The Register said in an article by Fletcher Knebel of its Washington bureau:

"Internal Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington, testifying Friday in a secret session of the finance committee, said the State Department applied pressure on Internal Revenue to approve the tax deduction.

"A tale of internal 'under-the-table' financial intrigue' unfolded under questioning by senators who launched the investigation at the request of Sen. John Williams (R-De.)

Senators emphasized that the only direct evidence linking Trujillo to the bribe thus far was the State Department's insistence that Internal Revenue not challenge the deduction.

The New Jersey corporation, senators learned, won a Dominican Republic building contract with the British subject as an intermediary," the newspaper said.

The Register said senators drew from Harrington testimony that Approximately 150 Democratic party members and workers from Marion and Polk Counties attended the annual no-to-county Democratic Central Committee picnic Saturday at the State Fairgrounds.

Chief speaker was Gov. Robert D. Holmes who urged the group to "not rest on your laurels after a stunning victory." Following the picnic the governor departed for Seaside where he will crown the winner of the Miss Oregon beauty pageant today.

of the union and company officials hailed the agreement as a possible pattern for settling a general cement industry strike in the Lehigh Valley and various other parts of the nation.

The contract calls for a 13 1/2 cents an hour general pay increase, and—a key union demand in negotiations — retroactivity on 10 cents of the raise back to termination of the previous contract May 1.

The strike, which on June 4 began spreading at various plants in the Lehigh Valley, one of the Attorney General Robert I. Thornton also spoke. Marion County Democratic chairman Cornelius Bateson introduced the speakers.

Today at 1 p. m. in the wake of the Democrats, members of the Marion and Polk County Republican party will hold a no-host picnic at the State Fairgrounds.

STATTON, July 27—A migrant worker from California was beaten tonight and robbed of his wallet by the Marion County sheriff's office, said

Reid was taken to Santiam Memorial Hospital, the deputy said.

The sheriff's office in Lancaster, Calif., notified Salem city police Saturday that a 16-year-old Salem boy missing since June 23 was being held on a burglary charge. The boy's parents were notified by officers.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 27 — Two-and-a-half-year-old Lawrence Darden died at Grace Haven Community Hospital last night, a hospital spokesman said, from the effects of three glasses of wine he drank Thursday.

Police quoted the boy's father, Joseph, 26, as saying he had been drinking at the time and gave the baby the wine "as a joke."

GOLD BEACH, July 27 (AP)—Firefighters trailed an 80-acre forest fire in the Hunter Creek area south of Highway 101 today.

They expected to hold the blaze in check unless a wind comes.

The fire started yesterday overnight of way being cleared for new Cook Curry Electric Cooperative Inc. power line.

About 40 men fought the flames which the wind twice swept out of control this morning.

Camera Shop, 174 N. Commercial St. notified city police Saturday night a $525 movie camera was stolen from a store counter some time between 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. yesterday.
