

Inauguration Offers Combination of Ornate Carpeting, Austere Benches

Statesman, Salem Ore., Tues., Jan. 22, 1957 (Sec. 1)-3

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—It was an unusually grim and solemn Dwight D. Eisenhower who was sworn in publicly as President today.

He looked solemn as he stood at the top of the red and blue carpeted steps at the Capitol, waiting to come down for the ceremony.

Long Parade Leaves Ike With 'Stiff Knees'

By J. W. DAVIS
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—It was a grand and glorious parade today at President Eisenhower's second inauguration.

But the weather, dank and cloudy, was too cool for comfort and when it was all over, Eisenhower felt moved to say: "Oh, my old knees are stiff."

Ike Dedicates Term to 'Peace With Justice'

By WILMOT BERCHER
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—President Eisenhower today dedicated his second term to "the building of a peace with justice" in a world he said was divided by international communism.

His own procession down Pennsylvania avenue was triumphal. Crowds lining the broad street, some in temporary stands, some standing at the wired-off curb, and some on top of buildings, cheered him enthusiastically.

Solemnly, the President called on America to share its destiny "with men of all peoples and all nations, who are or would be free."

He had words of friendship for the Russian people, as separate from the Russian government, and said at another point "We honor the aspirations of those nations which, now captive, long for freedom."

"Want and Discord"
In too much of the world, the president said, "there is want, discord, danger."

The President's animation and high spirits continued throughout the six-mile-long parade.

When the President began speaking he looked almost grim. It was in the opening phases of his address that he declared: "May we pursue the right—without self-righteousness."

Surviving in addition to the widow in Dallas are a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Hughes, Portland; sister, Mrs. Louisa McBee, Dallas; a brother, Carl Sellers, Salem; and four grandchildren.

There was a burst of applause when he mentioned the fight for freedom in Hungary and said: "Budapest is no longer merely the name of a city; henceforth it is a new and shining symbol of man's yearning to be free."

Describes Nation
Here is the way Eisenhower described the United States at the beginning of his second term of office:

Doctors in leading hospital have discovered new, fast relief for painful new type iodine gargle. In clinical tests on hundreds of patients suffering from worst sore throat pain, more than 9 out of 10 obtained fast relief. Doctors said, "Results were dramatic!"

Close-up relatives were among those who saw the private ceremonies yesterday and they had the front row seats today.

Good Deportment
Still, you'd have to say it was deportment any mother and father could be proud of. The same goes for the Nixon girls, Patricia, 10, and Julie, 8, whose right eye is still black from bumping a tree while sledding.

Lad's Body Found
PORTLAND, Jan. 21 (AP)—The body of Douglas Thompson, 7, missing since Thursday when he disappeared from the houseboat where he lived, was found in the Columbia Slough Sunday.

But Washington takes these things seriously.
At 8:45 a.m., 15 policemen were on the ready at 13th and Pennsylvania Ave. They outnumbered the passing throng by approximately 3:1.

Then at the Capitol preparations were under way far in advance. At 10:15 the color guard came tramp, tramp, tramping in, rehearsing Secret Service men were patrolling the place. One, high up on the Capitol, kept an eagle eye on potential wrongdoers, using binoculars, ready to sound any alarm over short wave radio.

But the ceremony proved one thing: The best way to get a close up view of an inauguration is to get a close-up relative elected president or vice president.

Girl Remains Unconscious

Statesman News Service
HUBBARD, Jan. 21—Joan Stafford, 12, Hubbard, who was critically injured in a station wagon-transport truck collision on Highway 99E in Hubbard last Saturday, was reported tonight by attendants at Emmanuel Hospital, Portland, as still on the critical list but "getting along satisfactorily after surgery."

Girl Remains Unconscious

At the White House, the Eisenhower and Nixons were seated in a reviewing stand. They got some comfort from heaters that had been built into the balustrade.

SORE THROAT?

HOW LEADING HOSPITAL STOPS SORE THROAT PAIN FAST

Amazing new iodine gargle gave results in 91.6% cases tested

Science now releases world's greatest germ killer in safe, pleasant gargle form for throat infections!

Doctors in leading hospital have discovered new, fast relief for painful new type iodine gargle. In clinical tests on hundreds of patients suffering from worst sore throat pain, more than 9 out of 10 obtained fast relief. Doctors said, "Results were dramatic!"

First used in babies' throats under doctors' supervision it quickly stopped the dreaded throat infection, "thrush". The secret is a remarkable scientific advance—detoxifying iodine to make it safe yet potent to use.

Here for the first time is the full power of iodine at work in a gentle soothing film so that sore throat pain stops fast. This new gargle coats raw nerve ends inside the throat and mouth where pain starts—while it kills harmful bacteria that cause infection. Even hours later, germ count is practically nothing so relief lasts and lasts.

You can now get this dramatic new iodine gargle without prescription under the name of "Concentrated ISO-DINE GARGLE". It is stainless and has a remarkably refreshing taste. Use ISO-DINE Gargle at first sign of a cold to prevent sore throat misery. At all drugstores.
