Couple Wed In North Carolina

From Kings Mountain, North Carolina, comes news of the marriage of a Salem teacher, Miss Betty Ledford, to Charlie Lorance Henderson on Sunday afternoon, August 18 at the First Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ledford of Kings Mountain and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henderson, also of Kings Mountain.

The Rev. Aubrey T. Quakenbush performed the 4:30 o'clock rites. Mrs. F. R. McCurdy was the organist and B. S. Peeler Jr. was the vocalist.

For her wedding the bride wore a full skirted gown of white embroidered organdy designed with a cowl neckline and moulded bodice. Her veil was attached to a half circlet of organdy and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Jack Ledford, Raleigh, N. C., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Louise Gladden was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Kay Henderson, Mrs. James Tart, sisters of the groom, Miss Patricia Jean McSwain, Shelby, and Mrs. John Calloway, Albermarle. The attendants wore full-skirted dresses of pink and aqua embroidered organdy and carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath. Honorary attendants were Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Estev Cooke, Mrs. Gerald Hughes, all of Kings Mountain, and Miss Elizabeth Jane Ledford of Gastonia.

Wanda Worthan, Douglasville, Ga., and Linda Ledford, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. Max David Bolin of Kings Mountain was ring bearer.

Father Is Best Man

Ray Henderson was his son's best man. Ushers were Steve Henderson, brother of the groom, James Tart, brother-in-law of the groom, Wilson Ledford, Jerry Ledford, brothers of the bride, and Randy Cash.

The new Mrs. Henderson was graduated from Kings Mountain, N. C. high school, Gardner Webb Junior college and Carson Newman College. She was a member of the faculty of School for the Deaf, Morganton, and is now on the faculty of the Oregon State School for the Deaf.

Mr. Henderson was graduated from Kings Mountain high school, served five years in the U. S. Navy, and is employed by Dixie Home Stores. He will enter Oregon State College in September. The couple will reside in Salem.

The Tabitha Missionary Fellowship of the First Baptist Church will hold a White Cross meeting at the church on Thursday, August 22 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. All women of the church are invited to attend and are asked to bring a sack lunch. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lulu Wilson and Mrs. Blanche Riggs.

Old Fashioned

Pickling, Preserving Still Popular Sport

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor

It may be old fashioned to pickle and preserve, but an awful lot of moderns are doing it.

One of the most popular of all pickles through the years is the easy Bread and Butter Pickle, a sliced cucumber recipe that's wonderful for eating with meats.

Bread and Butter Pickles

12 medium cucumbers, sliced — 6 medium white Spanish onions

Peel and slice onions and sprinkle both with salt; let stand 1 hour. Wash in cold water and drain well. Add following dressing:

1 teaspoon each ginger, black pepper, mustard seed and celery seed — 1 tablespoon turmeric
½ teaspoon cinnamon — 1 tablesp. on cornstarch

Mix smooth with a little cold water and stir with 1 cup sugar boiled with 1 pint vinegar. Let come to boiling point and seal.

And a chunk style pickle, another old fashioned recipe, sounds but more complicated but really isn't. Summit Park Pickle is only one name for this popular item.

Summit Park Pickles

1 gallon cut cucumbers — 2 cups salt in 1 gallon water

Cut cucumbers in ¾ inch pieces and put in a stone jar. Pour over them the water and salt. Let stand 7 days.

On 8th day, drain, pour over them 1 gallon boiling water in which 1 tablespoon alum has been dissolved.

On 9th day, drain and add 1 gallon fresh boiling water.

On 10th day, drain, add 5 pints boiling vinegar, 6 cups sugar, mixed pickling spices.

On 11th and 12th and 13th days drain and each time reheat, adding 1 cup sugar each time. Seal in jars or leave in crock.

And as for relishes, this corn relish is one of the best of the lot, especially good for use with lettuce for salad in wintertime, when salad materials are at a premium.

Corn Relish

2 red peppers — 1 quart vinegar
18 ears corn — 2 cups brown sugar
1 small cabbage — ¼ cup salt
1 cup chopped celery — 3 tablespoons ground mustard
4 medium onions — 1 tablespoon tumeric if liked
2 green peppers

Cover corn with cold water, bring to boil, then cut off cobs, scraping cobs lightly. Chop vegetables fine, add remaining ingredients, add hot water to cover, boil 30 minutes and seal hot. Most of the water will boil away.

Uses for Corn Relish: This pickle is so mild it makes a convenient winter salad, just passed in a bowl as meat accompaniment or served on lettuce with a dab of mayonnaise. Mixed with ground cooked ham it is a handy sandwich filling. A pint of corn relish heated to scalding and mixed with a package of lemon gelatine makes 8 to 10 jellied salads.

Howard Family Gathers Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Howard were hosts for a family reunion on Sunday at their Sunnyview Avenue home. This was the first time in ten years the Howards' sons and daughters have been together.

The occasion for the reunion was the arrival of Capt. and Mrs. M. T. Anderson and children, Cheryl, Ronald and Joni, who recently returned to the states from three years in Japan. After September 30 the Andersons will be stationed at Scotts Field, Ill. They are leaving Friday for Tucson to visit Mr. Anderson's mother and enroute will stop at Yellowstone and the Grand Canyon.

Other members of the family gathering at the Howards were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Howard, Cheryl, Bruce and Dana; Robert Howard who is attending the University of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freitag, Lona Kay, Raymond and Gary of Scio; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Williamson, Danny, Diana and David.

Junior Club Picnic

The Salem Junior Woman's Club annual summer picnic has been set for Sunday, August 25 at Paradise Island at 1 p.m. All club members, their husbands and children have been invited to attend. Mrs. Howard Elwood is serving as general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Clark Carleton, Mrs. Stanley Wolcott, Mrs. Richard Fry, Mrs. William Juza and Mrs. Bernard Grindle.
