

Home Rites Unite Couple

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Lora Berghammer, formerly of Salem and North Bend and now of Eugene, will be interested to learn of her marriage to Frank Wittstruck of Eugene on February 8. The ceremony took place in Salem at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Eastburn, on Ratcliff Drive.

The Rev. Harold Lyman of the Court Street Christian Church performed the rites. Mr. and Mrs. Eastburn attended the couple. Only members of the immediate family and a few intimate friends witnessed the exchange of vows.

The bride wore a blue two-piece ensemble and white hat trimmed in sequins and pearls. She pinned an orchid to her gown. A reception was held at the Eastburn home following the nuptials. Mrs. Vineta Drury of Eugene cut the cake and Mrs. Frank Batchelor of Grants Pass and Mrs. Eastburn poured.

Band To Present Concert Sunday

The Willamette University band will present its annual tour-and-concert Sunday at 8 p.m. in Willamette Fine Arts auditorium. The 33 musicians and their director, Maurice Brennen, returned from a week-long tour of northwestern and coastal Oregon last Friday.

The varied program will include both popular and classical music. Featured will be Antonine's "The Great City," a horn quartet, "The Four Horsemen" and several solo numbers with tenor Herb Brower. The program will also include selections from the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical "The King and I," Ossett's "Begonia for Band" and such marches as "Charter Oak" and "Idea of March."

There will be no admission charge for the concert. FOUR CORNERS—Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Naugles of Four Corners announce the birth of their first grand child, Kathy Kay, born February 18 at Seattle, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reinhard (Virginia Perkins). The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perkins and a great-grandmother is Mrs. Ida Peterson, all of Salem.

Rebekahs Hold District Meet

WILLAMINA — Primrose Rebekah lodge was host to the 51st annual convention of Rebekahs in District 15 on Saturday at the grade school. Mrs. Geraldine McNamar of Willamina was chairman of the convention.

A dinner was served at noon following the morning business and a program was given. The Penderton's, a musical group, gave several musical selections. Mrs. Grace Herzberg gave a humorous reading, a quartet of girls from the high school sang, and Gary Drill gave a vibraharp solo.

During the business session in the afternoon, the group voted to hold the 1959 convention in Carlton. The 1959 convention officers were seated and included: chairman, Luella Hembree of Carlton; vice chairman, Myrtle Eberhart of McMinnville; secretary, Nita Stoutenberg of Carlton; chaplain, Vernice Mitchell of Dayton; musician, Miriam Briggs of Carlton; warden, Hazel Walden of Sheridan; marshal, Gladys Turner of McMinnville; inside guardian, Lucille Evans of Lafayette; outside guardian, Eva Bony of Newberg; R. S. and L. S. chairman, Ava Wood of Carlton and Lena Whitteberg of Yamhill; R. S. and L. S. vice chairman, Gladys McLean of McMinnville and Esther Dumdi of Carlton.

Birth Day Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moore were hosts for a birthday dinner, the occasion marking Mrs. Moore's anniversary. Present were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cutsforth and family of Amity, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. LaMont Fry and Mrs. Moore's granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Campbell and son, Mark.

Open House On Sunday

More than a hundred persons attended the open house of the Woodburn Nursing Home in Woodburn Sunday afternoon. Highlight of the opening was the celebration of the 101st birthday of Mrs. Elizabeth Kulzer, long-time resident of that area. She presided at the buffet table which was decorated in red and white. Mrs. Marcell Looney, owner and operator of the home, gave Mrs. Kulzer a tiara of garnet rose buds, and provided her nurses with nosegay corsages of roses and carnations.

Mrs. Looney, who also owns the Lansing Nursing Home in Salem, entertained her nurses later in the evening at Randall's Chuck Wagon. She chose this occasion to announce her engagement to Elmer Lewis Kister of British Columbia. Mr. Kister is retired and the couple will honeymoon in Mexico City and Hawaii and will make their future home in British Columbia.

Oregon Epilion chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Bessie Forsythe. New members were initiated and the group voted to contribute to the heart fund. The program included colored slides of Europe.
