

Thomas Pickens Married To Portland Girl At Church Ceremony

A number of Salem people were in Portland on Saturday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Harriet Brooks Weinstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weinstein of Portland, and Thomas Roen Pickens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pickens of Salem. The couple exchanged their vows at a 2 o'clock ceremony at Trinity Baptist Church with Rev. John Wobig officiating.

Eddie Thomas was the vocalist and Mrs. James Billeter was the organist. White and blue was the color scheme for the wedding and the altar was banked with bouquets of white gladioluses and blue delphinium.

For her wedding the bride selected a white silk taffeta gown fashioned with a very full, floor length skirt. The low, rounded neckline and cuff detail of the three-quarter sleeves were enhanced with Italian quipure. An imported French crown of seed pearls and brilliants held in place her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white phalaenopsis orchids.

The five attendants wore white nylon full skirted gowns trimmed with blue velvet bows and carried white carnations tied with blue ribbon. Mrs. Richard Lamanna was the matron of honor, Miss Sandra Kærli, Miss Barbara Pfaff, Miss Karen Schoen and Mrs. William McFarlane, the bridesmaids.

Gordon Domogalla of Salem served as best man for Mr. Pickens. Seating the guests were John Eggers of Corvallis, Raymond Taylor, Jack L. Phillips, and Jerry Brendon.

Mrs. Weinstein wore a lilac-blue Chantilly lace gown for her daughter's nuptials and Mrs. Pickens chose a mauve rose lace gown.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlor. Pouring were Mrs. John Eggers, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Clyde Carroll, Mrs. William Siedow and Mrs. Ted Motz, the latter two aunts of the bride. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Wayne Whitbeck, Mrs. Rolla Sawtell and Mrs. Fred Leibold. Assisting were Mesdames John Marinelli, Jesse Hall, Roy Clark, Gordon Domogalla, James Fischer, Misses Vicki Ward, Barbara Ascher and Linda Lakoutette.

After a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the couple will be at home in Salem at 2115 Nebraska St. For traveling the new Mrs. Pickens donned a blue linen sheath with matching coat and white accessories.
