Willamette Duo Married, Will Live in Cambridge

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bruce MacKillop entrained Thursday for Cambridge, Mass. to make their home while Mr. MacKillop is attending Episcopal Theological Seminary. The couple's marriage took place Monday, June 9 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church with the Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, Bishop of the Oregon Diocese, officiating at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, the former Dorothy Erica Hudson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Louis Hudson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacKillop of Medford, Mass., who came west for the nuptials and to attend their son's graduation from Willamette University the day before.

Dr. Paul Trueblood sang and Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist.

The bride wore a floor length, bouffant gown with lace bodice fashioned with scalloped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The taffeta skirt was made with a pleated cummerbund finished in back with a bustle from which two panels extended to the hemline. A small, pearl crown held in place her chapel length veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

The feminine attendants

Mrs. Nevitt B. Smith of Portland was the honor matron, Miss Loretta Horsley and Miss Karen Michelson the bridesmaids. They wore pastel turquoise crystalline floor length dresses with pleated insets down the center of the skirt in front. They wore matching bow-tie hats of crystalline with short veils and carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Rev. Nevitt B. Smith of Portland served as best man for Mr. MacKillop and seating the guests were Daniel Newberry and Jerry Arnold of Rickreall.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue silk sheath gown with draped front and pink, sequin pillow hat with pink accessories. She pinned an orchid to her gown. Mrs. MacKillop selected a mauve silk gown enhanced with applied design, matching hat and accessories and an orchid corsage.

Reception at Marion Hotel

A reception was held in the Coral Room of the Marion Hotel following the nuptials. Miss Loretta Horsley cut the bride's cake and Miss Karen Michelson passed the guest book.

For going away the new Mrs. MacKillop wore a beige summer suit with pleated skirt and white accessories. The couple spent a few days at the Surfides at Oceanlake before leaving for the East. Other members of the bridegroom's family coming north for
