

Miss Corey Married in Bay City

From San Francisco comes word of the marriage of Miss Dorothea Corey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Corey, to Mr. Robert E. Hoyt, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hoyt, all of Salem. The ceremony took place on Saturday, January 12, at the First Presbyterian church in the bay city. Dr. Creighton officiated at the high noon rites.

For her wedding the bride selected a smart green suit trimmed in mink, a brown hat and accessories. She carried a mink muff and pinned to the shoulder of her suit were brown orchids.

Miss Margaret Corey of San Francisco was her sister's only attendant. Mr. Carl Metz of San Mateo was best man for Mr. Hoyt.

A wedding luncheon in honor of the newlyweds was held immediately after the ceremony at the Plaza hotel.

Mr. Hoyt and his bride left later in the day for a wedding trip to Mexico City. They will return to Salem in the early spring.

The new Mrs. Hoyt is a graduate of Salem schools and is well known in the capital. Her husband, who also received his education here, has just returned from the South Pacific, having served as a chief engineer in the United States maritime commission.

Pre-Dance Party to Be Held

Invitations were in the mail this week to a pre-dance party for which Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hill and Mrs. Mrs. Elmore E. Hill will be hosts preceding the main dance on Wednesday night, January 22.

The affair will be held in the Marine room of the Marion hotel with guests calling between 8 and 10 o'clock.

The Tillikum dance will be at the Veterans' hall with Guy Albini's orchestra playing for the affair. Guest night will be observed with members entitled to bring their friends as guests of the club.

Coolleys to Be Club Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley will entertain members of their club Saturday night. The group will gather for a no-host dinner at the Marion hotel and later cards will be in play at the Cooleys' home on North Summer street.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Soellers and Mr. and Mrs. Cooley.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Prime, Sr., are leaving for Portland today to spend several days. Accompanying them will be their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank V. Prime, Jr., and small son, who will visit with her parents.

When CHEST COLDS STRIKE—

Here's Fast, Prolonged Relief From Coughs, Sore Throat...
 At first signs of a cold—rub on good old reliable Musterole for fast and prolonged relief which continues all while it remains on your skin!
 Musterole immediately starts right in to relieve coughs, sore throat and tight soreness in chest. It actually helps break up painful local congestion. Its soothing vapors also help break up congestions in upper bronchial tract, nose and throat.
 Musterole offers all the advantages of a warming, stimulating mustard plaster yet is so much easier to apply. Just rub it on. Feel it work!

Miss Keith To Marry Sunday

Sunday, January 20, has been set as the date for the wedding of Miss Priscilla Ann Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keith, to Mr. Kenneth Stillman Anderson, son of Mrs. T. J. Crabtree, all of Salem.

The ceremony will take place in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church with the Rev. George H. Swift officiating at the afternoon rites at one o'clock. Miss Ruth Bedford will be the organist.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has asked her sister, Mrs. Theodore Smith, to be her matron of honor and the groom's sister, Miss Polly Anderson, will be the bridesmaid.

A wedding reception for the immediate family will follow the ceremony at the Keith apartment at the Royal Court.

After their wedding trip the couple will return to Salem to make their home. Mr. Anderson, who served in the merchant marine as a commander, will enter the real estate business here.

Mrs. Findlay A Visitor

Mrs. Alexander W. Findlay (Frances Holcomb) has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Holcomb, 1890 S. Church st., following her discharge from the Waves in December at Balboa Park, San Francisco, Calif.

Prior to her discharge, Mrs. Findlay had been a control tower operator for 20 months at the naval air station, Pensacola, Fla. She plans to leave Saturday for Rapid City, S. D., where she will be executive director of the Girl Scouts, and live with her sister, Mrs. Lester A. Ripple. The former Wave was married in 1944 to Sub. Lt. Findlay, Royal naval air arm, of Edinburgh, Scotland, who plans to join her following his discharge in June. He is now in Sidney, Australia.

From Portland comes word of the birth of a son, Thomas Jay, to Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Guthrie, former Salem residents. The little boy, who was born January 14 at St. Vincent's hospital, has three brothers, Darrell, James and John.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn were among those in Portland Thursday night to attend the Jose Iturbi concert.

Miss Hood, Now Mrs. Smart

Miss Margaret Hood became the bride of Lt. James S. Smart at a beautiful wedding ceremony Thursday night at the Knight Memorial church. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hood of Independence and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart.

The 8 o'clock rites were performed by the bride's father who was assisted by the Rev. Willard Hall. The altar was decorated with baskets of calla lilies and freesias flanked by white tapers in candelabras. Lighting the candles were Mrs. Carl Bewley, who wore aqua and Mrs. Lawrence Fitzgerald, who wore a rose gown. In their hair were wreaths of paper white narcissus.

