Morningside to Entertain Guild

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Morningside Community Methodist Church will entertain members of the Wesleyan Service Guild as its guests when it meets in the church parlors, Thursday evening, Oct. 17 at 8 p.m. The worship service will be led by Mrs. George Rohde. Mrs. Foster Webster is program leader, with the topic, "Home Missions and Race."

A special guest will be Mrs. Roy Lockenour, who will review one of this year's study books, "Christ, The Church, and Race." Hostesses for the social hour, which will precede the meeting, will be Mesdames Charles Nielsen, George Rohde, and C. W. Stacey.

Sharon Meyerhofer Bride At Nuptial Mass Saturday

The Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Stayton was the setting for a beautiful mid-autumn wedding Saturday morning when Miss Sharon Meyerhofer, daughter of Mrs. Hubert Meyerhofer, became the bride of James Ralph Fritch, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fritch, all of Stayton. The 10 o'clock nuptial mass was performed by the Rev. Math. Jonas.

Vocalists were Wayne Meusey and Mrs. Dave York. Mrs. Bernard J. Minden was the organist. The altar was banked with Boston fern, green foliage and capucine colored gladioluses.

For her wedding the bride selected a gown of satin and lace fashioned with a bouffant skirt of satin embellished with lace insertion over tiers of pleated tulle, which terminated in a brush train. The Chantilly lace bodice was designed with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. Her fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a satin and pearl headpiece and she carried a cascade of cascading anthurium. Andrew Meyerhofer gave his sister in marriage.

Walk Before the Bride

Five attendants and two flower girls preceded the bride to the altar. The honor-maid and bridesmaids wore waltz towns of satin peau de soie in the new capucine shade designed with empire bodices and back detail. They wore matching picture hats of horsehair braid and tulle and carried cascades of green echeuerias, dracaena and ivy.

Mrs. Lola Ann Kline was the maid of honor, Miss Betty Fritch, sister of the groom, Miss Connie Kelly of Salem, Miss Janice Scharback, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Gerald Kintz, the bridesmaids. Patricia Fery and Lois Fritch, nieces of the groom, were flower girls and they wore gowns made similar to the attendants.

Lawrence Freres was best man for Mr. Fritch and seating the guests were Theodore Meyerhofer, Marvin Sandberg, Gerald Kintz and William Weddle.

Mrs. Meyerhofer selected a navy blue sheath gown with Dior blue accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

Reception Follows Rites

A buffet luncheon and reception for the newlyweds followed in the parish hall. Miss Agnes Welter, godmother of the bride, cut the cake. Pouring were Miss Ida Fritch and Miss Dorothy Doerfler. Assisting were the Misses Minnie Giesler, Marie Freres, Elizabeth Welter, Marie Kirsch and Helen Welter.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Canada the new Mrs. Fritch donned a toast brown sheath dress with matching tweed coat to which she pinned green orchids. The newlyweds will return to Stayton to make their home.

Presbyterian Women to Meet

Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church will meet in the church parlor Wednesday for a 12:15 luncheon. Members of the Leah Guild are in charge of arrangements.

Subject will be "Christ, the Church Race," which is also the theme of the National Missions of the Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Gerald Emerson, assistant pastor, will show the film strip, "It Happens Every Day," which will be followed by a discussion.
