Nixon Makes Strong Plea for Okeh Of President's Foreign Aid Program

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Nixon made a strong plea Thursday for approval by Congress of President Eisenhower's foreign aid program without which, he said, the 44-billion-dollar defense budget "will be wasted."

Speaking to Midwest newsmen who made him a member of the Chicago Press Club, Nixon said that administration requests for mutual security and economic assistance funds are vital to United States international strength.

"The money we spend in the mutual security field is really aid to ourselves. If the time comes when it doesn't meet that test, then I think we should reduce it."

Nixon said he has no fears that the nation will be severely affected by the current economic recession. The situation is being watched week by week by the administration, and the time has not yet come when a tax cut is necessary, he said.

Tax Cut Benefits

Any tax cut, he said, should benefit employers, as well as consumers and purchasers.

This, he said, would encourage business to provide more jobs, and would result in long-term benefits to the economy.

Nixon said that Russia has blocked any real progress toward effective summit talks on international issues. He said Premier Bulganin in his series of letters to President Eisenhower proposing talks has "fixed virtually the same conditions — discussion of items he knows the Allied powers cannot agree to."

"I'm not suggesting that we have all the right answers. And I'm not saying that everything the Russians have suggested is wrong," he said. "But we've been more flexible."

Shuns Political Talk

Nixon declined discussion of his political plans for 1960 when President Eisenhower's tenure expires.

But when told by a reporter that "people are saying" he has changed since 1954—midway in his first term as vice president, he commented: "If I hadn't changed since '54, '52 or '46, I'd say I was not only unusual, but incapable of being an effective public servant."

"I would say that, like Lyndon Johnson and Bill Knowland and others in Washington, I certainly have changed as more facts were made available to me. And I expect to change more in the future."

Nixon came to Chicago from Washington to deliver an address Wednesday night at the 1958 Nuclear Congress and Atom Fair.

Central Point Youth Tops FFA Speakers

BEND, Ore. (AP) — David Mack of Central Point won the public speaking contest, a highlight of the Oregon Future Farmers of America convention, which opened here Thursday.

His topic was "The Curse of Bigness."

Gordon Hall, McMinnville, was runner-up and Roger Smoenborn, Molalla, third.

Some 600 delegates from the state's 88 chapters are expected to register before the convention ends Saturday afternoon.

Mother, Son Snowbound; Await Rescue

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Charles Bell and her 16-year-old son, Alan, still are waiting on their hilltop farm for crews to break through seven-foot drifts that virtually have isolated them since Feb. 15.

Albany County highway officials say the snow now is so hard-packed that plows cannot cope with it. Men with shovels are trying to tunnel through but even that effort had to be abandoned Thursday because the men were needed on other jobs.

The nearest cleared road is a mile and a half from the farmhouse near Berne, in western Albany County.

The Bells' biggest problem is fuel. Mrs. Bell said Thursday. The roof of the barn collapsed under the weight of the snow and they have been burning that, along with coal and oil that Alan hauls by toboggan from the highway.

Mrs. Bell, 51, said she probably could get out on skiis or snowshoes. "But," she explained, "the drifts are too deep for the horse and there are three dogs, one very old one, and I couldn't leave them here to die."

Red Youths Drink

VIENNA (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Red youth newspaper Mlada Fronta reports cryptically that youths are trying to forget their sorrows by getting drunk. Campaigning against mounting alcoholism, it called for stiffer prison sentences for the sale of hard liquor to teen-agers.

Dean Blasts 'Blacklists' in Some Colleges

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Louis M. Hacker, dean of Columbia University's School of General Studies, said Thursday night a "virtual blacklist as mean and cruel as any Inquisition" exists in some American universities.

"Administrators of universities have not had the courage to restore to academic life men who have been discharged from teaching posts simply because they refused to answer questions about their private lives by legislative committees," he said.

Dr. Hacker has resigned as dean of the School of General Studies, effective July 1, as a result of proposals by a faculty committee to change the character of the school.

He said he knew "at least a dozen" teachers unable to get jobs because they had refused to testify before legislative committees. He added, however, that he knew of no such situation at Columbia.

Dr. Hacker spoke at a dinner in his honor given by the faculty chapter of the American Jewish Congress.

Ex-Commie Editor Backed For SMU Visit

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The president of Southern Methodist University Thursday supported a student group which invited former Communist newspaper editor John Gates to a panel discussion of communism.

Dr. Willis M. Tate said Gates will not be allowed to make a formal address to the student body but will be asked to face a panel of what Tate called "authorities on the Communist conspiracy."

Gates, last editor of the defunct Daily Worker was invited by the SMU Student Forum Committee to appear on the campus April 23.

Tate said he was standing behind the group because "to do so is to encourage them to be prepared to recognize and combat the Communist conspiracy."

Tate had received two resolutions from Dallas civic groups asking that Gates' talk be canceled.

Classified ads will be run in both papers to give advertisers the advantages of the tremendous pulling power of 37,074 combined circulations.

When an ad is ordered three or six times and a Sunday issue is included (for example Friday, Saturday, Sunday) the lower Sunday rates apply because only The Statesman publishes Sundays.

Classified ads will start in the morning Oregon Statesman, conclude in the evening Capital Journal—but ads will be accepted for Sunday Statesman only.

The deadline for classified ads is 1:00 p.m. the day before publication except for Sunday when deadline is 5:30 p.m. Friday. Emergency ads and small line ads received after 1:00 p.m. weekdays and until 12 noon Saturday for Sunday may be placed in the Too Late to Classify column.

Ads for Monday papers must be in by 5 p.m. Saturday.

The Statesman - Journal Newspapers reserve the right to reject questionable advertising; it further reserves the right to place all advertising under the proper classification.

The Statesman - Journal Newspapers assume no financial responsibility for errors which may appear in advertisements published in its columns and in cases where this paper is at fault will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical mistake occurs and is responsible for only one incorrect insertion.

A "Blind" Ad—an ad containing a Statesman-Journal Newspapers box number for an address—is for the protection of the advertisers and must therefore be answered by letter. The Statesman-Journal Newspapers are not at liberty to divulge information as to the identity of an advertiser using a "Blind" ad.

Ads in other columns which require investment in stocks, samples, equipment or cash bond should be thoroughly investigated before paying out any money. Advertisers requiring a cash investment for samples or merchandise sales aids etc. must so specify in their ads.

THIS NEWSPAPER STRIVES to protect its readers against fraud, deception, or injuries. Readers are cautioned to make NO PAYMENTS to get a position advertised in the help wanted columns. All help wanted ads MUST SPECIFY THE NATURE OF THE WORK. Sales help wanted ads must state if the pay is in the form of salary, commissions, guarantee, or include firm name. Bona fide offers of employment with pay belong to the "Help Wanted" columns. Kindly report any exception to this rule to the classified advertising manager.
