Governor Defies Court

Shanghaied SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20—Lon Tuin, 18-year-old divinity student at Pasadena (Calif) Nazarene College is greeted by Rev. Ira P. Dumas, right, pastor of First Church of the Nazarene upon his arrival here last night. Tuin, from Brighton, Colo., said he was in a class when he received a note telling him to report to the coach's office. When he emerged from the classroom several sophomore students grabbed him, took him to dinner and put him aboard a plane for San Francisco. (AP)

Money Habit NEW YORK, Sept. 20—Eleven-year-old Maureen Lyons of the Bronx holds $970 in bills she found in trash can at school three months ago. The money was turned over to her by Police Property Clerk Thomas Rosetti, left, yesterday when it remained unclaimed. It was the third time Maureen had found money. (AP Wirephoto)
