The YWCA will be festive with blossoms for the annual Cherry Blossom Day ice cream social to be held this afternoon. The Y-Wives are sponsoring the affair in conjunction with the Salem Cherrians as a feature of the traditional Blossom Day celebration. Y-Wives pictures above are Mrs. David O. McRae, Mrs. Robert L. Williams, co-chairmen of the social, and Mrs. Quentin Bowman, a member of the hostess committee. The public is invited to attend the social between 2 and 5 o'clock. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

A bride of Saturday afternoon was Mrs. Kenneth Rodger Hart, the former Nancy Sue Payne, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Payne. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hart of Moro. The ceremony took place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church with a reception following. The couple will live in Eugene while completing their studies at the University of Oregon. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

King Cotton candidates from North Salem and South Salem High Schools were honor guests at the annual Y-Teen Cotton Ball Saturday night at the YWCA. The ten young men were selected by the various Senior Y-Teen clubs at both schools and each candidate was escorted and introduced by the president of the club he represented. Several hundred of the high school contingent attended the gala affair, one of the social highlights of the year for the Y-Teens.
