

Miss Nancy Payne Weds Kenneth Hart Saturday At Church Ceremony

By JEROME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

Memorable for its beauty was the spring wedding on Saturday afternoon when Miss Nancy Sue Payne, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Payne, became the bride of Kenneth Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hart of Moro. A large assemblage of relatives and friends, many coming from out-of-town, filled St. Paul's Episcopal Church, for the 4 o'clock nuptials. The Rev. George H. Swift officiated and Mrs. Peter Gunter was the vocalist. Miss Ruth Bedford played the wedding music.

Pink with American Beauty and white accent was the color scheme for the wedding. The altar was banked with bouquets of white stock, pink snapdragons and Better Times carnations with clusters of the pink flowers marking the alternate pews. The acolytes were Arthur Erickson and Larry McCarg. Lighting the tapers were Miss Kaye Tomlinson and Miss Jo Ann Hoover, who wore hyacinth blue sheaths of taffeta with overskirts of powder blue chiffon and back panels of chiffon caught at the waist with pink flowers. They wore petal pink gloves.

Walk Before the Bride

Preceding the bride to the altar were Miss Susie Kinser of Portland, the honor maid, Misses Connie Hammond, Sandra Jo-chimsen, Karen Moke and Anne Mautz, the latter two of Portland, as bridesmaids. The honor attendant wore a mist pink chiffon organza gown over American Beauty taffeta adorned with a butterfly bow in back centered with American Beauty roses. The bridesmaids wore mist pink organza over petal pink taffeta with pink roses in back. They all wore matching mitts and hats enhanced with a net pompon. They carried white wicker parasols from which cascaded Better Times roses pale pink sweet peas and white lilies.

Debbie Johnston was the flower girl and her dress was made identical to the bridesmaids. Mark Atwood was the ring bearer. The pretty, brunette bride was a picture in her white chiffon taffeta gown as she walked down the center aisle on the arm of her father. The gown was designed with a Sabrina neckline enhanced with applique of Alencon lace sprinkled with opalescent sequins and pearls. The lace applique was repeated in a cascade down the back of the full skirt which ended in a brush train. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a jeweled coronet of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of pink Elfe roses, Eucharist lilies and stephanotis.

Bride's Brother Is Best Man

Larry Payne, brother of the bride, stood with Mr. Hart as best man. Seating the guests were Stanley Wall of Gervais, Michael McClain of Prosser, Wash., Dennis Bowling of Lewiston, Idaho, Richard Baxter, Larry Collins and James Stafford of Portland.

Mrs. Payne selected an American Beauty and petal pink silk chiffon sheath gown for her daughter's nuptials and Mrs. Hart chose a hyacinth blue chiffon gown for her son's marriage. Their corsages were pink cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the parish hall. Cutting the cake were Mesdames Arthur Erickson, R. Franklin Hart of Portland, aunt of the groom, Stephen Tabacchi, William Hammond of Olympia, Wash., Robert White and Reynolds Allen. Pouring were Mesdames Ralph Atwood, Dale Patton of Portland, T. Harold Tomlinson and Herman Joichimsen. Presiding at the punch table were Mrs. Kenneth McKean, Mrs. Lester Lee of Eugene, Miss Anne Helzel and Miss Nancy Owens.

Large Group Assists at Reception

Assisting were Mrs. Ward Davis, the Misses Linda Davis, Sally Merrill, Pat Bladine, Sue Devoe, Jean Lidbeck, Gladys Maude, Kathy Moore, Patricia Myre, Patricia Sexton, Betty Burnside, Sara Donaldson, Sue Helfrecht, Lorey Hoyt, Sandy Hubbard, Linda Lee Peterson, Myra Robertson, Judy Atwood, Jody Bourne, Sue Merrill, Gloria Andrews, Glenda McCormick, Judy Loucks, Phoebe Lou Braun, and Mrs. Phil Bell. Susan Dorn, Katrina Johnson and Stephanie Merrill passed out pink rice bags.

For going away the new Mrs. Hart donned a pink linen chemise piped in red, a white handkerchief which she had made, a white hat and red patent shoes and purse. The couple will live in Eugene while completing their studies at the University of Oregon.
