Oldtimers Gather for Annual Stayton Picnic

STAYTON, July 21.—Members of the early days in Stayton were gathered here this afternoon for the annual Stayton Old-Timers picnic. Some 20 attended.

Member H. J. Rowe described the group as an "unorganized organization" of old-time Stayton residents who meet once a year to talk about the old days of the town. The picnics began half a dozen years ago and have become an annual affair, he said.

Among those present was local resident John E. Stayton, daughter of Roger Stayton who founded the city. The most elderly person at the picnic was Edna Slinger, 86. Another Stayton who is the grand-nephew of Circuit Judge Val Slinger was also present.

The picnickers came from all over Oregon and points in Washington and California as well.

Reds Seeking 'United Front'

NEW YORK, July 21.—The Communist party has announced its national committee has adopted a series of resolutions aimed at promoting communism in a "united front" drive.

Three resolutions stressed plans to "organize, discipline and seek cooperation among Negroes, Puerto Ricans, Mexicans, Jews, Italians and other minority groups to organize an essentially all-Communist front in the United States."

They called for a national cultural committee to work with non-Communist artists and a national farm commission to push Communist aims among poor farmers, especially members of minorities.

The resolution noting American Jews have been disturbed by the Kremlin's attitude toward Jewish educational and cultural activities promised that Stalin errors in persecuting Jews and wiping out their cultural life will be corrected by the present regime.

The party announcement yesterday did not say when or where the committee met to adopt the resolution.

New Officers On Silverton Library Board

SILVERTON, July 21.—Mrs. Betty Allen, who has served as vice president, moved up to the presidency of the Silverton Library Board Saturday. She replaces Mrs. Glenn Bredwell, president for the past eight years and who resigned in June when she moved to Salem.

Mrs. Charles Host was named vice president. Mrs. Harold Larsen was retained as secretary-treasurer of the board.

Mrs. Ruth Hungate appointed in the board by Mayor C. A. Hande Jr. a month ago was welcomed as the new board member.

All the short organizational business meeting of the board, pleasure was expressed that the city council had included enlargement of the library room in the budget for the current year starting July 1. Board members expressed hopes that the work on the enlargement might be done in time to accommodate the heavy autumn and winter patronage of the library.

Chinese Floods Take 557 Lives; Million Affected

HONG KONG, July 21.—The worst floods ever recorded along two rivers in Red China's south Shantung Province have drowned at least 557 persons and marooned thousands. Peiping radio reported tonight.

The broadcast said more than 5000 relief and rescue workers, including army and government men, have been sent to battle the floods on the Yi and Shu rivers.

Several thousand villages are isolated and about a million persons affected, following a four-day deluge that climaxed two weeks of exceptionally heavy rain, the radio report said.

The Yi, Hui, and the Shu flooded disastrously in successive six weeks ending in 1949. By 1952 had new outlets to the sea had been cut but these could not hold this year's torrents. Peiping said the rains came from July 2 through last Friday, rainfall in some parts of the stricken area totaled 24.75 inches.

It reported thousands of tons of food and more than 20,000 live pigs have been air dropped into the area.
