

Linda Briggs Married to Mr. Massey

PERRYDALE—Of interest to residents of the Perrydale area was the marriage of Miss Linda Lee Briggs, Carlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Briggs, to Donald James Massey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Massey of Route 1, Amity. The double ring ceremony was held on June 6 at 8 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Carlton with Rev. Joseph Matthews officiating.

Mrs. J. C. McCombes played the wedding music and David French sang.

The bride wore a white embossed taffeta gown of waist length with unpressed pleats, a scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her veil was shoulder length and held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a yellow-throated white orchid with white stephanotis on a white ribbon.

The maid of honor was Miss Barbara Fast of McMinnville. She wore a yellow embossed taffeta gown made on the same lines as the bride's with a crown of the same material and carried a yellow daisy nosegay. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lloyd Brous of Carlton and Miss Jean Wiser of McMinnville. They wore aqua gowns and carried white daisy nosegays. Lighting the tapers were Kathy and Larry Briggs, sister and brother of the bride.

John McIntosh of Perrydale served as best man and ushers were Boyd Massey, Sweet Home, brother of the groom, and Jack Brooks, McMinnville.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece blue suit of silk with white accessories and a salmon rosebud corsage. The groom's mother wore a gunmetal gray silk print dress with pink and white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

Reception Follows

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Carlton grade school auditorium. Mrs. Joe Larson, Dallas, aunt of the groom, received the gifts and Miss Diane Briggs, Salem, cousin of the bride, assisted. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Chester John of Gold Beach, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Boyd Massey, Sweet Home, sister-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Reland Briggs, Carlton, aunt of the bride, was at the coffee urn and Mrs. Kenneth Massey, aunt of the groom, served punch.

For going away, the bride wore a navy lines suit with white accessories. They spent a short honeymoon at the coast and are now at home at 739 E. 13th in McMinnville.

The bride attended Carlton grade school and graduated from McMinnville High School in 1957. The groom attended school in Perrydale and was a graduate of 1953. He spent two years in the service in the Army engineers. He is now employed by the Shell Oil Company in McMinnville.

Club Approves of Slab for Park

AMITY—Plans for the establishment of a cement slab in the Amity City Park were completed, when the Women's Civic Improvement Club convened in final session at the Amity City Park this week. Hostesses for the covered dish luncheon were Mrs. P. E. Meeker, Mrs. Jennie Meeker and Miss Laura Judy.

Club members approved the transfer of a special fund to the Park Improvement fund, for construction of the cement slab. The amount, in excess of $800, was raised by various civic and fraternal organizations, and held in trust by the Civic Improvement Club, and will be transferred with consent of the other organizations.

Garden Rites Unite Couple In Marriage

At a garden ceremony on June 7 Miss Jo Ann Ernestine Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Evans, became the bride of Eugene Everett Middaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Middaugh of Portland. The garden at the Evans home on D street was the setting for the 7 o'clock nuptials with the couple exchanging their vows before an archway of mock orange blossoms, roses and white wedding bells.

Rev. Harold Grindal performed the service. Mrs. Grindal sang and Miss Grindal was the organist.

The bride's gown was of embroidered nylon with scalloped neckline and ballerina skirt. A tiara of sequins and pearls held in place her nylon illusion veil. She carried a white Bible marked with pink roses. For something old she wore her mother's baby locket, which was also worn by the bride's three sisters.

Three Sisters Attend Bride

Mrs. Charles Shaffer was her sister's honor attendant and she wore a pink taffeta ballerina gown and carried a nosegay of pink roses and mock orange blossoms. The bridesmaids, Mrs. D. C. Robinson and Mrs. Wayne Youman, also sisters of the bride, wore mint green taffeta ballerina frocks and carried nosegays of roses and orange blossoms. Kathy Shaffer, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Gary Middaugh was best man for his brother and ushers were Charles Evans, Perry Evans, brothers of the bride, Ned Abrams and Peter Bebek.

Reception Follows

A reception followed in the garden with Mrs. Charles Evans and Mrs. Otis Bradbury pouring. Mrs. Miller Peer cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Peter Bebek, sister of the groom, Mrs. John Lynch and Miss Charlene Shaffer.

For going away the new Mrs. Middaugh wore a beige lace gown over taffeta and white accessories. The couple will make their home at Marion Forks.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. E. S. Goddard, and his aunt, Mrs. Emil Lassig of Goodwin, S.D.
