Mideast 'Tinderbox' Blamed on America

By MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—Andrei Gromyko told the U. N. today the Soviet Union cannot remain an "impassive observer" while the United States and other Western powers try to turn the Middle East into a tinderbox.

The Soviet foreign minister outlined his country's position on the Middle East, disarmament and other East-West issues in a policy speech of 1½ hours to the 82-nation Assembly.

He denied charges leveled by U. S. Secretary of State Dulles yesterday that the Soviet Union was risking war by threatening Turkey and sending arms to Syria.

U.S. Challenged

Gromyko challenged the United States to raise the charges before the United Nations. He called on the U. N. to "condemn resolutely the dangerous policy" he said was being pursued by the Western powers.

He blamed the NATO powers for creating a tense situation in the Middle East that bears upon Soviet security.

"The Soviet Union cannot place itself in the position of an impassive observer while the Near and Middle East, an area close to the frontiers of the Soviet Union, is being turned into a permanent hotbed of military conflicts," he said.

'Not Inflammatory'

Despite Gromyko's blunt words on the Middle East some Western delegates said they did not regard the speech in its entirety as "inflammatory." The United States withheld comment.

But growing concern in the U.N. over the Middle East was reflected in a proposal put before the Assembly by Foreign Minister Frank Aiken of Ireland that a U.N. commission be named for "promotion of reconciliation and economic betterment" in that troubled area. He called on the big powers to "abate their diplomatic competition" in the Middle East and avoid risk of a world war.

Five Killed In Train-Car Collision

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 20 (AP)—A father and his three children were killed along with another man in the collision of a Canadian Pacific passenger train and a delivery truck today.

A fourth child was seriously hurt. A dog, the children's pet, was also killed.

The collision was at Maidstone, 20 miles east of here.

The five killed were Paul Drejko of Sandwich East, driver for a cleaning company; three of his children, and Petro Vozza of Windsor.

The children ranged in age from 1 to 5 years.

A surviving 3-year-old girl was taken to Metropolitan General Hospital in Windsor.

Police said Drejko was leaving his delivery job with the Superior Cleaners of Windsor and was showing the route to Vozza his apparent successor to the job. Drejko had brought his children along for the ride.

The two men were in the truck seat and the children were playing with the dog in the rear.

Residents of the area said the truck had stopped at the town line and then pulled in front of the train. The train was en route from Windsor to Toronto.

Holmes Tour Ends; Water Role Stressed

ROSEBURG, Sept. 20 (AP)—The governor's 16-city tour of Oregon, intended to find ways to promote industrial growth, ended here today with Gov. Holmes stressing the importance of water resources development.

He said extensive studies of water storage facilities "will play one of the major roles" in helping the new Department of Planning and Development form an industrial program.

Multiple water storage facilities in the Umpqua Basin "is the key to industrial development" in Douglas County, Ivan Bloch, industrial consultant for the department, said.

Charles V. Stanton, Roseburg editor, and other speakers said present freight rates impede Oregon shippers. They said that among things needed is competition to the Southern Pacific "rail monopoly" in southern Oregon.

Stanton urged development of highways to Coos Bay, Reedsport and Florence so that those ports could be developed for barge shipments, thus building up water transportation for timber and other products.

Early Woman Doctor Dies

PORTLAND, Sept. 20 (AP)—Funeral services will be held here tomorrow for Dr. Sarah Marquam Hill, 92, one of the first women physicians in the Pacific Northwest.

She died yesterday in a convalescent home.

Dr. Hill was an 1890 graduate of Willamette Medical College of Salem and married a college classmate, Dr. Charles E. Hill. After practicing in Whatcom, Wash., she became an assistant physician at Oregon State Hospital in Salem where she trained in psychiatry.

She was the daughter of Philip A. and Emma Marquam, Oregon pioneers who lived on what now is known as Marquam Hill in Portland.

Filbert Growers Plan Gathering

DUNDEE, Sept. 20 (AP)—Oregon filbert growers will meet here Monday night for a further discussion of prices for this year's crop.

Ben Forbes, Newberg grower, said 150 growers agreed at a meeting last week in Hillsboro to withhold their crops unless they get 20 cents a pound, orchard run. Growers have been offered 12 to 14 cents, he said.

Boy Found Dead In Tub Believed Shock Victim

HILT, Calif., Sept. 20 (AP)—William Lee Greene, 11, was found dead in the bath tub of his home here yesterday, the apparent victim of electric shock.

His mother, Mrs. Harvey M. Fry, said she returned home to find the boy dead. The radio was turned on.

Efforts to revive him at an Ashland, Ore., hospital failed.

Grain Futures Drift Lower

CHICAGO, Sept. 20 (AP)—Most grain futures drifted lower on the Board of Trade today but a late rally held losses to fractions.

Extreme early losses of more than a cent a bushel for wheat and soybeans, and a full cent on corn and rye, was credited to liquidation and scattered hedge selling.

Prices picked up near the end of the session on short covering and evening up of commitments for the weekend.

New style wheat closed ¼ to ⅝ lower, corn ½ to ¼ lower, oats unchanged to ¼ higher, rye unchanged to ⅛ lower, soybeans ⅛ to ½ lower, and lard 10 to 25 cents a hundred pounds lower.

The only export business reported during the trading session was Poland's purchase of 700,000 bushels of U. S. mixed wheat for October shipment.

*Classified ads will be run in both papers to give advertisers the advantages of the tremendous pulling power of 37,074 combined circulations.

When an ad is ordered three or six times and a Sunday issue is included (for example Friday Saturday Sunday) the lower Sunday rates apply because only The Statesman publishes Sundays.

Classified ads will start in the morning Oregon Statesman, conclude in the evening Capital Journal—but ads will be accepted for Sunday Statesman only.

The deadline for classified ads is 1:00 p.m. the day before publication except for Sunday when deadline is 5:30 p.m. Friday. Emergency ads and small line ads received after 1:00 p.m. weekdays and until 12 noon Saturday for Sunday may be placed in the "Too Late to Classify" column.

Ads for Monday papers must be in by 5 p.m. Saturday.

The Statesman Journal Newspapers reserve the right to reject questionable advertising; it further reserves the right to place all advertising under the proper classification.

The Statesman-Journal Newspapers assume no financial responsibility for errors which may appear in advertisements published in its columns and in cases where this paper is at fault will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical mistake occurs and is responsible for only one incorrect insertion.

A "Blind" Ad: an ad containing a Statesman-Journal Newspapers box number for an address is for the protection of the advertisers and must therefore be answered by letter. The Statesman Journal Newspapers are not at liberty to divulge information as to the identity of an advertiser using a "Blind" ad.

Ads in other columns which require investment in stocks, samples, equipment or cash bond should be thoroughly investigated before paying out any money. Advertisers requiring a cash investment for samples or merchandise sales aids etc. must so specify in their ads.

THIS NEWSPAPER STRIVES to protect its readers against fraud deception or injuries. Readers are cautioned to make NO PAYMENTS to get a position advertised in the help wanted columns. All help wanted ads MUST SPECIFY THE NATURE OF THE WORK. Sales help wanted ads must state if the pay is in the form of salary commissions, guarantee or include firm name. Bona fide offers of employment with pay belong in the Help Wanted columns.

Kindly report any exception to this rule to the classified advertising manager.
