"Trail Swingers" Furnish Music for Community Club

BRUSH COLLEGE, Jan. 17.—(Special) The "Jeff Taylor Oregon Trail Swingers," popular radio artists were started on the well attended program at the January meeting of Brush College community club at the school house. Delbert Folk presided and Jack Olson was chairman of the program committee. Supplementing the orchestra selections was a western cowboy review in costume by the school, under the direction of the teachers, Mrs. Vivian Burton and Miss Muriel Kaster. Included in the review were acrobatic tumbling exhibition by the school, song by Nadine Olson and Patsy Moriarty, dance and song skit by the five Rhoades girls, song and dance steps by lineup of girls, and group singing by the school.

Grey and Diane, comedy ballroom team recently appearing at the Last Frontier club in Las Vegas, who share the billing at Leonard's Supper club this week.
