Woe befell the Salem Senators from two angles last night in their Northwest League series finale at Eugene with Unc Hugh Luby's Emeralds.

First of all, rookie outfielder Terry Maddox was lost to the club for the remainder of the season when Uncle Sam's Army did an about face and called the former U of Oregon whiz for induction today. Then the rapidly disintegrating Solons absorbed their worst licking of the season as the Ems gleefully pounded Usher Smith 17 to 1, sweeping the two-game stand.

Boss Bill Brenner, desperate for outfield help now that Maddox has joined Larry Seguvia on the departed list, signed young Jerry Gregg in time to play in last night's game. The former Salem High whiz was with the Solons earlier in the season.

The Senators return to their home arena tonight to start a three-game series with Lewiston, the next-to-last home stay of the campaign. Greeting them will be the annual Radio Appreciation Night, another all-free deal for the fans with prizes.

Blond Chuck Lybbert, owner of a 20-5 record, will face Hillis Layne's Broncs in the eight o'clock opener.

The lumps in last night debacle came early and hard. Andy George, who has been mired in a pitching slump for almost a month, was nailed for four runs in the first inning and was bombed out during a six-run blast in the second.

Bess Brenner relieved George, who suffered his 14th setback and fifth in a row, and he too was slammed with a four-run inning the fourth. It was at this point that Brenner changed positions with catcher Harv Koepf and big Harv made his debut as a pitcher.

The big guy did a bangup job too, even though the Ems got three unearned runs off him in the seventh after Cal Bauer had made an error with two out.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Aug. 20 (AP) — George Huffman got five hits, including a triple and home run, as Lewiston swept a Northwest League baseball double header from Tri-City tonight, winning the first inning game 7-4 and the second 7-3.

Huffman's triple came in the third inning of the first game and helped the Broncs score four runs. His homer drove in two runs the next inning.

One of Huffman's singles came in a wild fourth inning of the second game when the Broncs paraded 10 men to the plate while scoring five runs. There were three other singles, including a bunt, two walks, two wild pitches and two sacrifice flies.

The Braves got their three runs all in a bunch during the fifth inning of the second game on successive singles by pitcher Bruce Kennedy, Lou Hague, Don McDonald, Bob Flynn and Joe Porter.

Hague led off with a double in the first inning of the opener and scored when McDonald doubled. McDonald was brought in with a sacrifice fly.

The attendance was 704.

YAKIMA, Aug. 20 (AP) — Don Orwiler struck out 13 men tonight as he shut out Wenatchee and the Yakima Bears won their second straight Northwest League baseball game from the Chiefs, 9-0.

Orwiler gave up nine hits but scattered them through eight innings to keep out of any real trouble. Yakima, in turn, bunched its 10 hits off Gus Carmichael for a run in the second inning and three each in the third and sixth frames.

The big blow of the game was provided by Eny Wilcox, who tripled in the sixth with two men on. He scored later on a single by Chuck Elson.

Close Play—But Just Another Out

NEW YORK, Aug. 20—New York Giants' center fielder Willie Mays is out as he crashes into St. Louis Cardinals' catcher Hal Smith in third inning of twi-night twin bill opener at Polo Grounds here tonight. Mays was on third on his two-run triple to left. He tried to score on Hank Sauer's grounder to third, and was nipped on Cards' Eddie Haskos throw to plate. (AP Wirephoto)

Hubbard Nips CB 1-0, Ousted by Corvallis 7-0

OREGON CITY, Aug. 20 (Special) — Hubbard made a valiant try to reach the finals of the 24th annual Oregon State Softball Tournament but found the hard-hitting Corvallis Sluggers too much to overcome after edging Coos Bay in a double-header here tonight.

After sliding by the Coos Bay Merchants 1-0 in the opener, the Garage nine was buried under a 14-hit Elks attack, 7-0.

Finishing with a 3-2 record in the double-elimination fest, Hubbard earned third place.

In the finals tomorrow night it will be the once-beaten Elks against Eugene's undefeated Falkenstein's. If Eugene wins, it's all over, but if the Elks win another contest will be played immediately following for the title.

An unearned run in the bottom of the third inning netted Hubbard its margin over Coos Bay.

Hooley Gets Single

With two away, Keen Hooley singled off the shortstop's glove. He then stole second but as the Coos Bay second baseman bobbled the ball, Hooley went to third. The garagemen's first baseman proceeded to the plate when the C. B. centerfielder gave the errant ball an extra boot.

Each side got only two hits, but winner Bill Rose, effective when he had to be and leaving eight runners stranded, bested Jerry Rose.

The second tilt was all over after the first inning. The Elks bunched three hits for two runs and that was enough for the veteran Marion Kraft who allowed but one hit, that a bunt by Bob Rappe in the third.

Al Anderson, 3-for-4, and Don Carey, George Sprick, Gordy McMorris and Kraft each had two hits for the Elks. Sprick and McMorris each drove in a pair of runs as Hubbard used a trio of pitchers in a vain attempt to halt the Elks.

19th Hole News

. . . By BUNNY MASON
Salem Golf Club Professional
And 1956 Oregon Open Champion

If you want to see a golf course in the making, scoot over to the new Santiam layout near Stayton. The interesting part of the links is all but completed. Five greens have been seeded thus far and all of the holes are now roughed out. By roughed out, we mean the fairways are defined, and the greens that have not actually been constructed are ready for shaping.

BUNNY MASON

There is more to building a golf course than just cutting down trees and planting grass. The Santiam project is under the supervision of a recognized expert in the person of Fred Federspiel. He's not there at all times, but drops in regularly to see that his original plans are being followed. They are, and quite a layout is in the making.

