Best Speller Crowned

Winner WASHINGTON—Jolitta Schlehuber of Topeka, Kans., hides her grin behind a tightly clasped purse as she is announced as 1958 National Spelling Bee Champion Thursday. Holding up her hand in true prize fight style is Benson Allemen, pronouncer. At left is Terry Madeira of Elizabethtown, Pa., who missed out on the word "propylaeum." She took second place. (AP)

Double Joy GLENDALE, Calif.—It's a happy moment as Donald Rose Jr., 5, and his parents look at the wedding license the parents used when they remarried Thursday night. Boy's injury to eye when struck by glass reunited the couple. Sight in the eye was saved. (AP)

Victims BEVERLY HILLS—Samuel Hayden, 74, millionaire real estate developer, and his wife, Mrs. Ann Hayden, 53, are pictured in their mansion early Thursday when two men robbed them of an estimated $100,000 in jewels, furs and cash. Mrs. Hayden holds a telephone cord which the robbers severed before they fled. About $90,000 of the loot was in jewelry. (AP)
