Buck Shaw New Eagle Grid Coach

Signs Pact for Extended Term

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14 (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles today named Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw to coach the club out of the National Football League cellar.

Club President Frank McNamee announced the appointment of Shaw, former Air Force Academy and San Francisco Forty-Niner coach, as head coach of the Eagles for "an extended term" at an estimated $20,000 a year.

Shaw, 60-year-old former Notre Dame star who also coached at Santa Clara, Nevada and North Carolina State, succeed Hugh Devore, fired last Jan. 13 after two unimpressvie seasons. Devore is being paid off on the third year of a three year pact.

Club officials refused to define "extended term" but it was learned the contract was for one year with a renewal option on both sides. Shaw reportedly requested the one year contract on the premise that if he produced a winning team they could talk long term later. If he failed to produce at the end of the year he could quit.

Shaw, who came to town from his Menlo Park, Calif., home last night and was introduced at a news conference today, said he did not quit the Air Force Academy to take the Eagles' job. He said the Academy needed and wanted more time than he could devote to the task. He resigned at the Academy Jan. 28, after posting a 9-8-2 record in two seasons.

"My arrangements with the Eagles are such that my coaching duties will not interfere with my business commitments in San Francisco. I will coach about 5½ months of the year, delegating to a top flight assistant much of the off season detail work."

The silver thatched football veteran, a teammate of Notre Dame's immortal George Gipp, said he had been given complete freedom to choose his own assistants, but, "I have no thoughts on that matter now. I would say it will take a month or more to decide."

Marr Tops Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 14 (AP) Young Dave Marr's bold but unsteady par 71 kept him six strokes ahead of a faltering field in the $15,000 Texas Open today.

A capricious wind did exasperating things, particularly on the greens, and there were few of the big names within striking distance of the confident little man from Cedarhurst, Long Island, as he posted 134 for 36 holes.

It was a far cry from yesterday when the handsome Texan shot a blazing 8-under-par 63 over soggy, 6,490-yard Brackenridge Park course with the frozen greens. Then he was six strokes ahead of four shotmakers. Today they had dwindled to three—Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.; Bill Johnston of Provo, Utah, and Walker Inman, Jr., who came from out of the pack with a 69 to pull into a tie for second place.

It was cut-off day, with the 60 low pros and ties and all nine of the amateurs in the tournament going into the final 36 holes.

The most notable casualty was Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., the defending champion. Hebert shot a 75 to take himself out. He had 149 for 36 holes.

Pung Pacing Golf Tourney

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 14 (AP)—Jackie Pung stretched her lead in the $7,500 St. Petersburg Women's Open golf tournament today to nine strokes.

Letting up a little from the brilliant play which gave her an 8 under par 66 yesterday, the chunky Hawaiian shot 70 today. That is one stroke under men's par and four under women's par for the 6,116-yard Sunset Club Course.

Her 136 ties the Ladies Professional Golf Assn. record for 36 holes and is a personal record for Mrs. Pung The record was set by Patty Berg at Richmond, Va., in 1952.

Betsy Rawls held second place with 145. She played fine golf and her 72 cut two strokes off women's par.

Bev Hanson came closest today to equaling Mrs. Pung, and her 71 brought her into a tie for third with Louise Suggs. Miss Hanson came back strong after taking a double bogey 6 on the second hole. Miss Suggs shot 73.

Salem Man Posts Ace

Salem Golf Club was the scene of another hole-in-one yesterday when Dr. William Burrell of Salem sank his tee shot on the 165-yard No. 3 hole.

Burrell, playing with Charlie Musser, Glen Wilbur and Joe Devers, used a No. 6 iron to turn the trick.

Mathews Inks Contract

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 14 (AP)—Eddie Mathews, one of the heroes of the Milwaukee's World Series victory over the New York Yankees, signed his 1958 Braves' contract today.

No salary terms were disclosed, but it is believed that the hard hitting third baseman signed for between $35,000 and $40,000.

Stock Market Scores Jump

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (AP) — The stock market rebounded today for its only rise in eight sessions, staging its best advance since Jan. 7.

An estimated $1,900,000,000 was added to the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the rise in the Associated Press average.

Volume was a sub-average 2,070,000 shares but still a definite improvement over yesterday's 1,880,000.

The market was long overdue for the rise, brokers said. They described it as primarily a technical snapback. There was good news and bad.

The AP 60-stock average advanced $1.50 to $161.00 with the industrials up $2.50, the rails up $1.50 and the utilities up 20 cents.
