Carol Hoffine Married to Donald Callahan Saturday

Exchanging their vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony Saturday night at the Calvary Baptist Church were Miss Carol Rae Hoffine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Hoffine, and Donald Albert Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon M. Callahan of Molalla. The Rev. Berkeley Ormond performed the rites.

Miss Sedonia Burton and William Monroe sang and Glade Follis was the organist. Miss Jackie Fisher lighted the candles.

Of nylon lace and tulle was the bridal gown, fashioned with a mandarin collar and a bouffant skirt tiered with alternate ruffles of lace and tulle. Her elbow length veil was caught to a half hat encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom's father, which was topped with pink roses and a white orchid.

Miss Janice Shrake, the honor maid, wore a Nile green taffeta and white lace sheath dress with white chiffon cummerbund and a sash. She wore a matching crystal-lette hat finished with a large bow and pink gloves. She carried pink roses and white chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Miss Velda Haskell, Miss Beverly Mocabee and Miss Arlene Heppner, who wore mint green taffeta and white lace sheath dresses with white chiffon cummerbunds. They wore matching hats and pink gloves and carried pink chrysanthemums. Paula Jean Gilmer and Susan Turnbull, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Twin Brother is Best Man
Donald Callahan served as best man for his twin brother. Ushers were Al Payne, Arnold Maxwell and Ronald Martinson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hoffine chose a mink brown lace gown with white hat and pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Callahan wore a navy blue crepe dress with white hat and corsage of pink carnations. A reception followed in the fireplace room. Pouring were Mrs. Gary Lewis and Mrs. E. J. Payne. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Beverly Gilmer and Mrs. J. S. Turnbull. Assisting were the Misses Dolores Dallas, Fairbelle Watter, LeAnn Gilmer and Christine Ware.

For her wedding trip to Reno and Las Vegas the new Mrs. Callahan donned an ice blue sheath dress with white duster and blue and white accessories. After May 15 the couple will be at home at 1310 Madison St.
