Defeat Spoils Thunderbird's League Debut

By CHRIS KOWITZ

A hard - driving, ball - hawking Willamette Bearcat basketball quintet bowled over the heavily favored University of British Cohambia Thunderbirds on Willamette's court last night, spoiling the Canadians' debut into Northwestern conference casaba play and promising local fans another top-flight fracas -tonight, when the two clubs clash in the final contest of their two-game series as 8 o'clock

Visibly a tired lot after trouncing Oregon on Wednesday and Thursday nights at Eugene, the visitors found the basket hard to find during the first half. Red and Black Drop Opener On South Trip

MEDFORD, Jan. 4-(Special)-Medford's Black Tornado, beaten only by the barnstorming Longview. Wash., cage club this year, found anything but easy going in their tilt with Salem high school here tonight, winding up with a narrow 43 to 39 win. The driving, young Vikings, playing without the services of Captain Allen Bellinger and regular guard Alt Chamberlain, never quit trying, and were closing the margin as the contest ended. It was a vastly improved Salem team from the one that was crushed here last spring 65 to 33 by almost the same Medford crew.

Coach Harold Hauk's kids trailed only 8 to 9 at the quarter, fell behind 23 to 17 at the half, and lagged by eight points-33 to 25at the third period rest. A final period rally couldn't quite catch. the smooth Tornado.

For Medford big Darrell Riggs was a tower of strength under the backboards, while Jerry Ross and Earl Stelle paced the scoring with 8 markers each. Bunny Mason was high for Salem with 8 points, too, while guards Dick Hendrie, Kenny Gibson, and Roger Dasch gave Medford trouble all evening with their drive and their constant ball-hawking. Salem winds up its southern trip by playing Ashland there Saturday night.

Rickey Antics Just About As Daffy As His Dodgers

By Whitney Martin NEW YORK, Jan. 4 -(A) Branch Rickey apparently is determined to win acceptance as a true Brooklynite, as the manner in which he signed Leo Durocher to a 1946 contract as manager was strictly in keeping with Dodger tradition. Durocher was around town for a while before leaving for Miami Beach a few days ago. It would have been simple to arrange a conference, even if Mr. Rickey was confined to a hospital, as he still is.

However, that would have been the direct approach, the orthodox method. That wouldn't be putting two base runners on third base or skillfully catching fly balls on the head. No sir, the Dodgers have to do things the hard way, so Mr. Rickey waits until Durocher arrives in

There's never a dull moment when the outspoken little guy is around. He's noisy even when he's quiet, if you get the idea. That is, when practically in repose and not mad at anybody he's still louder than the average citizen.

Whether you like his boisterous, pugnacious, truculent manthat he gets results. Results with his team, that is. We've never heard of him winning an argument with an umpire yet, but he never quits trying. It's possible he uses the wrong approach. He walks toward them instead of away from them.

That he will have a better team this year is assured with the return of such capable players as Pete Reiser, Pee-Wee Reese and others. He jumped into third place last year after finishing seventh with a bunch of bobby-sockers in 1944. It isn't at all improbable the Bums will be pennant contenders this year, particularly if the favored Cardinals get rid of players such as Walker and more particularly if such players go to the Dodg-
