TWO NEW TROOPS

Two new Boy Scout troops in the Cascade area have been started recently. Troop No. 37 with Alfred Nesbitt, scoutmaster, started at Cascadia with school district No. 58 as sponsors. Eight boys have joined the group so far. William Pinster is chairman of the troop committee made up of Frank Babb, Joseph Walker, D. J. Stoner and Fred Koehler. Eldridge troop No. 68 had its installation ceremonies Wednesday night, under the direction of David St. John, scoutmaster of troop No. 54 at Gervais. The new group is sponsored by the Farmers Union whose president, Louis Schermer, accepted the charter. Clarence Michael is scoutmaster and M. B. Lucas, committee chairman.
