

Rites Read At Church Nuptials

At the First Christian church on Friday night Miss Darlyne LaVonne Geddes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Geddes, became the bride of Mrs. Alford Raymond Strawn, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Strawn of Portland. The Rev. Mr. Stratford performed the 8 o'clock rites.

The couple exchanged vows before a lattice arrangement and gate decorated with silver bells, pinks and white carnations, fern and white tapers. Miss Audrey Vaughan, wearing pink, and Miss Cherie Rains, in a blue gown, lighted the candles.

Mrs. Chester Cushing sang "Because" and "God Gave Me You" before the bridal party entered. Miss Alice Rose was the organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown fashioned with a satin bodice and full chiffon skirt which ended in a train. The long sleeves ended in points over the wrists and chiffon ruffling enhanced the square neckline. Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from a Mary Stuart head-dress. She carried a white testament marked with garlands and bouvardia.

Mrs. George N. Hawkins was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a blue chiffon gown made with a full skirt, three-quarter length sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Miss Alice Sandver was the bridesmaid and wore a pink net gown with a jersey bodice. They carried pastel nosegays to match their dresses.

Attend the Groom
Mr. William Strawn stood with his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. Frances Moore and Mr. Sherman Callaway.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Geddes wore a black suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Strawn selected a black silk crepe gown with matching accessories and her flowers were pink carnations.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a wedding reception in the church parlors. Mrs. M. M. Magee and Mrs. Lydia Vaughan presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. Roy Trudgeon cut the bride's cake.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride wore a black and white checked suit with black top coat and black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Strawn will return to Salem where they have taken an apartment for the next two months. In March Mr. Strawn will leave for Fort Lewis to report for re-assignment. He recently returned from the European theatre of operations.

Don't Look Now...

but... election nights on a newspaper aren't like they used to be. Friday night. Instead of rushing around, pushing our way through crowds who gather to hear the news right fresh before it gets on the press, we worked on a crossword puzzle between precinct reports. The thing that made us so disgusted was that we couldn't get the crossword puzzle—too dull.

Best dressed man... of the week was seen Saturday. He had on a padded leather jacket, heavy trousers, fleece lined overshoes, heavy leather mittens and a knitted cap. And he looked warm—more than you can say for most of us.

Now it can be told... At least the street sweepers in Portland don't disturb things. On December 29 I lost a mitten mother had knitted for me for Christmas and didn't have the nerve to tell her about it. On January 7, I drove to Portland, got out of the car and picked my mitten from the gutter, well washed but in good repair. And I have witnesses to prove it!

X marks spot... Got a card from a fellow in Independence, Mo., who offers to tell my faults and talents if I'll only send him my handwriting, and 25c in cash. He promises a "surprise for me." Goodness sakes, it never surprises me when friends and relations tell my faults, and I don't have to pay 25c for the information either... Maxine Buren.

The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 with Mrs. Paul Acton leading the devotions "Peace Through the Cross." The guest speaker will be Miss Laura Heist, who has served in India for many years. All women of the church are invited to attend.

At the recent circle meetings the following were elected as chairmen for the coming year: Circle 1, Mrs. A. A. Lee; Circle 2, Mrs. O. H. Yetter; Circle 3, Mrs. Ted Ullakko; Circle 4, Mrs. Edmond L. Clark; Circle 5, Mrs. L. V. Shafer; and Circle 6, Mrs. Roy Ohmart.

Grady-Twill Vows Read in Corvallis

Two former Salem young people, Miss Marion Twill and Edward C. Grady were married in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Twill in Corvallis on December 5. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Grady of Portland.

Dr. Jesse Bunch read the service. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a green wool suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Mr. and Mrs. William Peterson attended the couple.

The groom, who is serving in the navy, reported back to his ship, the SS Detroit, at Seattle, and his bride will live in Portland during his absence.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Grady attended Salem schools.

DeMolay Mothers met at the Masonic temple on Thursday for a luncheon and business session. Hostesses were Mrs. W. Wilson and Mrs. A. H. Davis. Retiring president, Mrs. W. J. Beard presented gifts to Mrs. W. McCabe, Mrs. Douglas Armstrong and Mrs. Davis for perfect attendance.

Debra Ann Kingan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kingan, will celebrate her sixth birthday this afternoon when she entertains a group of friends at a party at the Fairmount Hill home of her parents.

Miss Case to Talk To 4-H Clubs

Miss Lucy A. Case, extension nutritionist from Oregon State college, will be the guest speaker over KOAC, Monday at 7:30 p. m. on the 4-H club radio program. Her topic will be "Plans for 4-H Health Clubs in 1946." She will discuss ways of correlating the health clubs with the physical fitness program of the public schools. Miss Case has assisted with 4-H Health Clubs for many years and is author of the handbook which is being used by these clubs in Oregon.

Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state 4-H club leader, will also speak, discussing "Styles of Today." Suggestions will be made which will be especially helpful to members of 4-H clothing clubs.

The 4-H club radio program is a regular feature over KOAC on Monday night. On subsequent Monday evenings other speakers will discuss topics of interest to 4-H club members and leaders.
