

Man Forced to Sell 'Dream Of 63 Years' for Groceries

By BOB ROOKER
SANTA FE, N. M., April 20 (AP)—In 1894, Frank Schmidt was a young man with a dream — and he was one of the lucky few. He lived to see his dream fully realized. But now he's about to lose it.

His dream must be sold so he can eat. Schmidt, born in Germany 73 years ago, said his life-long wish was to complete a bedroom suite — not just an ordinary suite, but one "that I saw in a dream when I was first in this country."

He did finish it, but it took him 63 years to do so. And, just as he wanted, it's not an ordinary bedroom suite. It's made of pecan wood from Oklahoma, walnut from a 200-year-old French organ, an old Bois d'Arc wood railroad tie taken from the torn-up tracks of an early Santa Fe Railroad route, lichen or iron wood from South America, mahogany from the Philippines and native New Mexico cedar.

Future of Jordan King in Doubt as Army Chief Quits

By TOM MASTERSON
BEIRUT, Lebanon, April 20 (AP)—King Hussein is the strong man of Jordan. For the moment. But the shocking resignation of the man he picked as the army's chief of staff raises serious questions about his future.

There is no question about the young King's personal courage, but personal courage is not everything in the twistings and turnings of Middle Eastern politics. For Hussein it is absolutely vital to win full loyalty from his army. Without that the leftists and Arab extremists could stir up street mobs to spark demonstrations and riots. That could force the new government of Prime Minister Khalidi to resign. After that anything could happen.

And to make it more unusual, the suite, consisting of a chest, bed, vanity table, chest of drawers and two night stands, is all made by hand, every inch inlaid into a sturdy oak frame with pieces he whittled himself. "And now it must be sold," he shrugged. "I turned out."

Station Aims, Elvis Records For 3 1/2 Hours

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 20 (AP)—A country music disc jockey locked himself in a radio station control room today and played Elvis Presley records for 3 1/2 hours because he didn't like the rock 'n' roll singer.

Schmidt saw a doctor in Kansas City and was told to come back to New Mexico, the origin of his travels in the United States. He said he came back and became a carpenter in Las Vegas, N. M., and Albuquerque. He married a New Mexico girl, Teresa Martinez, and they had 10 children.

But he is quick to say, "Yes, I got 10 children, but they have families too. I will not ask them."

Beck Critic Wins Election in Local

DENVER, April 20 (AP)—Benny Greenfield, an outspoken critic of Dave Beck, Teamsters Union president, was elected president of Denver Teamsters local 17 tonight.

Greenfield defeated Carl West, 410-188. West did not make his position known regarding Beck.

Greenfield, in a victory statement said one of his objectives is organization of a national program "to forever prohibit any one man from becoming a dictator over the lives of 14 million men as Dave Beck has done."

Judge Clears Father, Sons Of Homicide

MANASSAS, Va., April 20 (AP)—A Roswell man and his two sons were cleared today of charges in connection with the shooting death of Walker Air Force Base.

Justice of the Peace R. Perry Bean accepted a motion to dismiss the charges of murder against Ben Lucero, 28; Anselmo Lucero, 20, and Clement Lucero, 22.

It was testified that Jarrett had left his guard post early Friday and an autopsy showed an alcoholic content in his blood. He was shot on the Luceros' property in an exchange of shots about 1:30 a.m. Friday. The judge's ruling upheld the contention of the Luceros' attorney that the death of Jarrett resulted from justifiable homicide.

Man Convicted on Gambling Charge

PORTLAND, April 20 (AP)—A municipal court judge yesterday found Harvey Jackson 46, guilty of permitting gambling and fined him $100.

Jackson, who also received a suspended 30-day jail term, was one of four persons arrested early this month in a series of police raids in Portland's Williams Ave. area.

Several persons were injured when a fire escape pulled loose from its fastenings and dropped them to the pavement. Dancers had crowded onto the fire escape two miles clinging to its over-turned base.

Pioneer, Modern Global Fliers to Get Together

DAYTON, Ohio, April 20 (AP)—It took 173 days for the first round-the-world flight. That was 53 years ago, and since then the U.S. Air Force has sped a plane around the globe in 45 hours and 18 minutes.

When they get back they gave the United States the honor of being the first nation to circumnavigate the earth by air. Argentina, England, France, Italy and Portugal fell far short of that goal.

