

Keep Good Food Handy In Summer

Warm weather speeds up activity and along with it appetites. On the run eaters sometimes neglect the well-balanced diet by grabbing the food nearest at hand or we suggest having nourishing foods nearby for these ravenous appetites. Chilled fresh and canned fruits, ice cold milk and crunchy cookies fill the bill nicely. Variety breads from the baker or bakery counter at your favorite food market, cold meats and cheeses make snack-type eating very inviting. Keeping them handy and in sight will assure you that your busy family will be well fed and still keep up the pace.

Wheat foods are the perfect accompaniment for all meals and keep up energy and general well-being. Try these tasty bar-type cookies just spread in pan, bake and cut in squares, triangles and strips. They are easy to pack and perfect picnic fare.
