Summer Social Calendar Filled With Many Parties For Brides-Elect, Visitors

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

The coming week will be filled with numerous parties, brides-elect and visitors sharing honors. Invitations are in the mail this weekend to a tea for which Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will be hostess on Friday, June 27 at her Fairmount Hill residence. The affair is being arranged in compliment to two popular brides-elect, Miss Antoinette Kuzmanich, who will be married to Secretary of State Mark O. Hatfield on July 8, and Miss Sarah Van Fleet, who will become the bride of Thomas B. Brand on July 12. Calling hours will be from 3 to 5 o'clock with a group of the young married contingent bidden to greet the guests of honor.

Coffee to Honor Miss Kuzmanich

Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley and her daughter, Mrs. John P. Maulding, are entertaining with an informal coffee on Tuesday at the former's North Summer Street home for the pleasure of Miss Kuzmanich. A group of young matrons have been invited to call between 10:30 and 2 o'clock.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Donald Sommer, Mrs. Alvin D. Bauer and Mrs. Rodney Hofstetter. Presiding at the coffee urns will be Mrs. Wheeler R. English, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer Jr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley.

Other Pre-Nuptial Parties Planned

On Thursday Mrs. Harry Baughman is entertaining at luncheon at her Portland home for Miss Kuzmanich and on June 28 Miss Shirley Fields will be a luncheon hostess for the bride-elect, Mrs. B. F. Johnson of Portland will entertain with the rehearsal dinner on July 5 and Dr. G. Herbert Smith will host the bachelor dinner for Mr. Hatfield on July 3 at the University Club in Portland. Miss Kuzmanich and her mother, Mrs. Vincent Kuzmanich, have planned the bridesmaids' luncheon for July 2 at their home.

Tea to Fete Mrs. Melvin Lord

Invitations have come from Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Edith Schryver to a tea for which they will be hostesses on Wednesday, July 2 at their Mission Street residence. The tea will honor Mrs. Melvin S. Lord of Washington, D.C., who is arriving in the capital the end of June for a summer's visit with her two eldest children, Mary Elizabeth and John Montague. Mrs. Lord has a wide circle of friends in the capital made on former visits and her husband will join her here later in the summer. Friends have been invited to call between 3 and 6 o'clock to greet the visitor.

Mrs. Meyer Hostess to Symphony Auxiliary

Calendared for Thursday morning is the informal coffee to be given by Mrs. Henry A. Meyer, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary of the Salem Symphony Society, at her Pringle Road home. The occasion will mark the first anniversary of the auxiliary and members have been invited to call at 10:30 o'clock.

The coffee will also be an opportunity for auxiliary members to meet the new president of the Symphony Society, Theodore deLoose. Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield, chairman of the ticket committee, will also give a report.

Miss Grace Carman will preside at the coffee and assisting will be the following board members, Mrs. Reginald Parker, Mrs. Frank Burlingham, Mrs. Charles S. Campbell, Mrs. Sigfried B. Under, Mrs. William McAllister and Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield.

Reception to Honor Brands

An informal reception is being arranged for Justice and Mrs. James T. Brand on Wednesday afternoon between four and six, at the Supreme Court Building. Their host of friends are asked to call to say good-bye to the Brands before their departure to Florida.

Professor Ralph Dobbs of the Willamette School of Music will play at five o'clock. At 5:15 Chief Justice William Perry and Mayor Robert White will say a few words.

Mrs. Frederick Sercombe and Ray Stringham are being assisted by staff members of the court in making arrangements for the event. All friends of Justice and Mrs. Brand are invited to attend.