Six of the original eight airmen who made the 1924 flight will be joined by other globe-girdlers—Maj. Gen. Archie Old, who commanded the January 1957, nonstop flight of three Strategic Air Command B52s, along with airmen of those three planes and of the B50 "Lucky Lady II" which made the first nonstop around-the-world flight in 1962.

It has been fairly quiet at North Salem High during the past week as no major activities were planned in observance of Holy week.

Ike Signs Bill to Increase Interest on Savings Bonds

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 20 (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed a bill authorizing an interest rate hike on government savings bonds. He called the bonds "better than ever" and said they "help assure the economic stability of our country."

North's Girls' Glee did sing at the First Methodist Church for the Holy Week services, however. An exchange assembly in South Salem High was also planned.

The bill gives the Treasury Department a go-ahead to pay 3 1/2 per cent interest compared with the current 3 per cent. The department has indicated it would put the higher rate into effect on all bonds sold on or after Feb. 1.

Acts for the assembly, which is to be presented to the South student body April 28, include: the Rockettes, senior girls dance group; Gary Frame, pianist; Melaine Gilmore, vocalist, accompanied by Gary Frame; Louis Henderson, interpretive dancer; Sophomore Melodettes, vocal and dance group, accompanied by Nancy Otto; Terry Meisinger, accordionist; Sandy Stenheim, Sandie Johnson, Carolyn Lunday, Nancy McFarland, dance group; Dick West, trumpeter; Tophans, dance group; Ladell Anderson, dancer; and the Harmonettes accompanied by Gary Frame.

Eisenhower signed five other bills at his vacation headquarters at the Augusta National Golf Club before going out on the course for another round.

He was accompanied around the links by his Easter weekend guest, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey. The cabinet officer does not play golf, but he rode along with his host in an electric car.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower and Humphrey and his wife plan to attend Easter services tomorrow morning at Reid Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Justice Vinson Honored
Placing an oil painting and a marble bust of the late Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson in the Supreme Court building.

In a prepared statement on the bill authorizing an increase in the savings bond interest rate, Eisenhower said the purchase program "has become an integral part of the American way of life" and has "taught countless Americans how to save."

Solon Fears Extra Cash To Hike Tax

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Sen. Williams (R-De.) insisted today that under present tax rules, a member of Congress risks extra income taxes if he economizes on official expense allowances.

Today, 40 million Americans own over 41 billion dollars in securities and bonds. We want to see more people continually buying more bonds so that savings bonds provide even greater financial protection for our people in the years ahead and, at the same time, help assure the economic stability of our country."

Ballroom Brawl Involves 2,700 In New York

NEW YORK, April 21 (Sunday) (AP)—A brawl broke out among 2,700 dancers celebrating a "Caribbean Carnival" at a ballroom early today. Police said six persons suffered cuts and bruises.

Anonymous Note Admits Hit-Run Death

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20 (AP)—An anonymous "confession" to the savage hit-run killing of Lloyd V. Stephens was received by police today.

The typewritten letter, mailed in Berkeley, Calif., said he wanted to surrender but was "afraid" he would go to the gas chamber.

The typewritten letter, mailed in Berkeley, Calif., said he wanted to surrender but was "afraid" he would go to the gas chamber. "I will turn myself in if you will promise to let me off as easily as you can."

The Senator said that when he tried to give back the money, he was informed of a 1956 ruling that the allowance belonged to members of Congress, and that if he didn't use all of his, he would have to pay taxes on what was left over.

The letter did not mention the frenzied efforts of the hit-run driver to shake Stephens' body loose from the car after the 62-year-old machinist was struck Sunday night at a street intersection.

Yesterly, Humphrey said that if Williams "would offer me a check for the amount, I will be glad to receive it personally."

Stephens was dragged for three blocks while the automobile struck and its tires squealed in a series of violent starts and stops. Stephens might have survived had the driver stopped when the car hit him, doctors said.

Police were aware the letter might be the work of a crank. Lt. Edward Moody of the Accident Investigation Bureau immediately issued a call for the writer to surrender.

Moody conferred with Dist. Atty. Thomas C. Lynch, who said, "This is not a first degree murder defense. The letter writer need not be afraid of the gas chamber."

The letter arrived at police quarters after hypnosis was used to recall the death car's license number. Hypnotists failed to produce a complete license number.

Williams said he expects the comptroller general to find some way to reverse the 1956 ruling.
