who had no chance to switch from the two-piece green wool suit and white fur hat she wore to church. Mrs. Nixon also wore, for the first time, a princess style coat of black lamb made from pelts given her by the Queen of Afghanistan.

A Dress-up Affair

It was a dress-up affair for all of the Eisenhower and Nixon relatives who attended the oath-taking.

Even the Eisenhower grandchildren — David, 10, Barbara Anne, 7, Susan Elaine 4, and baby Mary Jean, 13-months — had special outfits.

Young David had on a grey flannel suit and a blue and white print bow tie. Barbara and Susan had matching dark blue velvet dresses, with velvet trim. Mary Jean was in yellow cotton with a white organdy collar.

"Legal Rights of Women in Oregon" was the topic discussed by Miss Hattie Bratzel at the well attended luncheon Saturday of Salem Branch, American Association of University Women at the Marion Hotel.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Russell Beutler, president, who announced the present membership of Salem Branch totals 243. Announcement was made of the February luncheon when the fifty Willamette University senior girls will be guests.

Mrs. S. Bliss Leslie challenged ledge of Civil Defense and distributed the membership as to their knowledge of the booklet, "Home Protection Exercises."

Miss Mathilda Gilles, principal of Richmond School and a member of the Salem Branch, briefly told of her work and travels as the present president of the National Association of Elementary Principals.

Mrs. Maguida Mahmoud, principal of a girls' school in Cairo, Egypt, was introduced. Mrs. Mahmoud is spending a month in the Salem schools.

The table decorations included snowmen, equipped with stocking caps and mufflers, made by the first grade at Candalaria School, Mrs. Georgia Snodgrass, teacher, and the second grade at Liberty School, Mrs. Louise Brooks, teacher. Mrs. Gene Knudsen, Mrs. Dale Fitch and Mrs. Robert Huyett were in charge of the decorations. Hostesses were Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Ann Boenteje, Mrs. Albert Cohen and Mrs. Harry Thorp.
