

GRANTS, N. J., July 26.—Depositing rains in nearby mountains sent flood waters pouring through Grants and across the highway, trapping 1,000 cars for hours on the intercontinental highway.

Portions of Grants were evacuated for a time as the San Mateo Creek, fed by clouds from the nearby San mountains, rose to 43 feet.

needed.

State police closed the intercontinental highway about 7 p. m. and reported it open at 9 p. m. Traffic on the route between Albuquerque and Gallup was disrupted.

Editor John Barber of the Santa Fe Beacon said that he strongly advised motorists to avoid the area all day. He mentioned the fall of the bridges.

LOS ANGELES, July 26 (AP)—Cosmetics millionaire Andrew J. Jergens, 70, was sued for divorce today by Mary E. Jergens, who accused him of unspecified acts of extreme cruelty.

The couple married in Reno, Aug. 1, 1940, and separated last Jan. 15. Mrs. Jergens formerly was an employee of the cosmetics manufacturer.

Mrs. Jergens asked for custody of their children, Elizabeth, 7, and John, 3. She said a property settlement had been reached.

HOLLYWOOD
300 N. CAPITAL STREET
Adults 50c Children 20c
Ends Today! Open 6.45
"KELLY AND ME"
"THE VINTAGE"
Both in Cinemascope & Color
Starts Tomorrow — Cont. 6.45
All Color Program!
"MAVERICK QUEEN"
Barbara Stanwyck
Barry Sullivan
—Adventure Co. Hit—
"YELLOWNECK"
Filmed in the Everglades of Florida

The 125 persons attending tonight's meeting unanimously

• ENDS TONIGHT •
"TAMMY AND THE BACHELOR"

The 125 persons attending tonight's meeting unanimously adopted the resolution.

... unanimous recommendation of the State Weather Amendment Board which has control over rainmaking and lightning.

"JIMMY AND THE BACHELOR"
WILL BE SHOWN BEFORE AND

Produced by
BUDDY ADLER

ENDS TONITE! "BEAU JAMES" — "BUSTER KEATON STORY"

LaH ● Marjorie Main ★ Parker Fennely
CO-HIT ● "THE KETTLES ON OLD MacDONALD'S FARM"

PEAK
VIEW

GREAT
TECHNICOLOR
FEATURE

THE MEN
CINEMASCOPE

LOVEJOY
NINA FOCK
DEAN JAGGER
