Close Until Ending

The action was close until the sudden ending Fullmer waded in with wild right-hand leads in the very first round while Robinson fought back in the clinches without holding as he had done im their first bout

No man ever has beaten Robinson twice in his long career and he has lost only five times in 148 starts since 1948.

In his dressing room after the fight, Robinson said "I don't know how far the left book west, but I certainly got the message through " Most rimgaiders thought the knockout blow traveled only about 18 inches.

A bewildered Fullmer only asked "What happened"
