Elgin Baylor Boosts Northwest Point Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

No longer a race, the Pacific Northwest collegiate scoring scramble has become a one-man show starring Elgin Baylor of Seattle University. Agile Elg has boosted his average to 32.7 for 19 games, putting him more than 8 points per tilt ahead of his closest competitor and 2 points ahead of his own 1957 average. He was top man last year at 30.6.

Ranking second and moving up fast is Loren Anderson, Seattle Pacific's sharpshooting little guard. Loren has raised his average to 24.1 and moved into second place ahead of Charlie Curtis of Pacific Lutheran. The lanky Lute is averaging 23.8.

Four others were hitting at a 20-point clip or better when the books closed for the week Sunday. David Gardner of Northwest Nazarene checked in with 22.9, Washington's Doug Smart with 20.5, Idaho's Gary Simmons with 20.35 and Bill Hollingsworth of Southern Oregon with 20.3.

Baylor's total point production has reached 622, including the game against the Seattle Bakers — which is not considered in the national collegiate scoring tabulations.

Trip Thrills Hungarian

Rozsavolgyi is looking forward eagerly to meeting Ron Delany, Ireland's Olympic 1,500 - meter champion, and five other milers in the New York A.C. meet at New York's Madison Square Garden this Saturday.

He never has run on boards and realizes it will be a difficult transition. Nevertheless, he is anxious to get a crack at Delany, who has won 19 straight indoor mile races.

He said he expected some trouble from the smoke in the indoor arenas although he puffs a cigaret occasionally.

"I had the flu recently, too," he said, "but I'm all right now."

Istvan holds the world records for 1,000, 1,500, and 2,000 meters, and was a member of the 6,000 meters relay team that set the existing world mark of 15:14.8 in 1955. He joined the four-minute club with a 3:59 performance in Budapest, Aug. 26, 1956.

For a pencil-thin athlete—he stands 5-9 and weighs less than 130—Rozzy puts in plenty of mileage in training. He figures he runs 80 miles a week and his practice mileage amounted to 1,250 miles in 1953, 2,500 in 1954, 3,750 in 1955 and 1956 and about half that last year.

He is married and has a 4-year-old daughter, Aniko. His name used to be Reidl but he changed it because—strange as it may sound—Hungarians find Rozsavolgyi easier to pronounce. It's not too hard when you know how—Ro-shza-vel-gee.

Cats Await Linfield 5

ament at Forest Grove early in December.

In order to take command of the conference race, the village Bearcats must grab both weekend games. If this can be done, Willamette will possess a two-game lead over Linfield, and will have but four more games to play, three on the road at College of Idaho and Whitman and the other here with Pacific.

Should the foes split the pair, however, Linfield will still hold a margin over the Bearcats and will then be the distinct favorite to go in to the title.

Were the Linfields to sweep the two games, Willamette chances for the title would be wiped out.

close behind with 119 and 116, respectively.

Regan's 193 points and 14.8 average kept him in the Yawama League lead, but teammate Gary Schneider is only two points behind after gaining 13 points last week. Schneider's average is 14.7. Bob Light of Yamhill is also in the middle of the race with a 14.6 average. Light has 175 points in 12 games; both Regan and Schneider have played 13.

David Brock of Molalla held his Willamette Valley loop lead with 106 points in six games for a 17.7 average. Darrell Brandt of Central is second with 100.

Lundmark's 89 points in the Major division of the Marion B League are 15 higher than the 74 tallied by Phil Hochspeier of Jefferson. In the Minor division, Carver and Belin are trailed by Richard Koch of St. Paul, who has 182 markers.

Zone Credited For Duke Rise

Amazing Blue Devils Win Another

By HOWARD D. CRISWELL JR.

DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 12 (AP)—"About the time we changed from a man-to-man defense to a zone, we started winning."

With that, Duke coach Harold Bradley summed up the phenomenal rise of his basketball giant killers into one of the hottest teams in the nation.

With its 65-48 drubbing of North Carolina State last night, Duke extended its winning skein to eight straight, a string of victories that started Jan. 11 with a double overtime victory over that same State team.

The streak includes a 72-68 victory over West Virginia which knocked the Mountaineers from the ranks of the unbeaten; and a convincing 91-75 drubbing of last year's national championship team, North Carolina.

The 5-5 record Duke sported may not have been as bad as it seemed. The defeats included a 74-78 defeat by Kentucky; a double overtime loss to Pittsburgh and losses to South Carolina and North Carolina State in the final minutes.

Now 13-5 overall and leading the Atlantic Coast Conference at 8-2, Bradley credits the change in defense and a switch in personnel as the two chief reasons for the victory streak.

The lineup includes three guards. One, 6-2 Bucky Allen, was shifted to forward with Jim Newcome, 6-6, leaving 6-5 Paul Schmidt at center. The guards are 5-11 Bobby Joe Harris and Bob Vernon, a six-footer.

"We're small by present day standards but when we changed Allen to forward it gave us more scoring," Bradley explained. "Our shooting percentage has gone up. The boys are smart enough to see when the fast break won't go; then they drop back into a more deliberate style and wait for the real good shots.

Five Share Stax Lead

Idaho Is Highest Scoring Quintet

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 12 (Special)—Five schools shared top honors in the weekly Pacific Coast Conference basketball team statistics released today by the PCC commissioner's office.

Idaho leads in scoring, Oregon State in field goal percentage and rebounding, Stanford in free throws, California in total defense and Southern California in field goal defense for games played through February 8.

Idaho averaged 70.9 points a game total offense in its first nine PCC games, to 65.5 for UCLA and 65.1 for Southern California.

California's margin in total defense is even more impressive, the Bears having allowed but 48.3 points per game to 56.1 for Oregon State and 56.3 for Washington.

Oregon State has scored on 207 of 532 field goal attempts for 38.9 per cent and the floor shooting lead. Idaho is shooting 36.9 per cent and Southern California 36.4 per cent.

From the free throw line, Stanford has made 146 of 204 attempts for 71.6 per cent and the lead in that department. California is shooting 71 per cent and Oregon State 70.4 per cent.

In the rebounding department Oregon State has recovered 379 to its opponents 281 for 57.5 per cent and top honors. California has recovered 52.7 per cent and Idaho 51.8 per cent.

Southern California has an impressive field goal defense mark of 31.6 per cent, having permitted foes but 195 field goals in 617 shots. UCLA has allowed 32.5 per cent and Washington 33.1 per cent.

Markets—Business Reports

Heavy Sales Clip Grains

CHICAGO, Feb. 12 (AP)—General heavy selling set off by a government report clipped grain futures prices fairly deeply all along the line on the Board of Trade today.

More than half the contracts were driven down a cent a bushel or more and in soybeans all contracts were losers by 2 cents or more.

The government report was on the amounts of grain and soybeans placed under loan in its price support program from Dec. 15 to Jan. 15. It was viewed as decidedly bearish by most traders because it showed smaller stocks impounded in the program than had been expected, thus leaving large and burdensome supplies in free commercial positions.

Wheat closed 1 cent to 1⅞ cents a bushel lower, March $2.16 ⅛-¼, corn ¾-1⅝ lower, oats ½-1 lower, rye ½-1 lower, soybeans 2-2¼ lower, and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower.
