Filmmakers Forced To Do Better Work

By EVE STARR
HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 29—STARR REPORT: For the past few years now the movie industry has been in a complete...
What TV has done, and thank Heaven for it, has been to eliminate the shoddy B pictures with which the movie industry used to flood the theaters.

Negroes Gird for Vote Drive

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 29—With a goal of two million new voters by 1960, Southern Negroes are getting ready for a sharply intensified registration campaign in 11 Dixie states.
The massive drive which would more than double the estimated number of Negroes now eligible to vote in the Deep South will start with a series of Lincoln Day rallies in 20 or more Southern cities Feb. 12. Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) is among the Negro leaders scheduled to speak.

Ike Attends Funeral for Elder Brother

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 29—President Eisenhower, black-garbed and solemn-faced, joined a limited group of friends and relatives today in funeral services for his eldest brother.
The chief executive flew from Washington, was forced by fog to bypass Municipal Airport here and landed at nearby Olathe, Kan. Immediately after the brief rites he returned to Olathe for the return flight to the Capital.

Presidential Disability Formula Claimed Ready

By EDMUND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29—A legislative formula for a vice-presidential disability statute was laid before a special House Judiciary subcommittee, which met in strict secrecy. It was understood to have been discussed by the drafters of the bill, which was introduced by Rep. Charles McNair (D-Ore.) last week.

Kids' Curtailing Tragedy With Rocket Craze

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tow Swift is back in thousands of backyards and garages kids of the space age are constructing rockets that arch out of sight into the sky or fizzle or burst with sometimes tragic results.
Adults worry about the Russian satellite and the military race to produce the best missiles. Teenagers, oblivious to politics and propaganda, blithely plunge into their own celebration of the geophysical year.

Girard Wife Want Privacy

By HARVEY BREUSCHER
OTTAWA, Ill., Jan. 29—In a five-room house at the end of a quiet street, William S. Girard and his Japanese bride have found the beginning of an ordinary life in America.
For the surroundings still are somewhat strange and a bit frightening. For the life is filled with problems—some of them unforeseen.
To most of Ottawa's 20,000 other citizens, however, Girard already has become just an ex-soldier who with a foreign wife moved into his brother's house on the north edge of town.

Salem Publisher Speaker at Annual Chamber Meeting

PORTLAND, Jan. 29—The annual conference of Oregon and Washington Chamber of Commerce managers and officers will be held here Feb. 24.
Scheduled speakers include Charles A. Sprague, publisher of the Salem Oregon Statesman; Robert F. Jackson, an executive of General Electric Co.; and Wyatt E. DeLoache of E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co.
This year's conference is being expanded to include chamber leaders from Idaho.

Air Station Released

MANILA, Jan. 29—The United States informed the government today it will turn over the air station at Manila harbor to the Philippines by July 31. The station is the last American military installation within the city of Manila.