We walked around the nine holes the other day and were very much impressed with some of the holes. One par five caught our eye in particular. It is a "dog leg" number with a fine gambling situation for a long hitter with a small brook crossing in front of the green. This particular brook will be a factor on several holes, and adds a great deal to the fairly short course.

(Most of the holes are in a pretty oak grove, but additional trees will have to be planted so as to break up the terrain on others. The only lamentable feature looming up at present is the complete lack of practice facilities. A practice range is being planned, but there is none in evidence at present . . .

Freddie Wood Proved He's Still Capable

The grand-dads of pro golf had their first go at a National Open this past week in Spokane, and one of our old Northwest greats walked off with the title. Maybe some of our senior readers will remember Freddie Wood, the smooth stroking redhead from the Shaughnessy Heights Country Club in Vancouver, B. C. Fred won many Northwest titles in his palmier days, but had dropped out of the championship picture until his conquest at Spokane. His wasn't an easy win at that. He had to best venerable Gene Sarazen in a "sudden death" playoff, and did it with a 15-foot birdie putt.

Sarazen looks like he will go on forever. He won the National Open over 30 years ago and added the Masters about the same time . . . A good swing holds up us long as the legs last. Oregon's Marty Leptich was holding forth as low amateur in the tournament, until the last round. Then he folded when his legs

Western Led By Rodgers

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Phil Rodgers, a poised 19-year-old Californian, burned up the tough old Warson Country Club course with excellent iron play today for a 3-under-par 68 and the halfway lead in the Western Amateur Golf tournament's qualifying play.

His 141, one stroke under par for 36 holes, was two strokes ahead of veteran Curtis Person of Memphis, Tenn.

Four strokes back at 145 came Edgar Updegraff, 35-year-old former Arizona State champion, and Bob Pratt, 20-year-old University of Houston sophomore.

Intercollegiate runnerup Ward Wettlaufer of Buffalo, N.Y., nailed fifth place with 146.

Lane Decisions Gonsalves in 10

OAKLAND, Calif., Aug. 20 (AP)—Southpaw Kenny Lane, Muskegon, Mich., won an unanimous 10-round decision over Oakland's Johnny Gonsalves tonight.

Lane, 139, opened cuts over Johnny's left eye early in the fight, but both finished strong.

Each weighed 139.

Angels Sell Hurler

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20 (AP) — Pitcher Vito Valentinetti, who has a 9-5 record with Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, was sold today to St. Paul for relief pitcher Leroy Wheat and an undisclosed amount of cash. Wheat has appeared in 19 games with St. Paul this season and has a 1-0 mark.

Mayor Sorry About Giants

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—Mayor Robert Wagner said today he was "very sorry" the New York Giants were moving to San Francisco but added that he had not given up hope the Dodgers would remain in Brooklyn.

The mayor explained at a city hall press conference that the city and the Manhattan borough president's office had offered all facilities to help the Giants find a new playing site but that Horace Stoneham, the club president, had not asked for assistance.

Wagner, a Giants fan, said, "I root for New York teams" when asked if he would continue to support the club in the west.

He said he was waiting for two financial reports prepared by engineers, one for the Brooklyn sports center authority and one for a special mayor's committee to study the economic feasibility of locating a new stadium in downtown Brooklyn.

Gem 1st for White Sox In Decade

Braves Tip Pirates; Cards Win Twin Bill

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Bob Keegan put pitched his first no-hitter in 20 years as the Chicago White Sox pitcher last night as the second place Sox here split a doubleheader with Washington and gained a half game on first place New York in the American League race.

White Keegan, a 36-year-old righthander, stopped the Senators 6-0, after the Sox had blown a 6-1 lead and lost the opener 3-4, Kansas City overcame Bob Turley's two-hitter and handed the Yankees their second shutout of the season, 1-0. Ex Yankee Ralph Terry won it with a six-hitter as New York's edge was trimmed to seven games.

In the National, Milwaukee Braves rallied in the ninth and beat Pittsburgh 3-1, but saw their lead trimmed to six games as second place St. Louis swept a two-night pair from the New York Giants 4-3 and 3-2. Third place Brooklyn, seven games back of the Braves, extended Cincinnati's losing streak to eight games with an 11-3 and 6-5 twi-night sweep. The second game went 12 innings before Duke Snider broke it up with his second home run of the night.

Chicago's Cubs, who had won six in a row, were beaten 2-1 in 11 innings at Philadelphia. But then took the second game 3-2.

In the other AL games, Detroit beat Baltimore 5-1 and Cleveland outlasted Boston 5-4.

Tim Thomson — hitless in 42 bats when his single brought the A's a 1-0 victory over Cleveland Monday—Singled for his second hit in 43 at bats to drive in the winner against the Yankees.

He Knew It

Need Luck For No-No

By JOE MOOSHIL

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)— "I knew I had a no-hitter going from the first inning on," said Bob Keegan tonight after hurling a 6-0 masterpiece over the Washington Senators in the second game of a twi-night doubleheader.

"You have to be lucky to get one of those things and I had my share," continued the 36-year-old righthander from Rochester, N. Y. "There were some good plays back there and I nearly goofed myself."

The good plays Keegan referred to were made by Larry Doby on a great running catch of Herb Plews' drive in left centerfield in the first inning and Nellie Fox' tremendous stop of Lou Berberet's ground shot in the eighth.

Keegan nearly goofed in the sixth when he walked pinch batter Faye Throneberry and then grabbed Eddie Yost's grounder and threw flatfooted to second to start a double play.

Keegan faced only 29 men and issued his first pass with two out in the fifth. He had an 0-2 count on Berberet and walked him.

Keegan said he used most his sinking fast ball and didn't throw a single curve. He said he threw some sliders and "five or six palm balls I struck out Becquer (Julio) with a palm ball."

Becquer was Keegan's only strikeout victim.
