Experts in Household Line Offer Suggestions for Good Homemaking

By Maxine Buren
Women's Editor, The Statesman

Household hints from the morning's mail:

A suggestion for a breakfast menu is a prune, sausage, banana grill. Brown link sausages, remove meat and saute cooked dried prunes in the fat, set to one side and add bananas. Cover and let cook slowly a few minutes until fruit has cleared and is slightly brown. If bananas are large, cut them across in half.

Vegetables to be cooked with a roast should be parboiled a few minutes first, to prevent hardening unnecessarily on the outside.

When using honey as a sweetening, government experts say to add 1 tablespoon water to a cup of honey, hold over a low heat until warm then stir. Overheating drives away the delicate flavor.

Honey as it comes from the jar is a suitable consistency for use on pancakes or as a spread on bread or biscuits. Thinned honey tends to ferment or mould, so don't thin too much at a time.

Ammonia as a household cleaner and helper-about-the-house has long been favored but now it makes the headlines. Recently a group of women pooled ideas for home cleaning, and ammonia was crowned princess of cleaners.

Here are some of the hints reported by housewives: Ammonia was allowed to stand overnight in a small glass in an oven in which food had been burned. In the morning, food had been Bidden by the hostess are Mrs. Rex Putnam and Mrs. Lester Wilcox, special guests, Mrs. Ralph Morgan, Mrs. Glenn Weaver, Mrs. Maurice Buchanan, Mrs. Clem Clark, Mrs. Winston Purvine, Mrs. Milton Coe, Mrs. Charles Feike, Mrs. Harold Shogren, Mrs. Calvin Kent and Mrs. Earl Cooley.

State Chairman Outlines Plans

The Salem B.P.W. education committee met at the home of Miss Ida Mae Smith, club president. Those present were Miss Mathilda Gilles, chairman, Mrs. Arthur Weddle, Miss Grace Taylor and Mrs. Maude Eckman.

Mrs. Weddle, B.P.W. state chairman of education, outlined state plans for contacting local selective service boards so that each discharged servicewoman may be reached immediately following her release from the service. The plan is to assist these women in securing suitable employment or to discuss possible educational courses suitable to their needs. It was decided that Salem would adopt the plan of the state, in contacting its servicewomen. The committee also favored giving all possible support to the Junior Women's club in their kindergarten project of the year.

The B.P.W. executive board will meet Thursday night, January 17, at the home of Miss Ida Mae Smith at 7:30. The board will discuss matters which are to be presented to the club at the regular dinner meeting at the Golden Pheasant at 6:30 January 22.

Mr. C. A. McClure, engineer of the long range planning commission for the Salem Chamber of Commerce, will be presented as the guest speaker. Arrangements have been made to present Dorothy Poff as guest vocalist and she will be accompanied on the piano by Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr.

Call Meetings Of YW Groups

Nineteen leaders and workers from the Salem YWCA who attended the recent workshop conference for all Oregon YW associations in Portland, have been called to meet at the Salem YW on Thursday afternoon. The local group chartered a bus to make the trip, and the delegation was a representative cross-section from the board, staff, younger girls division, advisory group, university group, and membership at large. Discussions and work groups were held on various phases of work of the local associations in relation to the national organization. At this week's meeting the girls and women will attempt to evaluate the Portland sessions.

Attending from Salem were Mrs. Guy Hickok, Miss Isabel Childs, Mrs. G. M. Wisley, Miss Marjorie Wells, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Elizabeth MacDowell, Mrs. Esther W. Little, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Mrs. Helen Goodenough, Donna Chastain, Pat Long, Marian Sparks, Eloise Rarery, Bonnie Daugherty, Frances DeLaney, Marian Reamer, Mavis Egging, Pat Powell, and Miss Olive Dahl.

The planning committee working on the proposed new Salem YWCA center, together with representatives from all women's clubs or other organizations interested, will meet Thursday evening, 7:30 o'clock, at the YW building. Purpose of the meeting is to discuss and to consider suggestions on planning the new YW center here.

A newly-launched social and recreational group, sponsored by the Salem YWCA, YMCA, and veterans, and designed for the special benefit of veterans and newcomers, will meet Wednesday night of this week at 8 o'clock in the Cherry room at the chamber of commerce.

All veterans and newcomers interested are invited, as well as representatives from other groups who would like to give backing to the new group. Those interested are advised to call Mrs. Elizabeth MacDowell at the YWCA office, 8878.

It is hoped the group soon will be able to outline several future activities interesting newcomers, and veterans back in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Morrell are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Tamara Jae, on Sunday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. McMillin and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrell.

Miss Pierce Bride of Week

The Jason Lee Methodist church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Betty Pierce, daughter of Mrs. Helen Pierce, to Mr. Roy Kuenstler, son of Mrs. Ed Kuenstler of San Antonio, Texas, Tuesday night. The Rev. S. Raynor Smith officiated at the 7 o'clock nuptials.

Miss Betty Louise Sinkola sang "I Love Thee" and "Because" before the rites and Miss Alice Rose was the organist. The altar was banked with arrangements of carnations, palms and candles. Miss Joan Skinner of Canby, wearing an aqua frock, lighted the tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. C. A. Long of Seattle, chose a pastel peach pebble crepe afternoon dress for her wedding. The dress was fashioned princess style with matching nail head trim embellishing the bodice. The waist was designed with a V-neckline and short sleeves. She wore a black half hat with peach veiling, black and white accessories. She carried a white prayer book marked with a maroon orchid.

Miss Gloria Robinson was the maid of honor and wore a pastel grey wool dress with black accessories. Mrs. Helen Pruitt, the matron of honor, wore a sea aqua crepe gown with black accessories. They carried pastel nosegays to match their dresses.

Attend the Groom
Mr. Albert J. Evans of Salem stood with Mr. Kuenstler as best man. Ushers were Mr. John Wallace and Mr. Robert Schwartz.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pierce wore a chateauise and black figured crepe gown with black accessories and a corsage of spring flowers.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. C. A. Long cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Clifton Mudd presided at the coffee urn. Assisting were Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Floyd Seamster and Mrs. L. H. Allison. Miss Shirley Long of Seattle passed the guest book.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to the Oregon coast the bride wore a pink wool suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Kuenstler will make their home in Salem at 1360 N. Cottage st.
