Bargains in Wheat Noted Across Board

CHICAGO (UP) — The longs and shorts in the market had a frantic few minutes in evening up operations shortly before the close of the Board of Trade Thursday.

It was the final day of trading in the March contracts.

There were some good bargains in wheat within the final few minutes when the March contract broke abruptly and lopped off as much as 3 cents a bushel.

Under Board of Trade rules, traders had to be prepared to either deliver the actual grain or accept delivery of it on any open March accounts after the close of the day's trading.

Otherwise, there was little to influence the futures market either way and all other deliveries closed mostly with small fractions either way.

The March wheat contract closed with an unusually broad range of 3½ cents, from ⅛ cent higher to 3 cents lower than the previous finish, at $2.24½-21. The other contracts were ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher.

Stock Market Mixed; Plus Signs Lead

NEW YORK (UP) — Selective strength in coppers, drugs and assorted issues highlighted a mixed stock market Thursday.

Plus signs were in the majority but the blue chip stocks which dominate the market averages didn't do so well with the result that the popular averages were down.

The secondary stocks did so well, however, that 11 of the 15 most active issues gained. Only three declined. Standard Oil (New Jersey) was unchanged.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped 20 cents to $162.80 with the rails down 60 cents and both industrials and utilities unchanged.

Volume was 2,200,000 shares compared with 2,410,000 Wednesday.