The nuptials Mrs. Gene Cooksey sang "At Dawning" and "Because." Mrs. Jean Hobson Rich played the organ accompaniments and wedding marches.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, chose a white gown with broaded taffeta bodice and a full net skirt which ended in a train. The sleeves were three-quarter length and the fitted bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and tiny buttons extended from the neck to waistline in back.

Her train length tulle veil cascaded from a tiara of beading and net. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, carnations and bouvardia. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Attend the Bride
 Mrs. Donald Hood of Gervais was her sister-in-law's matron of honor. She wore a gold frock with satin brocade made with sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves and a full net skirt. Her matching satin Juliet cap was fashioned with a short tulle veil and she carried a nosegay of Tallman rosebuds, violets and freesias. Mrs. Robert Worral, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. Her gown was of pastel blue satin and net and she also wore a matching Juliet cap and veil. Her nosegay was of pink roses, violets and paper white narcissus.

Mr. Gordon Krueger stood with Lt. Smart as best man. Seating the guests were Mr. Donald Hood, Mr. James Newcomb and Mr. Joseph Thomas. Mr. J. P. Smart was his son's groomsman.
 For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hood selected a gown of dusty rose crepe and Mrs. Smart wore a black crepe dress. Their corsages were of gardenias.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room at the church immediately after the ceremony. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. David Eason and Mrs. K. K. Adams. Mrs. William Knower cut the bride's cake. Serving were Mrs. Gordon Wyatt, Miss Evelyn Van Hees and Miss Marion Beutler. Mrs. Joseph Salonia was in charge of the gift table and Mrs. Carl Bewley passed the guest book. The bride's table was covered with a hand drawn lace cloth and centered with the tiered cake flanked by white tapers and white flowers as the base of the crystal holders.

When the couple left on their

Sgt. and Mrs. Alford Raymond Strawn (Dorlyne LaVonne Geddes) who were married on January 11 at the First Christian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Geddes and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Strawn of Portland. The couple will live in Salem until Mr. Strawn reports for reassignment in March at Fort Lewis. (Jesten-Miller).

trip to southern Oregon the bride donned a pebble sand cardigan suit with three-quarter length brown top coat, brown feather hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Lt. and Mrs. Smart will return to Salem to reside at 482 1/2 South High street. The groom, who returned in November from two years overseas service with the marines, is now engaged in farming.

Dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift Wednesday night were Dean and Mrs. Charles Guilbert of St. Stephen's Cathedral, Portland.

Visiting in Portland Thursday were Mrs. Ralph Mapes and Mrs. Emmett Kleinke.

Open House Slated For Sunday

Women of Lausanne hall, Willamette university, will be hostesses Sunday afternoon from two to five o'clock at a formal open house tea, the first since the navy V-12 unit was housed in the main women's dormitory and the disbanding of the unit previous to this semester. All students, parents, friends and faculty members of the university have been invited.

"Back Home for Keeps" is the theme chosen for this event, which is the first public inspection of the dormitory since its complete redecoration and remodeling this fall. Outstanding improvements include a new recreation room in the basement which is a playground and social center for all dormitory women. Also a feature of interest is the cafeteria in the basement, installed this fall to accommodate students living outside the hall and faculty members, as well as Lausanne women. Townspeople have also been anxious to view the newly decorated lounge and adjoining parlors which are used for special occasions.

Greet the Guests
 Greeting visitors at the front door as hostesses will be Misses Elaine Bergquist, Muriel Oliver, Beverly Briggs and Sue Ferguson. Miss Jennie Fisher of Portland, general chairman of the event, will present guests to the receiving line in the parlor. In the line will be Elizabeth Jory Nicholson, hall president; Mrs. Ellen Foster, house mother; Dean and Mrs. Chester F. Luther, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, wife of the university president; Miss Olive M. Dahl, dean of women, and Miss Lorena Jack, director of dormitories.

Complete tours of the hall have been arranged to give the visitors the opportunity to inspect all of the rooms. Refreshments will be served in the dining room with Misses Marion Morange, Lois Latimer, Helen Mac Hiron, Mrs. Jennie Nesbitt, faculty members, and Mrs. Lulu Quick and Mrs. Helen Goodenough pouring during the afternoon. Background music for the affair will be provided on the piano by several Lausanne women.

The general committee for the affair besides Miss Fisher includes Miss Beth Sherman, decorations; Miss June Dunn, food; Misses RoJean Finley and Marian McClain, invitations and programs; Miss Eileen Grenfell, plaque and program design;

Misses Ida Mattinen and Wilona Henderson, publicity, and Miss Doris Bartholomy, routing.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval E. Edwards are arranging an informal "welcome home" party for Saturday night at their State street residence in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William DePew and Mr. and Mrs. Winstanley Jenks. The two men have been released from the service and have returned to Salem.
