GUEST OF HONOR ... at a beautifully arranged party a week ago was Miss Sarah Van Fleet of Portland, bride-elect of Thomas B. Brand. Mrs. James T. Brand, hostess for the informal coffee, took the occasion to introduce her future daughter-in-law to her many friends coming from all parts of the state, including a large contingent from Coos Bay, former home of the Brands, Eugene, Portland and valley cities. Sally, as she is known by her friends, and Tom will be married on July 12 at the First Congregational Church in Portland.

For the party ... Sally wore a white and red polka dot sheer dress, her mother, Mrs. Byron Lester Van Fleet, receiving with the honor guest and hostess, choosing a blue afternoon dress ... and Mrs. Brand wearing a becoming lilac linen, a lovely compliment to the handsome pendant, which she had purchased in Germany.

Lovely bouquets ... of garden flowers arranged about the rooms on the piano a beautiful bouquet of roses ... pink peonies by the picture window in the living room ... red roses and calla lilies in the sunroom, where everyone gathered and chatted while enjoying their coffee ... The coffee table in the dining room centered with a large, garden arrangement of calla lilies, delphinium, snapdragons, peonies, daisies and at one side a party fan ...

Coos Bay friends ... driving up especially for the party and many reminiscing with their Salem friends ... Spotted Mrs. L. A. Cutlip, a former state legislator, Mesdames J. W. McInturff, Horace Byler, Clarence Brown, John Ferguson, Harry Gillesohn, Lewis McGeorge, George C. Huggins and A. Y. Meyers ... Another group from Eugene included Miss Esther Hettinger, smart in a black and white silk print ... Miss Mary Mattley, Mrs. Edward Stelle and Mrs. A. B. Peacock ... Miss Julia Johnson, who now resides in Eugene and a friend of the bride-elect while on the Lewis and Clark staff, joining her mother, Mrs. Leona Johnson, for the party ...

It was a busy day ... for Miss Antoinette Kirmannich on Saturday as she went directly from the party to the Willamette campus for the Alpha Phi installation ... she will be advisor for the new chapter next year ... and back to Portland State that evening for a dance ... she looked radiant in a pretty white, lilac and hyacinth blue print with blue bow in back ... her mother, Mrs. Vincent Kuzmanich, chic in a black and white suit with white chapeau ... Mrs. Walter Toose, who was visiting here from San Mateo, enjoying seeing her Salem friends again ... Mrs. Delwyn Kien soon to give up her teaching career as she will be moving to Portland this summer, where her husband has been transferred ... Nancie Owens over from Oregon State and receiving congratulations on being selected for Mortar Board ... Miss Elizabeth Lord looking forward to a summer's visit from her brother, Montague Lord, who lives in the Philippines, and the Melvin Lords of Washington, D.C. ... they are expected later in the month ...

informal party on Tuesday at Meier and Frank's Oregon Room ... the hostess invited her neighbors and a group of her sister's friends to stop by and say hello ... Adele and Eleanor both wearing chemise dresses in pretty prints ... their mother, Mrs. I. L. Golby, down from Portland and presiding at the tea urn ... Adele's attractive young daughters, Kathy and Nancy, passing cookies and wearing adorable red sister dresses and little wristlets of white carnations ... they were assisted by Eleanor's niece, Diane Gassner ...

The invitations ... carried a clever verse inviting guests to come and greet the visitor from the sunshine state ... the idea further carried out in the decor ... the table centerpiece an unusual arrangement of Ti leaves, yellow chrysanthemums and a large gold sunflower in back ... and flanked by dark green candles ... even the fan shaped napkins a pale yellow and printed in green the words, "welcome Adele" ...

Among those calling ... Mrs. William R. Shinn chic in a white flowered wig ... Mrs. Floyd Scott in grey with a white chapeau ... A grey cape dress for Mrs. Donald Richardson ... Mrs. William C. Crothers looking forward to the coming school year with the arrival of an Italian boy, who will live with their family and go to North Salem High under the American Field Service program ... Nell had just received a letter from the lad that morning and his handsome picture ...

Travel talk ... Mrs. George H. Swift chatting with Mrs. Frederick Lampert about her trip to Denver and Wyoming ... she and Rev. Swift leave Monday to attend the wedding of their son, Dr. George Swift Jr., and Adele Adams on June 7 ... Also headed for Wyoming Monday will be Mrs. Joseph Felton, who is flying to Denver, where she will be met by her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James McAllister ... from there they will drive to Cheyenne, where Virginia will visit for ten days ...

Neighbors spotted ... Mrs. Merle Brown, Mrs. Gilbert Groff and Mrs. Wilmer Smith ... Mrs. Ethel Lau, Mrs. James Arrnpriest and Mrs. Harold Levers ... the latter smart in a grey ensemble wide brimmed chapeau ... After school came two teachers, Mrs. Andrew Halvorson and Mrs. Lauren Gale ... the latter to teach at Parrish next year ... Mrs. Russell E. Pratt, a symphony in blue with becoming picture hat ...

The entertainment will consist of musical numbers by "The Three Teens," girls trio from North Salem high school, who recently won national honors and a trip to New York for competition. Following the meeting a social hour will be held and refreshments served with Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wintermute as co-chairmen. The Hawaiian theme will be carried out in decorations and the addendum.

Grand Officers to Visit

Mrs. Willis E. Mack of Astoria, grand royal matron, and Hugh H. Templeton, Milwaukie, grand royal patron, of the Grand Court, Order of the Amaranth, will make their official visit to Hanna Rosa Court Monday night at the Masonic temple.

Two Grand Officers to Visit Court

Mrs. Willis E. Mack of Astoria, grand royal matron, and Hugh H. Templeton of Milwaukie, grand royal patron, of the Grand Court, Order of the Amaranth, state of Oregon, will begin their official visits to the courts in Oregon on Monday evening, June 2 by visiting Hanna Rosa Court, Salem, at eight o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

These members of Hanna Rosa Court hold grand court offices and committee appointments: Paul Gilmer, grand assistant lecturer; Mrs. Paul Gilmer, grand representative to England; Mrs. James Manning, subordinate court rules and regulations committee; Harvey Aston, budget; and James Manning, promotion of new courts.

Purpose of the visit is to inspect the ritualistic work. The officers of Hanna Rosa court will be in charge with Mrs. Dillard W. Burroughs, royal matron, and P. Wendell Willmarth, royal patron, presiding.

As a special feature an addendum will be conferred in honor of Mrs. Mack and Mr. Templeton, and they will receive honorary memberships into Hanna Rosa court. Friendship night will also be observed and the fathers will be special guests.

The entertainment will consist of musical numbers by "The Three Teens," girls trio from North Salem high school, who recently won national honors and a trip to New York for competition.
