

Flag-Draped Yank Becomes Symbol of Europe War Dead

EPINAL, France (AP)—His name forever lost in the mists of war, an American in a flag-draped casket Monday became the symbol of all Yanks killed in action in Europe and Africa in World War II. A red and white wreath was placed before the casket by Maj. Gen. Edward O'Neill of St. Albans, Vt., to signify the selection from a silent squad of 13 dead Americans in a last formation at the American cemetery here.
