Seen and Heard...

By JEROME ENGLISH

A LONG LINE... of friends and music lovers waited to greet lovely, blonde Lucile Cummings following her wonderful concert Tuesday night at the Willamette Fine Arts Auditorium. The reception held at the YWCA with the foyer jammed for over an hour.

A lovely compliment to the singer, when so many turned out to pay tribute to the artist, who began her early training in Salem.

...this was her first concert here in many years and she donated her time for the benefit of the YWCA Expansion fund.

Receiving... before the fireplace with the singer, was her handsome, brunette husband, Edward Bagley, who flew out from New York especially for the concert.

Miss Lena Belle Tartar, with whom Miss Cummings first studied voice.

Mrs. Carolyn Cocking, the YWCA executive secretary, and Prof. Ralph Dobbs, the accompanist for the artist.

An exquisite... ice blue satin and tulle gown was chosen by the singer for her concert.

...the full, tube skirt slightly entrain and the satin bodice with long sleeves encrusted with beading.

...and for the reception she donned a beautiful, white fox cape.

Gerry Frank presenting the singer with a bouquet of American Beauty roses at the close of her final group of numbers and such a lovely contrast with her blue gown.

...the singer especially lovely as she sat at the piano and played her own accompaniment for a group of songs.

The reception tables... centered with large bouquets of chrysanthemums and snapdragons in autumn tones.

...one table covered with a gold, satin cloth and the other of green satin.

Miss Cummings' two sisters-in-law pouring in brown and Mrs. Carroll Cummings of Walla Walla wearing a vivid blue print gown.

Much buzzing... conversation at the reception with former teachers and longtime friends of the singer chatting, as well as new people, who wished to meet the charming artist.

From out-of-town came Mrs. Bruce Spaulding of Portland, who joined Mrs. A. A. Schramm for the concert.

Mrs. Donald Spencer, also of Portland, coming down for the evening and accompanying her longtime friend, Miss Alice Cray Brown.

The Raymond Warners of Independence with Julia Query Inglis, who has been living in British Columbia, back in Salem for the winter.

Former school friends... of Miss Cummings busy assisting.

Mrs. P. H. Brydon wearing a beige, embroidered sheath gown.

her sister, Mrs. Robert Wulf, in black.

Mrs. William McAllister in a becoming pink knit and for the concert donning a lovely, pink stole.

and Elizabeth Ryan, who came down from Oswego for the occasion.

Bouquets... to two busy committee members, who were largely responsible for the success of the concert.

Mrs. William Bush, the general chairman, who wore black with taffeta accent.

and Mrs. Frank Shafer, also a former school friend of the singer, wearing a handsome black wool with velvet detail at the neckline.

and to Mrs. Tom Wolgamott, Mrs. William Crothers, Mrs. Donald Rasmussen, who were just a few of the many who worked for weeks on details for the concert.

Gerry Frank, who has headed the expansion drive for the YWCA, having a warm greeting for everyone as they entered the YW.

COFFEE TIME... on Tuesday when the Salem Women's Army, Navy and Air Force League entertained with their annual party honoring the new officers of the league and prospective members.

The lovely, colonial style home of the Harold G. Maisons in Candalaria the setting for the party.

on the front door was a wicker basket filled with yellow and orange marigolds.

At one of the mantel an unusual arrangement of Bells of Ireland and white daisies... other autumn bouquets about the rooms.

Greeting guests informally were Mrs. Wallace Wharton and Mrs. Ted Morrison, the outgoing and incoming presidents of the league respectively.

Mrs. Maison busy welcoming guests about the rooms.

The coffee table... covered with a handsome mocha brown and gold metallic hand woven cloth.

...the striking centerpiece were Mexican brass scales, which Col. and Mrs. Logan C. Berry purchased while they were stationed in Mexico City.

...the scales filled with yellow and peach colored begonias with miniature floating candles in the center.

The Berrys just home from a trip to San Francisco, where she found the candles.

From Portland... came Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. Walter C. Winston and Mrs. Walter Pittman Ramsey, president of the Portland League.

Their tea held the day before at the Ramsey residence with several from the Salem League attending.

Mrs. White and Mrs. Ramsey among those pouring.

...the latter an attractive blonde, who has appeared in numerous Portland Civic Theatre productions, wearing a beige princess style dress and a fetching snug fitting cloche of bronze and brown feathers, which completely covered her hair.

Among those calling... Mrs. Kenneth Dalton, who had a wonderful time in Hawaii this summer, donning a grey plaid wool with black sealskin hat and muff.

Mrs. Floyd Scott, wearing a striking red plaid suit with white fur hat, coming in with Mrs. Richard Pickell.

...the two soon to return to their secretarial duties when the legislature convenes in special session.

Others noted... Mrs. C. A. Schaefer smart in a beige knit and matching velvet beret.

Petite Mrs. Douglas Hay choosing a sable brown suit with velvet collar and cuffs.

Mrs. Victor Collins home from a summer in Seaside.

Two service wives, Mrs. Jack Napier and Mrs. Robert Gentzkow, living here while their husbands are overseas.

Mrs. Willis Ross chic in a sunset gold knot and chapeau.

Mrs. Glen Fravel donning a good-looking plaid suit with pleated skirt.

Mrs. William C. Dyer Jr., receiving comments on her blonde hair, which is so becoming.

Mrs. Maylon Scott coming in a little late as neighbors are already calling at her South Winter Street home.

they moved just a week ago and are thrilled with their new abode.

Mrs. Ted Morris stunning in a black wool sheath and stole of vivid orange and black stripe.

A BEAUTIFULLY... arranged supper party a week ago for which the Elmer Bergs were hosts at their North Summer Street residence.

...the occasion to welcome their new neighbors, the Harry Swansons, who are occupying the home formerly owned by Mrs. William H. Lytle.

The Swansons are a charming, young couple and recently moved here from Astoria.

she is teaching at Parrish Junior High and her spouse is executive assistant to Governor Robert Holmes.

The Holmes also calling during the evening as they will also soon be neighbors.

the governor's residence, the former McIlchrist home, will be remodeled and ready for occupancy after the first of the year.

Mrs. Berg wearing a black chiffon gown with golden amber drape cascading down the back.

and Mrs. Swanson choosing black crepe and taffeta.

The buffet table... covered with a handsome print cloth with gold predominating.

...the centerpiece of gold chrysanthemums and Bells of Ireland.
