Couple Wed At Afternoon Ceremony

Exchanging their vows at a 2 o'clock ceremony on Saturday afternoon were Miss Eleanor Victoria Patten and Frank W. Taylor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Mortenson and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Foley.

The ceremony took place at the First Christian Church with Rev. Wayne Green officiating. Peter Larson sang and Mrs. J. M. Crockett was the organist. Bouquets of pink and white gladioluses and stock decorated the church sanctuary. Elmer and Clifford Mortenson, the bride's brothers, lighted the candles.

For her wedding the bride selected a white lace sheath gown over lavender taffeta with cummerbund finished with wide panels extending to the hemline in back. Her short veil was caught to a wreath of lily-of-the-valley. She carried a cascade of pink elfe roses and stephanotis.

Miss Christine Mortenson was her sister's only attendant and she wore a dress similar to the bride's and carried a round bouquet of lavender and pink roses and carnations. Karen Mortenson was her sister's flower girl and Cortland Newhart was the ring bearer.

Attended the Groom

James Farmer served as best man for Mr. Taylor and ushers were David Vaughn and Richard Haugen.

Mrs. Mortenson wore a navy blue silk chemise with white accessories and corsage of pink roses and white stephanotis for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Foley chose a blue silk dress with white accessories and corsage of pink roses and stephanotis.

A reception followed in the church parlor. Miss Ruth Petersen and Miss Shirley Schultz poured and Mrs. Charles Boughner cut the cake.

After a wedding trip along the Oregon Coast the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 150 College Drive.

Pettycoat Pollys At Milne Home

"Republican Talking Points" will be the topic given by Lee Ohmart, guest speaker. The group during the business session will discuss the first annual flag sale to be on June 13 just before flag day. The typing of the county precinct lists will also be discussed.

Sandra Prosser Is Bride of Mr. Davidson at St. Mary's

MT. ANGEL—All-white with a lavender accent was the color scheme for the wedding of Miss Sandra Prosser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Bigler of Mt. Angel, and D. Robert Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson of Brooks, in St. Mary's Catholic Church Saturday morning.

Rev. Edward Spear officiated at the 10 o'clock nuptial high mass and altar servers were Dale Travis, a cousin of the bride, and Tommy Kirsch, Johnny Hofer and Robert Hammelman. Miss Helen Keber played the organ. St. Mary's choir sang the mass and the soloist was Mrs. Charles Nelke, Salem, a cousin of the bride.

The bride's wedding dress was full length, fashioned of chiffon taffeta, the full skirt falling in a brush train, and the Sabrina neckline enhanced with Alencon lace and white sequin trim. The fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of pearls and iridescent sequins and she carried a semicascade of stephanotis and net centered with a large white orchid with lavender throat. For sentiment, the bride wore an old penny in her shoe that had belonged to her father, William Prosser, when he was a little boy.

Precede the Bride

The four attendants were all gowned alike in white taffeta with lace bodice, and a taffeta cummerbund finished with a bow at the high waistline in the back. All wore headdresses fashioned of nylon straw with pearl trim and small veils. They carried semicascade bouquets of white and lavender chrysanthemums centered with two cymbidium orchids, that of the honor attendant's shading to a deep orchid.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry (Marlene) Schaecher, Salem, and the bridesmaids were Miss Irma Kaiser and Miss Maurita Jaeger, Mt. Angel, and Miss Katherine Nonnebaum, Woodburn.

Harry Schaecher, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man and groomsmen were Ronald Schmidt, Norbert Schmitz and Charles Hofer, all Mt. Angel.

Mrs. Bigler chose a powder blue sheath dress with matching jacket, white accessories and a corsage of double pink cymbidium orchids for her daughter's nuptials. The groom's mother wore a sheer semi-sheer dress of sky blue and black print, also with matching jacket, white accessories and pink cymbidium corsage.

Luncheon and Reception

The luncheon and reception were held immediately after the church service in St. Mary's dining hall. Mrs. Albert A. Ebner served as hostess.

Cutting the cake were Miss Marie Travis, Mt. Angel, Mrs. H. E. Meichler, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Dave Travis, Mt. Angel, all aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Gilbert Prime, Monmouth, and Miss Gertrude McTavish, Eugene, aunts of the groom. Pouring were Mrs. Ben Travis, Mt. Angel and Mrs. E. A. East, Portland, the bride's aunts, while Miss Sharon Travis, Portland, a cousin, and Miss Patricia Huffstutter, Mt. Angel served the punch. Assisting were the Misses Suzanne Hofer, Toni Williams, Laurann Klotz, Mariann Klotz, Diane Wilde, Dorothy Beyer, Mrs. Ronald Schmidt, Mrs. James Prosser, and Miss Joann Stupfel.

For the wedding trip to Canada, the bride donned a pink suit of summer wool, with pink fur collar and white accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home in Salem.
