

17-year-old Youth Admits Setting Fires

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 17 (AP)—A 17-year-old youth with flaming red hair confessed today he set a series of fires in Vanport City just to watch the flames.

Nearly $200,000 worth of damage was caused since mid-December by the blazes, which damaged a shopping center, two schools and numerous housing and service units in the war-bomb center at Portland's north edge.

Sheriff's deputies arrested Vincent Wesley Hunt today after getting a description of the person seen running away from a pile of mattresses which had been set afire.

Deputy Sheriff Dave McMillan said Hunt confessed setting fire outside an apartment building yesterday, and admitted he might have started others, but said he couldn't remember. He later signed a confession to the $140,000 shopping center blaze and a $40,000 school building fire.

Howard L. Bobbitt, FBI chief, took Hunt for questioning since the housing project is federal property, and said he too obtained a confession. Hunt then was returned to county officials pending determination of which agency will prosecute, Bobbitt said.
