

Zhukov Seen as Strongest Supporter of Soviet Chief

PRAGUE, July 7 (AP)—Czechoslovak sources said today that Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, Soviet defense minister, blocked an attempt to purge Soviet leaders before the party boss moved against them.

There is agreement here that Zhukov is the key to Khrushchev's continued rule in Russia.

Zhukov's personal support permitted Khrushchev to tell a party

Two Rescued As Boat Burns

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 7 (AP)—Glenster Schabes, 47, and his son Larry, 16, of Hoquiam were rescued by a Coast Guard boat this afternoon after their 22-foot cabin cruiser, the John Donlin, burned and sank about a mile off Moon Island.

The two dived from the boat when the gas tank exploded. They clung for more than an hour to a piling. The Coast Guard saw the burning boat, rescued the Schabes and then tried to put out the fire, but the John Donlin became waterlogged and sank.

The Schabes had been fishing earlier today off Westport with Norval Schabes, 39, brother of Glenster Schabes. Frank Strong and Will Olson, all of Hoquiam, Norval Schabes, Strong and Olson drove back here from Westport to help Glenster Schabes and his son dock the boat.

Ingrid Bergman, Daughter Pia Plan Reunion

PARIS, July 7 (AP)—Actress Ingrid Bergman flew back from Rome tonight, happy and relieved after one strenuous day and ready to meet daughter Pia after years of separation.

Miss Bergman made a sudden flight to Rome over the weekend to see her 15-year-old daughter, Isabella, who underwent an operation for appendicitis. Before leaving Rome, Miss Bergman told reporters she was relieved to know that Isabella was all right.

Her eldest daughter, 19-year-old Jenny Ann Pia Lindstrom, all child of Miss Bergman's first marriage, was reported in Sweden preparing to come here this week for a reunion with her mother. It will be their first visit together since Miss Bergman left Pia's father to marry film director Roberto Rossellini.

Senator O'Mahoney Drafting 'Jury-Trial' Rider For Civil Rights Measure, as South Has Urged

By JACK REIL

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) announced today he is drafting a jury-trial amendment he said he hopes the Senate will attach to the civil rights bill passed by the House.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican floor leader, has said he will move tomorrow to bring the House bill before the Senate.

Knowland's motion is subject to unlimited debate and he has indicated he will try to hold the Senate in lengthy sessions before attempting to force a vote on a debate-limitation motion.

Pending action by the Senate to bring the bill actually before it, O'Mahoney withheld the terms of

Diplomatic Ties Of Venezuela, Argentina Cut

By SERGIO MACKEY

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, July 7 (AP)—Argentina's severing of relations with Venezuela today has climaxed a long dispute over the activities of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron now an exile in the Venezuelan capital.

Venezuela yesterday declared the Argentine ambassador there unwelcome and ordered the embassy closed.

Political experts here refused to hazard even a guess on how this may affect a Soviet-U.S. disarmament agreement.

Although there has been no public announcement on the details of the Khrushchev-Bulgarian visit, the Czechoslovak press has begun to report countervailing support of the Khrushchev move against his party boss at home.

It is expected that Czechoslovakia's top men will travel to the border to meet their guests and not leave the reception in the hands of lesser functionaries.

The rail train from the frontier to Prague will give the Czechoslovak hosts an excellent opportunity to explain that there is no form of opposition in this country either to Leninism or to the Soviet Union.

Khrushchev Applauded

Rude Pravo and other Czechoslovak newspapers reported yesterday and today that hundreds of party meetings all over the country had applauded Khrushchev's purge of V. M. Molotov, Georgi Malenkov, Larion Kaganovich and Dmitri Shepilov.

These papers said Czechoslovak workers have promised to exceed their production quotas in honor of the guests and so demonstrate the "cooperative spirit" of the people of Czechoslovakia.
