South High Debaters to Travel

By KAREN HARRIS

Members of the South Salem High School public speaking and debate classes will go to Linfield College, McMinnville, today, Friday and Saturday to compete in the 25th annual tournament which will be attended by approximately 600 students and their advisers from schools all over the state.

Karen Harris

The debate topic is, "Should the Brannan Plan for Agriculture Be Adopted." Attending the tournament as members of the four senior debate teams will be Donna Stone and Beverlee Fulton, Bill Ford and Bill Richter, Ken Savage and Mike Smith and Peter Erickson and Judson Smith.

Junior debate teams are Betti Dyke and Sue Deal; Robin Day, Lynne Johnson and Helen Dodge; Jane Bodenweiser and Kathy Miller; Douglas McGeorge and Jeff Bodenweiser; Colleen Nelson and Eugenia Margosian; Peg Coe and Diana Pearcy; Bill Rector and Ward Harris and Bob Hill and Bob Moore. These are students who signed up to be in teams and who have not had as much debating experience as the senior debating teams.

Other Topics

Topics to be covered by the students will be after dinner speaking (national forensics), extemporaneous speaking (problems of the American government), interviews (applying for a job), salesmanship talks (selling a product), impromptu speaking (disarmament), discussions about congress (disarmament), radio speaking (a five-minute radio script), humorous talks, oratory talks and serious talks.

Students who will do after dinner speaking, extemp, interview, salesmanship, impromptu, congress, radio, oratory, humorous and serious or a combination of these will be Jane Bodenweiser, Robin Day, Betti Dyke, Peter Erickson, Bill Ford, Beverlee Fulton, Lynne Johnson, Bill Richter, Ken Savage, Judson Smith, Donna Stone, Jeff Bodenweiser, Peg Coe, Sue Deal, Helen Dodge, Ward Harris, Bob Hill, Eugenia Margosian, Douglas McGeorge, Kathy Miller, Bob Moore, Colleen Nelson, Diana Pearcy, Bill Rector and Mike Smith.

Miss Amanda Anderson, debate coach, will accompany the group to the tournament.

Spanish Club Meets

A Spanish Club meeting took place Tuesday at which a club constitution was accepted, a party was discussed and several skits were presented.

Pres. Ann Finley read the proposed constitution and members accepted it. She also stated that a party with the Latin Club and the French Club was scheduled in April.

Students who presented Spanish skits were Gordon Humphrey and Mary Wilbur, Warren Flaks and Robert Brownell, Tom Heltzel and Steve McFarland and Sue Brasher and Jean Mobly.

North High to Give Play This Morning

By LOUIS PARKER

North Salem High's Snikpoh Dramatic Society held the last rehearsal Wednesday afternoon for presentation of "The Robe." The cast will present a scene from the biblical play this morning to the students and the complete performance tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the school's auditorium.

Louis Parker

The many weeks of rehearsing will be brought to a climax this evening as the group gives a modern touch to the Lloyd C. Douglas novel of Christ's crucifixion. The play will also have a rather unique setting of ramps, steps, two levels and little scenery change. As in the past, North's orchestra will provide music between the acts.

Tickets will be on sale at the door and are also being sold in the school office. All seats are reserved and tickets are 75 cents each. The annual Snikpoh play is the club's main way of raising funds.

Party Planned

Following the play there will be an all-cast party with everyone who worked on the production invited at one of the cast member's home.

The cast, including students from all three grades, consists of: Diana, Patti Claggett; Marcellus, Jim Hays; Demetrius, George Baker; Lucia, Jan Van Someren; Caligula and Fulvius, Bob Richardson; Theodosia, Wanda Noel; Cornelia, Joanne Hill; Phoebe, D'Ann Downey; Helen, Alma Kunowsky; Rhoda, Joy Brown; Sarah, Linda Watson; Salome, Bev McKinney; Pilate, George Darland; Stephanos, Allen Stevens; Quintus and Tiberius, Dave Rehfuss; Senator Gallio, Larry Patton; Paulus and Sarpedon, Mike Culbertson; Peter and Melas, Dennis Brown.

Besides Snikpoh, itself, North's Stagecraft club, the "Clarion" staff, the advanced typing classes and make-up crew lend themselves to the production.

At North Salem High Tuesday night between 7 and 9 p.m. some strange and weird noises came from the two outside gyms—caused by a special North-South Latin Club party.

The belated Valentine's party was the first meeting of the cross-town Roman societies and was quite a success as many students from both schools attended.

Film Show

The main feature of the evening was the showing of a film produced by North's Latin club last year. The color movie, student produced, depicted the customs of a Roman wedding and was a take-off on the television series, "You Are There." It was entitled "We Are Here," and as the major part of the cast graduated last year, Dottye Jones, Carol Stolk and Louis Parker read in the various parts.

The remainder of the evening consisted of dancing and several "quiet" games of volleyball. Cookies and punch were also served.

As the North High Club was the host, the party was wholly planned by the Northsiders. Judy Mogster, club president, and Mary Ann Looncy, vice president, were general chairmen.

Committees included decorations, Mary Ann Looney, Sandie Johnson, Jack Fletcher and Carolyn Lunday; refreshments, Dottye Jones, Gary Frame and Karen Mantie; activities, Dottye Jones, Carol Stolk, Doris Hein, Steve Epstein, Jim Snell and Louis Parker.

The party was planned for Tuesday night only, but it was still going strong Wednesday. There was a special meeting called at noon to finish almost half of the cookies from the night before and the balloons used as decorations were floating all around the Latin room.

Now that the long awaited party is over the club is looking forward to its annual Roman banquet March 7.

Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. George Humphrey's estate at Thomasville, Ga., is called "Milestone Plantation," after the milestone they placed at its gate on their 20th wedding anniversary.

Each bidder shall include in his bid a statement of the total interest cost and effective interest rate that the city will pay if his bid is accepted and none of the bonds are called prior to the maturity date thereof.

Each bid, excepting bids submitted by the State of Oregon, must be accompanied by a certified check, on a bank doing business in the State of Oregon, for two per cent of the par value of the bonds made payable to the City of Salem as a guarantee of good faith.
