

Floyd Bates Selected By Jersey Club

By Little L. Madsen
Farm Editor, The Statesman

Floyd Bates, Salem, was elected president of the Marion County Jersey Cattle club when members met at Bethel school Sunday for their annual meeting.

Bates replaced M. G. Gundersen, Silverton, who had served for the past three years and declined to be a candidate for reelection. Bob Clark was elected vice president, O. C. Welsh secretary, and Lewis Judson director. All are from rural Salem. Mrs. Arthur Buyserie of Woodburn is the outgoing secretary.

Special Session Set
Arrangements were made for a special session at the Salem chamber of commerce rooms on Wednesday, January 30, at 8 p. m. when I. W. Slater, western fieldman for the American Jersey cattle club, will make his official visit to Marion county and outline 1946 Jersey club plans. Announcement was made of the state club meeting to be held at Marion hotel, Salem, January 26.

O. K. Beals of the state department of agriculture, Mrs. Beals, and James Bishop, county 4-H club director, were special guests at the dinner held before the business session. Beals spoke briefly on Oregon dairy laws and Bishop expressed appreciation for the club's assistance in the junior work.

State Meeting Reviewed
Rex Ross, Marquam, reviewed the recent state dairymen's meeting as well as the session which the state Jersey club held during the dairymen's convention at Salem.

Reports showed that the club had 40 paid up members during 1945, a substantial increase over the previous year, and promise for a larger membership for 1946. Reports also showed that there were 700 Jersey cows on test in Marion county.

The February meeting will be held at the Warren Davis ranch
